Long March A On China:

The Long March Sun Shuyun, 2008-05-06 In The Long March Sun Shuyun uncovers the true story behind the mythic march of Mao's soldiers across China exposing the famine disease and desertion behind the legend In 1934 in the midst of civil war the Communist party and its 200 000 soldiers were forced from their bases by Chiang Kai shek and his Nationalist troops Led by Mao Tse Tung they set off on a strategic retreat to the barren north of China thousands of miles away As Sun Shuyun travels along the march route her interviews with survivors and villagers show that the forces at work during the days of the revolution poverty sickness and Mao's use of terror propaganda and ruthless purges have shaped modern China irrevocably Uncovering the forced recruitment political infighting and futile deaths behind the myth Shuyun creates a compelling narrative of a turning point in modern Chinese history and a fascinating journey that spans China old and new

The Long March 1934-35 Benjamin Lai, 2019-09-19 This study tells the epic story of how a routed group of Chinese Communists marched tens of thousands of miles with Mao on a journey that would lead to their eventual triumph and rule of the whole of China Every nation has its founding myth and for modern China it is the Long March In the autumn of 1934 the Chinese Nationalists under Chiang Kai shek routed the Chinese Communists and some 80 000 men women and children left their homes to walk with Mao Zedong into the unknown Mao's force had to endure starvation harsh climates and challenging terrain whilst under constant aerial bombardment and threatened by daily skirmishes The Long March survivors had to cross 24 rivers and 18 mountain ranges through freezing snow and disease ridden wilderness to reach their safe haven of Yan an In military terms the Long March was the longest continuous march in the history of warfare and it came at a terrible cost after one year 6 000 miles and countless battles fewer than 4 000 of the original marchers were left Illustrated with stunning full colour artwork this enthralling book tells the full story this epic display of resilience and shows how from the desert plateau of Yan an these survivors would grow the army that conquered China 14 years on changing history forever The Long March, 1935 Dick Wilson, 1971 The Long March Harrison Evans Salisbury, 1987 An engrossing account New York Times Book Review of the Red Army's flight from the superior forces of Chiang Kai shek in China during 1934 1935 Authortour

From Revolution To Politics Benjamin Yang, 2021-11-28 Providing fresh analysis of the history and politics of Chinese communism this book utilizes previously inaccessible sources to reassess the epic Long March It sheds new light on the revolutionary momentum and political structure of the Chinese Communist Party in the 1930s The Long March Ed Jocelyn, Andrew McEwen, 2006 The authors set off to retrace the Red Army's journey and record the experiences of the last remaining witnesses and participants of the Long March They found history alive all along the route including Tibetans whose accounts the Chinese censors wanted to ban and sensationally the woman who may be Mao's long lost daughter This book is based on eye witness evidence and contemporary records It contrasts starkly not only with the official version but also with recent claims that the March was a fraud The Long March really did happen but not as Mao told it Bringing together the historic event with images of changing society and their won march a remarkable feat of endurance itself the authors offer an exclusive picture of China past and present BACK COVER Wealth and Power Orville Schell, John Delury, 2013 Two leading experts on China evaluate its rise throughout the past one hundred fifty years sharing portraits of key intellectual and political leaders to explain how China transformed from a country under foreign assault to a world giant

China, the Church's Long March David Howard Adeney, 1985 The Long March Don Lawson, 1983-01-01 An account of the Communist victory in China the rise to power of Mao Zedong and the Long March undertaken by the Red Army in 1934 China Anthony Paul, Brodie Paul, Catherine Croll, Harold Weldon, Peter Dockrill, 2012 A superbly illustrated and lavishly designed collector's treasure charting an epic triumph against the odds without parallel in modern history China's legendary Long March History is marked by great moments of human achievement of epic triumph against all odds and China's Long March was one of the most momentous For two years from 1934 to 1936 the Red Army retreated across the wilds of China battling nationalist forces and struggling to stay alive in impossibly harsh conditions Of the 86 000 people who embarked on the 10 000 kilometre journey across the length and breadth of China less than 4000 survived It was a dramatic flight that turned almost certain defeat into victory setting in place the leadership tactics and spirit of the coming Chinese Revolution CHINA THE NEW LONG MARCH revisits the original route of the Long March and portrays the country today through the eyes of a celebrated team of Chinese and international photographers Their images capture the people and places of modern day China as it rushes into the 21st century while holding onto traditions from past centuries and honouring the spirit of the Long March For over 75 years the Chinese people have looked to the story of the Long March for inspiration in somewhat the same way Australians see Gallipoli This unique and visually breathtaking insight into a country that has undergone monumental change over the past 75 years and an uplifting and at times moving portrait of the ordinary people adapting in the face of change China's Long March to Freedom Kate Zhou, 2011-12-31 China is more than a socialist market economy led by ever more reform minded leaders It is a country whose people seek liberty on a daily basis Their success has been phenomenal despite the fact that China continues to be governed by a single party Clear distinctions between the people and the government are emerging underlining the fact that true liberalization cannot be imposed from above Although a large percentage of the Chinese people have been part of China's long march to freedom farmers entrepreneurs migrants Chinese gays sex pleasure seekers and black marketers played a particularly important role in the beginning Lawyers scholars journalists and rights activists have jumped in more recently to ensure that liberalization continues Social dissatisfaction with the government is now published in the media addressed in public forums and deliberated in courtrooms Intellectuals devoted to improvement in human rights and continued liberalization are part of the process This grassroots social revolution has also resulted from the explosion of information available to ordinary people especially via the Internet and far reaching international influences All have fundamentally altered key elements of the moral and material content of China's party state regime and society at large. This social revolution is moving China towards a more liberal society despite its government. The Chinese government reacts rather than leads in this transformative process. This book is a landmark a decade in the making.

China's Space Programme S. Chandrashekar, 2022-05-05 This book comprehensively covers the history and current developments of space programme of China. It presents the complete story of China's space programme from its origins through to present day activities on the International Space Station. New China's Long March from Servility to Freedom Wei-Bin Zhang, 2007 This book is part of a broad study on Confucianism and its implications for the modernisation of East Asia. The Opium War symbolises the beginning of foreign humiliations and the Cultural Revolution represents the apex of self oppression self intimidation and self humiliations. China vainly strove under the guns of many countries until the end of World War II and since then has suffered from many civil wars. Immediately after New China was established in 1949 the CCP closed the door to the outside democratic world thus creating self humiliations. Since economic reform was launched in 1978 New China has been developed from the verge of nationwide self murder to the track for prosperity and freedom. The long march from self destructiveness to social and economic progresses raises many challenging questions about human survival and processes. Philosophical historical political and economic perspectives are discussed. An open and enriching New China could dramatically affect the world in the not so distant future. This book describes the history of New China as a dynamic process from the pole of central planning anti Americanism and anti Confucianism towards market economy Americanisation and modernising Confucian manifestations.
