Seeing Is Believing Murals In Derry:

Seeing is Believing Oona Woods, Paul Hipsley, Declan Carlin, Cathy McGandy, Jim Cunningham, 1995 National Symbols, Fractured Identities Michael E. Geisler, 2005 A fascinating look at national symbols worldwide and the important role they play in creating and maintaining individual and collective identity A Sort of Homecoming Marcia Boniferno, Amanda Jagt, Andrew Stephens-Rennie, 2020-08-04 We live in a culture of collective fear over climate change and mass migration and we experience increasing intense personal anxiety and despair How might the Bible's themes of homecoming and homemaking address our physical emotional and spiritual displacement This collection of essays honors the academic and community work of Brian J Walsh upon his retirement as Campus Minister at the University of Toronto Christian Reformed Campus Ministry The collection is a stunning mosaic at once academic and personal representing the many elements of Brian's life as pastor theologian professor farmer mentor and friend In an age when home feels physically and spiritually elusive for so many this volume reawakens our imaginations to the foundational biblical themes of homecoming and homemaking Academic pastoral personal and timely this volume honors Brian's career and equips readers to engage the fear and anxiety of our age with the hope of the gospel Jailtacht Diarmait Mac Giolla Chríost, 2012-05-15 Using research methods and techniques the author closely analyses the emergence of the Irish language amongst republican prisoners and ex prisoners in Northern Ireland from the 1970's up until the present This pioneering study shows how the language was used exclusively in parts of the prison despite the efforts of the prison authorities to suppress the language and the dramatic impact this had on Irish society Drawing on interviews with the prisoners and various other materials Mac Giolla Chríost shows how these developments gave rise to the popular coinage of the term Jailtacht a deformation of Gaeltacht the official Irish speaking district of the Republic of Ireland to describe this unique linguistic phenomenon

Irish Postmodernisms and Popular Culture Wanda Balzano, 2007-05-16 This collection explores popular culture in Ireland and Ireland in popular culture from Fanfic to Orange Parades from boybands to the Blessed Virgin Mary from celebrity tourism to the Gaelic Athletic Association The essays examine local and global Irishness focusing on how gender sexuality and race shape Irish postmodernity Remembering the Troubles Jim Smyth, 2017-03-30 The historian A T Q Stewart once remarked that in Ireland all history is applied history that is the study of the past prosecutes political conflict by other means Indeed nearly twenty years after the 1998 Belfast Agreement dealing with the past remains near the top of the political agenda in Northern Ireland The essays in this volume by leading experts in the fields of Irish and British history politics and international studies explore the ways in which competing social or collective memories of the Northern Ireland Troubles continue to shape the post conflict political landscape The contributors to this volume embrace a diversity of perspectives the Provisional Republican version of events as well as that of its Official Republican rival Loyalist understandings of the recent past as well as the British Army's authorized for the record account the importance of commemoration and memorialization to Irish Republican culture and the individual memory of one of the noncombatants swept up in the conflict. Tightly specific, sharply focused and rich in local detail, these essays make a significant contribution to the burgeoning literature of history and memory. The book will interest students and scholars of Irish studies, contemporary British history, memory studies, conflict resolution and political science. Contributors: Jim Smyth, Ian McBride, Ruan O'Donnell, Aaron Edwards, James W McAuley, Margaret O Callaghan, John Mulqueen and Cathal Goan. Topography of Trauma: Fissures, Disruptions and Transfigurations, 2019-08-26. This volume addresses trauma not only from a theoretical, descriptive and therapeutic perspective but also through the survivor as narrator, meaning maker and presenter. By conceptualising different outlooks on trauma, exploring transfigurations in writing and art and engaging trauma through scriptotherapy, dharma art, autoethnography, photovoice and choreography, the interdisciplinary dialogue highlights the need for rethinking and re-examining trauma as classical treatments geared towards healing do not recognise the potential for transfiguration inherent in the trauma itself. The investigation of the fissures, disruptions and shifts after punctual traumatic events or prolonged exposure to verbal and physical abuse, illness, war, captivity, incarceration and chemical exposure, amongst others, leads to a new understanding of the transformed self and empowering post-traumatic developments. Contributors are Peter Bray, Francesca Brencio, Mark Callaghan, M Candace Christensen, Diedra L Clay, Leanne Dodd, Marie France Forcier, Gen ichiro Itakura, Jacqueline Linder, Elwin Susan, John Kori, D Novak, Cassie Pedersen, Danielle Schaub, Nicholas Quin, Serenati Asl, Tekinay, Tony M Vinci and Claudio Zanini. Commemoration and Bloody Sunday, B. Conway, 2010-03-03. In this wide-ranging study of the politics of memory in Northern Ireland, Brian Conway examines the career of the commemoration of Bloody Sunday and looks at how and why the way this historic event is remembered has undergone change over time. Drawing on original empirical data, he provides new insights into the debate on collective memory. Ireland in Focus, Eóin Flannery, Michael Griffin, 2009-06-01. From an analysis of the Guinness brand's reflection of Irish identity to an exploration of murals and film portrayals of political prisoners, this pioneering collection of essays seeks to present Ireland's relationship to visual culture as a whole. While other works have explored the imagistic history of Ireland, most have restricted their lens to a single form of visual representation. Ireland in Focus is the first book to address the diverse range of visual representations of national and communal identity in Ireland. The contributors examine the politics of visual representation from both historical and contemporary perspectives. Drawing from the areas of cultural theory, postcolonial studies, art criticism, documentary and archival history and gender studies, the essays provide novel insights on a variety of visual cultural forms including film, theater, photography, landscape art, political murals and the visual iconography of commercial marketing. Bringing together established scholars and emerging young critics in the field, Ireland in Focus breaks new ground in showcasing the essential dynamism of visual culture and its relationship to Irish studies. Painting History, Tony Crowley, 2025-09-16. Painting History: The Murals of Northern Ireland 1908-2024 is the first book-length study of the oldest and most enduring tradition of political wall art Tony Crowley shows how muralism became an important medium for the unionist and loyalist community in its political domination of public space before and after Partition The text also demonstrates that nationalists and republicans painted few murals before the start of the 1981 Hunger Strike during which they painted wall art across republican areas of Northern Ireland as a way of publicizing their cause In the context of a divided society by the mid 1980s murals had become an established genre for the expression of political demands and aspirations In Painting History Tony Crowley provides a detailed analysis of the complex tradition of muralism in the context of the history that produced it with particular attention given to the cultural politics of this remarkable form The book also raises and discusses a series of theoretical questions about murals and muralism that transcend Northern Ireland issues of propriety and legality form and content authority and censorship The work ends with a consideration of the future of the murals in a still polarized but changing region
