Seeing With A Painters Eye:

Seeing with a Painter's Eye Rex Brandt, 1984-03-01

taught students to see the light not the object says his biographer Robichaux who in this book reveals the basic painting philosophy and methodology of a great teacher

Through the Eyes of Descartes Cecilia Sjöholm, Marcia Sá Cavalcante Schuback, 2024-02-06 I shall here present my life writes Descartes in Discourse on Method as in a painting and my method as a fable Through the Eyes of Descartes demonstrates how a Cartesian aesthetics is interwoven in his thought It brings together a variety of materials his metaphysical writings and essays in natural philosophy through to his letters drawings and printed images Cecilia Sjöholm and Marcia S Cavalcante Schuback seek to bring Descartes into dialogue with contemporary phenomenology as well as contemporary psychoanalytic thought They focus on how perception interacts with emotions and thought and the way in which our gaze is directed toward limit phenomena of beauty and fascination In Through the Eyes of Descartes Cecilia Sjöholm and Marcia S Cavalcante Schuback counter the traditional picture of Descartes by presenting his work in an entirely different light a Descartes of the arts of sensibility of inner images and of imagination

On Painting Gilles Deleuze, 2025-08-12 Available for the first time in English the complete and annotated transcripts of Deleuze's 1981 seminars on painting From 1970 until 1987 Gilles Deleuze held a weekly seminar at the Experimental University of Vincennes and starting in 1980 at Saint Denis In the spring of 1981 he began a series of eight seminars on painting and its intersections with philosophy The recorded sessions newly transcribed and translated into English are now available in their entirety for the first time Extensively annotated by philosopher David Lapoujade On Painting illuminates Deleuze's thinking on artistic creation significantly extending the lines of thought in his book Francis Bacon Through paintings and writing by Rembrandt Delacroix Turner Cézanne Van Gogh Klee Pollock and Bacon Deleuze explores the creative process from chaos to the pictorial fact The introduction and use of color feature prominently as Deleuze elaborates on artistic and philosophical concepts such as the diagram modulation code and the digital and the analogical Through this scrutiny he raises a series of profound and stimulating questions for his students How does a painter ward off grayness and attain color What is a line without contour Why paint at all Written and thought in a rhizomatic manner that is thoroughly Deleuzian strange powerful and novel On Painting traverses both the conception of art history and the possibility of color as a philosophical concept Retail e book files for this title are screen reader friendly with images accompanied by short alt text and or extended descriptions

Artful Itineraries Paul Fisher, 2014-01-14 This study investigates the paradoxical dynamics of American high culture in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries by examining the strategies of Americans who wrote about European art in order to promote and legitimize literary careers Contrary to the myths they themselves disseminated American writers in Europe did not escape American culture but rather created and participated in US Cultural institutions like journals museums and universities Transatlantic careers articulated a cult of Europe in a privileged American space served social and aesthetic hierarchies and constructed formidable versions of professional authority of American writers The book focuses on four art careers Americans practiced in Europe travel writing art reviewing connoisseurship and salon hosting It illuminates the careers of William Dean Howells Henry James Bernard and Mary Berenson Celia Thaxter and Gertrude Stein as itineraries of high cultural formation and self definition In four chapters the study examines these paradigmatic careers as both literary and cultural history relating them to a diverse American society as well as Bostonian high culture Americans created and deployed expatriate art careers the author argues in a landscape of gender ethnic and class relations The use of Europe was both figural and practical writers created a fantasized Europe that both enacted social repression and enabled social liberation Ultimately as the example of James Weld Johnson demonstrates elitist and Europhile high culture reflected a much larger America as well as the narrower cultural institutions that historically fostered it

Screening Woolf Earl G. Ingersoll, 2016-12-06 As the subtitle indicates this book has three majors concerns The first and most important concern is an examination of the film adaptations of Woolf s novels To the Lighthouse Orlando and Mrs Dalloway in the order the films were released This is the heart of the matter a fairly conventional effort to acknowledge film reviews as well as the criticism of academicians in film or literature as a starting point for a fresh view of these three film adaptations Since many film specialists prefer that no film ever be adapted from literary fiction and many literature specialists have similarly wished that their favorite novels had never been filmed the effort to mediate the two sides can be challenging Of the three films To the Lighthouse is the least successful tending toward the old Masterpiece Theater mode of attempting to be faithful to the source text to use the term of the film theorist Robert Stam but missing the essence of the novel Director Sally Potter s Orlando is cinematically the most venturesome and attractive although some Woolf readers condemn Potter s erasure of Woolf s intent to celebrate her affair with Vita Sackville West whose son Nigel Nicolson called Woolf s Orlando the longest and most charming love letter in literature Mrs Dalloway tends toward the Merchant Ivory style of treating literary masterworks indeed the film credits include a debt of gratitude to the producer director partnership and is generally carried by the star power of Vanessa Redgrave although it is difficult to imagine her having a crush on another young woman even at eighteen The book s second concern is Woolf s interest in what she would call the cinema As a member of Bloomsbury she saw and participated in the discussion of the cinema especially avant garde films which she considered to be more the future of cinema than film adaptations upon which she heaped great scorn for their ravenous if not rapacious consumption of vulnerable literary fiction such as Leo Tolstoy s Anna Karenina Woolf specialists such as Leslie Hankins proclaim her one of the earliest and most significant British film theorists for the brilliant essay The Cinema 1925 as film was just beginning to establish itself as art and not merely popular entertainment The third concern is a complex effort to explore the David Hare Stephen Daldry film adaptation of Michael Cunningham s Pulitzer Prize winning novel The Hours an homage to Mrs Dalloway in which Virginia Woolf has a starring role as portrayed by Oscar winner Nicole Kidman The film and Kidman s prosthetic nose produced a violent division among the Woolfians who either commended its bringing legions of new readers to Mrs Dalloway and potentially to Woolf Mrs Dalloway becoming the best seller it could not have been in her lifetime or were outraged by the film s diminishment of probably the most important female British novelist of the 20th century Even Nobel Laureate Doris Lessing spoke out against the travesty of a novelist she considered a foremother of later 20th century writers

A K Dolven A K Dolven,2015-02-16 Since the 1990s acclaimed London based Norwegian artist A K Dolven has produced a substantial body of work exploring the relationship between individuals and the perception of their environment the connections that bind inner and outer realities and the representation of sublime natural forces Using a diverse range of media including painting film sound and large scale sculptural installation she combines seemingly simple almost minimalistic elements to create complex responses to a particular locale especially the frozen landscapes of the Arctic Circle in her native Norway while maintaining a universal voice that resonates far beyond the specifics of the place Frequently immersive in nature her works investigate but also induce feelings of discomfort and disorientation in the eye body and mind of the viewer an impression of forever being at odds with one s surroundings as encountered through the various senses Coinciding with a solo exhibition at the Ikon Gallery this compelling book presents the past decade of the artist s practice In five themed chapters each artwork is shown in a series of large scale installation shots and details that replicate the spatial and physical impact of the piece itself Texts by five internationally renowned writers and thinkers illuminate various aspects of the artist s work addressing among other things its political significance emotional intensity and philosophical depth An introduction by Gaby Hartel considers the importance of A K Dolven s sketchbooks to the genesis of her ideas while an illustrated guide to the works presents the artist s own detailed description of each one with supporting installation notes and background source material

The Barbarian Principle Jason M. Wirth,Patrick Burke,2013-09-04 Toward the end of his life Maurice Merleau Ponty made a striking retrieval of F W J Schelling s philosophy of nature The Barbarian Principle explores the relationship between these two thinkers on this topic opening up a dialogue with contemporary philosophical and ecological significance that will be of special interest to philosophers working in phenomenology and German idealism
