The Strangers' House Alexander Poots, 2023-03-14 A penetrating study and celebration of Northern Irish literature telling the region's story through the extraordinary novels and poetry produced by decades of conflict Northern Ireland is one hundred years old Northern Ireland does not exist Both of these statements are true It just depends who you ask How do you write about a place like this THE STRANGERS HOUSE asks this question of the region's greatest writers living and dead What have they made of Northern Ireland and what has Northern Ireland made of them Northern Ireland is roughly the same size as the State of Connecticut yet has produced an extraordinary number of celebrated poets and novelists Louis MacNeice too clever to be happy formed by his childhood on the shores of Belfast Lough son of a Protestant clergyman banned for ever from the candles of the Irish poor C S Lewis who discovered Narnia in the rolling drumlins and black rock of County Down Anna Burns chronicler of North Belfast and winner of the Booker Prize And Seamus Heaney the man of wry precision the poet with the gift of surprise As well as household names Poots also examines writers who may be less familiar to an American readership These include the dark and bawdy novels of Ian Cochrane a half blind writer obsessed with Columbo and Forrest Reid a man who saw Arcadia in the Irish countryside and who was perhaps the North s first queer author Reading the work of these writers together produces a testament to over one hundred years of literary endeavor and human struggle THE STRANGERS HOUSE is the story of how men and women have written about a home divided and used their work to move in the words of Seamus Heaney like a double agent among the big concepts Women of Abstract Expressionism Joan Marter,2016-01-01 This publication contains a survey of female abstract expressionist artists revealing the richness and lasting influence of their work and the movement as a whole as well as highlighting the lack of critical attention they have received to date Robert Kipniss Richard J. Boyle,Robert Kipniss,2007 A stunning monograph covering nearly 55 years of work by this internationally collected artist His paintings are evocative of the intense contemplation and extraordinary technical facility so much admired in his prints Sympathetic Ink Shane Alcobia-Murphy,2006-01-01 Northern Irish poets have been notably reticent when addressing political issues in their work In Sympathetic Ink Shane Alcobia Murphy traces that tendency through the works of Seamus Heaney Paul Muldoon and Medbh McGuckian Using collections of the poets papers made only recently available Alcobia Murphy focuses on the oblique subtle strategies they apply to critique contemporary political issues He employs the concept of sympathetic ink or invisible ink arguing that rather than avoiding politics these poets have via complex intertextual references and resonances woven them deeply into the formal construction of their works Acute and learned Sympathetic Ink will serve as a perfect introduction to these crucial figures of Irish poetry Northern Irish Poetry E. Kennedy-Andrews,2014-08-18 Through discussion of the ways in which major Northern Irish poets such as John Hewitt Seamus Heaney Michael Longley Louis MacNeice and Derek Mahon have been influenced by America this study shows how Northern Irish poetry overflows national borders complicating and enriching itself through cross cultural interaction and hybridity The Wrong Country Gerald Dawe,2018-06-05 This engaging personal chronicle by Irish poet Gerald Dawe explores the lives and times of leading Irish writers including W B Yeats Elizabeth Bowen Samuel Beckett and Stewart Parker alongside lesser known names from the earlier decades of the twentieth century such as Ethna Carberry Alice Milligan Joseph Campbell and George Reavey It also portrays the changing cultural backgrounds of the author s contemporaries such as Derek Mahon Eavan Boland Eile n N Chuillean in Colm T ib n Leontia Flynn and Sin ad Morrissey Gerald Dawe presents an accessible view of modern Irish literature filtered perceptively through his own distinctive lens and raises important questions about cultural belonging the commercialisation of contemporary writing and the influence of Irish literary culture in a digital age In this lyrical exploration of national identity

The Wrong Country repositions our understanding of modern Irish writing in a wider context for today's readers
