The chapter concludes with excerpts from the original texts of the women founders All the theories discussed in this text share a moral commitment to the idea that sociology should and could work for the alleviation of socially produced human pain The ethical duty of the sociologist is to seek sound scientific knowledge to refuse to make the knowledge an end in itself to speak for the disempowered to advocate social reform and to never forget that the appropriate relationship between researcher and subject is one of mutuality An Ethic of Innocence Kristen L.
