Seeing Signals Reading Signs The Art Of Exegesis

Steven M. Studebaker

Seeing Signals Reading Signs The Art Of Exegesis:

Seeing Signals, Reading Signs MarK A. O'Brien, Howard N. Wallace, 2004-12-23 For Antony Campbell exegesis is an artistic endeavour requiring sensitivity to the literary signals in the text and an artist's eye for reading the signs Literary signals are like signposts As he notes in his 2003 commentary on 1 Samuel several signposts pointing in different directions to the same destination invite reflection Several routes can lead to the same goal His experience of the biblical text suggests that reflection is being invited constantly A biblical text can appear disarmingly simple or profoundly challenging The Bible forms a rich and varied tapestry This volume of essays is a fitting testimony to Campbell's contribution to biblical scholarship Here leading scholars take up the challenge of applying their own exegetical skills and sensitivity to seeing signals and reading signs in the text Brian Peckham contributes an analysis of punctuation in the Hebrew text Norbert Lohfink tracks textual variants of Deut 1 39 that reveal how the canonical text was shaped Five essays are devoted to the Pentateuch and Former Prophets the priestly material Suzanne Boorer Exodus 6 7 Mark O'Brien Deuteronomy Mark Brett Joshua Wonil Kim 1 Kgs 16 34 Marvin Sweeney Four essays are devoted to the Former Prophets Howard Wallace on the imagery of the vineyard John Hill on Jeremiah 40 1 6 John Wright on Ruach in Ezekiel 37 and Steven McKenzie on the genre of Jonah Sean McEvenue and Rolf Knierim conclude the volume with reflections on the theological implications of how we read biblical texts

Legal Friction Gershon Hepner, 2010 Legal Friction Law Narrative and Identity Politics in Biblical Israel tracks the mystery of narratives in the Hebrew Bible and their allusions to Sinai laws by highlighting intertextual allusions created by verbal resonances While the second and the third parts of the volume illustrate allusions to Sinai narratives made by some narratives occurring in the post Sinaitic era twenty three Genesis narratives are analyzed to show that the protagonists were bound by Sinai Laws before God supposedly gave them to Moses anticipating the Book of Jubilees Legal Friction suggests that most of Genesis was composed during or after the Babylonian exile after the codification of most Sinai laws which Genesis protagonists consistently violate The fact that they are not punished for these violations implies to the exiles that the Sinai Covenant was unconditional In addition the author proposes that Genesis contains a hidden polemic encouraging the Judean exiles to follow the revisions of laws of the Covenant Code by the Holiness Code and Deuteronomy Genesis narratives like those describing post Sinai events often cannot be understood properly without recognition of their allusions to biblical laws

Earliest Christianity within the Boundaries of Judaism Alan Avery-Peck, Craig A. Evans, Jacob Neusner, 2016-02-02 Twenty two essays written by top scholars in the fields of early Christianity and Judaism focus on methodological issues earliest Christianity in its Judaic setting Gospel studies and history and meaning in later Christianity These essays honor Bruce Chilton recognizing his seminal contribution to the study of earliest Christianity in its Judaic setting Chilton's scholarship has established innovative approaches to reconstructing the life of Jesus a Jew whose religious ideology developed and therefore must be understood within the Judaism of the first centuries Following upon Chilton's approaches and insights the essays collected here illustrate the centrality of the literatures of early Judaism to the critical exegesis of the New Testament and other writings of early Christianity

The Command to Exterminate the Canaanites: Deuteronomy 7
 Arie Versluis, 2017-02-20 According to Deuteronomy 7 God commands Israel to exterminate the indigenous population of Canaan In The Command to Exterminate the Canaanites Deuteronomy 7 Arie Versluis offers an analysis and evaluation of this command Following an exegesis of the chapter the historical background possible motives and the place of the nations of Canaan in the Hebrew Bible are investigated The theme of religiously inspired violence continues to be a topic of interest The present volume discusses the consequences of the command to exterminate the Canaanites for the Old Testament view of God and for the question whether the Bible legitimizes violence in the present Finally the author shows how he reads this text as a Christian theologian

Exclusive Inclusivity Dalit Rom-Shiloni, 2013-07-18 The sixth and fifth centuries BCE were a time of constant re identifications within Judean communities both in exile and in the land it was a time when Babylonian exilic ideologies captured a central position in Judean Jewish history and literature at the expense of silencing the voices of any other Judean communities Proceeding from the later biblical evidence to the earlier from the Persian period sources Ezra Nehemiah Haggai Zechariah and Deutero Isaiah to the Neo Babylonian prophecy of Ezekiel and Jeremiah Exclusive Inclusivity explores the ideological transformations within these writings using the sociological rubric of exclusivity Social psychology categories of ethnicity and group identity provide the analytical framework to clarify that Ezekiel the prophet of the Jehoiachin Exiles was the earliest constructor of these exclusive ideologies Thus already from the Neo Babylonian period definitions of otherness were being set to shape the self understanding of each of the post 586 communities in Judah Yehud and in the Babylonian Diaspora as the exclusive People of God As each community reidentified itself as the in group arguments of otherness were adduced to disregard and delegitimize the sister community The polemics against foreigners in the Persian period literature are the ideological successors to the earlier ideological conflict

From Pentecost to the Triune God Steven M. Studebaker, 2012-12-19 In From Pentecost to the Triune God Steven Studebaker puts forth a provocative Pentecostal Trinitarian theology arguing that the Holy Spirit completes the fellowship of the triune God and therefore shapes the identities of the Father and the Son The Holy Spirit Studebaker maintains is not simply a passive end product of a procession from the Father and Son but rather a dynamic person who plays an active role in the Trinity and a constitutional consummational role in the history of redemption In the course of his study Studebaker shows the theological yield of the Pentecostal experience of the Holy Spirit and uncovers the biblical narratives of the Spirit from creation to Pentecost A constructive and ecumenical contribution to Trinitarian theology From Pentecost to the Triune God also engages major historical and contemporary figures such as Augustine the Cappadocians Weinandy and Zizioulas as well as representatives from the evangelical and charismatic traditions Finally Studebaker applies his Pentecostal Trinitarian theology to the theology of religions and creation care proposing that Christians embrace an inclusive posture toward people of other religious traditions and have an earth orientation that sees creation care as Christian formation

Treasures Lost Francisco Martins, 2022-06-06 The book of Kings repeatedly refers to the despoliation of the treasures of the Jerusalem temple and royal palace These short notices recounting a foreign invasion and the loss of national wealth have been explored only briefly among scholars applying their expertise to the analysis of the book of Kings or the study of the Jerusalem temple and royal palace from both literary and historical perspectives This monograph aims to fill this lacuna Adopting an approach that combines a more traditional form of literary criticism with a thorough analysis of the narrative role and intertextual connections giving shape to the texts Sitz in der Literatur the book offers a more complex and nuanced appreciation of the literary development and ideological profile of the despoliation notices In addition it weighs the use of the underlying literary motif in the biblical writings against other Ancient Near Eastern sources This study not only provides new perspectives on the role of motifs in biblical historiography but has far reaching implications for the reconstruction of the process of production and transmission of Kings as part of the Deuteronomistic History

After the Invasion Keith Bodner, 2015-07-30 In the wake of the Babylonian destruction of Jerusalem and the displacement of exile there is a unique story that is told about the remnant left behind after the invasion The narrative of Jeremiah 40-44 unfolds the challenges and crises of this community who remain in Judah as they negotiate their survival following the catastrophe of Jerusalem's fall After the Invasion shares the often overlooked but compelling story that emerges from the five later chapters of Jeremiah Keith Bodner expertly reveals the assortment of personalities geographic locations shifts in point of view temporal compression and layers of irony Primary focused on the narrative design of this text Professor Bodner proves that these chapters form a creative and sophisticated narrative that make a rich though perhaps underestimated contribution to the book of Jeremiah as a whole

From Temple to Tent Sarah L. Hart, 2019-07-31 The principal interest of the text on the tabernacle tent Exodus 24-15 Numbers 10-28 is Israelite worship cultic place the cultic people and laws for the regulation of cultic life The method followed is description of the biblical text and collation of the evidence as would a classicist go about classifying an ancient Greek Vase The findings reveal a virtual world of Israelite cult The transportable tabernacle tent with its courtyard and altar resembles a temple in its complexity Through words the reader is invited into the atmosphere of the tabernacle tent where all the senses are evoked The beautifully embellished fore room of the tent illuminated by the light of the lamp stand is seen the waft of incense smelt the atmosphere of fear or attraction that emanates from the epicentre of holiness felt The tabernacle tent is constructed of words not of stones It is indestructible and does not succumb to the vagaries of time as pristine today as it was over 2 500 years ago when it was first created
