The Boy & the Old Man Omar Eby,2009-02-09 So who is Omar Eby A retired English professor tenderhearted and cynical who looks with affection and severity upon the young man he once was in Somalia Ebys first chapter Learning My Name quickly and playfully sets the tone for this fascinating memoir The Boy and the Old Man Identifying with one Omar after another Eby skips from a Taliban terrorist and a four star general to a translator of Somali tales and an Old Testament duke then recalls an English student in Mogadiscio and an Epicurean Persian poet meets a Chilean Anabaptist and finally names the close friend of Prophet Muhammad Omar ibn al Khattab You think this an exercise in narcissism Of course notthe author finds too many ties linking a nave Mennonite missionary boy to Muslim society and the incredible beauty of the natural worldshows too well the tensions between documented facts and dramatic memory On the horn of Africa Somali pirates seize tankers On the mainland clans fire rockets into each others quarters of Mogadishu once the capital of the Somali Republic But Omar Eby remembers another Somalia

when he taught there 50 years ago Through the grid of accumulated years Eby studies that missionary boy The reader hears two voices the 23 year old boy and the 73 year old man Often the old man loves the boy often the boy embarrasses him The Somalis Eby remembers as beautiful and exasperating then in 1959 as now in 2009 The chapters are like a series of transparencies laid down one on top of the other The boys views overlaid by the mans two visits to Somalia in his thirties and then memory laid over everything With more details everything should be clearer Yet Eby writes in the Introduction we are pleasantly surprised to find that the historically reconstructed self is still blurred as muddy as the Shebelli River which flows through Somalia from the Ethiopian highlands

Time Will Tell Yemi Elegunde, 2014-01-02. From the bright lights of London's Holland Park into the power cuts and very rural life of Lagos state in Nigeria, all in the blink of an eye. This is the true story of a family torn apart by International Parental Child Abduction. In September 1973, Yemi was just seven years old when he and his younger sister were taken away from England by their dad without their mum's knowledge or consent. They lived and grew up in Nigeria for over fourteen years where the only communication they had with their mum was by letters. Without social media, computers or mobile phones, how does a mother track down her missing children? How do the children adapt to the sudden change of lifestyle? This is the story of the events through the eyes of that seven-year-old child from the moment he realised he was in a different country. Yemi relates the stark change of culture, the new family and the voyage of self-discovery. The book covers his roller coaster young life of apprehensions and ecstasy, his rebellions and his loves. It follows his anger as he grew from boy to teenager and his eventual reconciliation with himself and his parents. What kind of man would that boy grow up to be? Time Will Tell. Featured in The Bookseller.
