Looking For A City In America Down These Mean Streets A Man Must Go:

Looking for a City in America André Corboz, 1992 European historian Corboz takes the previous European analyses of the American city to task centering his critical eye on the terrain of postmodern Los Angeles Down These Mean Streets a Man Must Go Philip Durham, 1963 Tells how Raymond Chandler developed the figure of the hard boiled detective Philip Marlowe from the material and concerns of his own life Metropolitan Landscapes Antonella Contin, 2021-08-24 This edited volume covers many aspects of the Metropolitan Landscapes Solutions are needed to meet the demand of the citizens of a renewed metropolitan region landscape It opens up discussions about possible toolkits for strategic actions based on understanding the territory from geographical urban architectural economic environmental and public policy perspectives This book intends to promote the Metropolitan dwelling quality ensuring human well being proposing a discussion on the resilient articulation of the interface space among the city's infrastructure agriculture and nature. This book results from the Symposium Metropolitan Landscapes that MSLab of the Politecnico di Milano and ETSA Sevilla organized at the IALE 2019 Conference Milan July 2019 to manage radical territory transformation with a strategic vision The widespread growth of urban areas indicates the importance of building resilient sustainable cities capable of minimizing climate change impact production The Symposium aimed to discuss the Urban Metabolism approach considering the combination of Landscapes set in a single Metropolitan Ecosystem Accordingly new design strategies of transformation replacement or maintenance can compose Urban Rural Linkage patterns and a decalage of different landscape contexts Ecological interest in environmental sustainability compatibility and resilience is not tied exclusively to the balance between production and energy consumption Thus it is the integration over time and at several scales of the urban and rural landscapes and their inhabitants that nourish the Metropolitan Bioregion Moreover the Metropolitan Landscape Book's research hypothesis is the need for a Glossary strengthening the basis of understanding Metropolitan Landscape's complexity This book's topic is particularly relevant to Landscape Urbanism Architecture Urban disciplines Scholars Students and Practitioners who want to be connected in a significant way with Metropolitan Discipline's research field Photography 4.0: A Teaching Guide for the 21st Century Michelle Bogre, 2014-08-11 An invaluable resource for photography educators this volume is a survey of photographic education in the first decade of the 21st Century Drawing upon her 25 years of teaching experience and her professional network Michelle Bogre spoke with 47 photo educators from all over the world to compile this diverse set of interviews The themes of these conversations explore Why students should study photography The value of a formal photography degree Teaching philosophies Whether video and multimedia should be an essential part of a photographic curricula The challenges of teaching photography today Changes in photographic education overall The second half of the book shares 70 photography assignments of varying level of difficulty from these educators some paired with examples of how students completed them This book will inspire and invigorate any photography educator's curriculum The Revisions of Englishness David Rogers, John McLeod, 2004 Diverse and often competing notions of Englishness have been critiqued by a variety of writers and critics who have become concerned about received visions of Englishness in the post war period An exciting and provocative collection of essays which registers the changes to Englishness since the 1950s this book explores how Englishness has been revised for a variety of aesthetic and political purposes and makes a ground breaking contribution to the contemporary debates in literary and cultural studies Writing Urbanism Douglas Kelbaugh, Kit McCullough, 2008-05-17 Urban design continues to grow as an increasingly important and expanding field of study research and professional endeavour Distinguished by its broad scope and comprehensiveness on the subject of urban design this new collection combines selected essays from both practitioners and academia Writing Urbanism is the ideal volume for both students architects and urban designers Hollywood Italians Peter E. Bondanella, 2004-01-01 This book is a celebration of nearly a century of images of Italians in American motion pictures and their contribution to popular culture Hollywood Italians covers the careers of dozens of stars including Rudolph Valentino Frank Sinatra Dean Martin Al Pacino Robert De Niro John Travolta Sylvester Stallone Marisa Tomei James Gandolfini and many others In addition the book reviews the work of such Italian American directors as Francis Ford Coppola and Martin Scorsese In all Hollywood Italians discusses scores of films with a concentration on the most important including their literary and European cinematic roots The book is capped by a comprehensive examination of The Godfather and its two sequels as well as the international television phenomenon The Sopranos BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved the Reflected: Heroes and Villains in Existent and Imagined Worlds, 2020-09-25 The Real and the Reflected Heroes and Villains in Existent and Imagined Worlds unpacks many of the issues that surround heroes and villains It explores the shadows that fall between the traditional black and white definitions of good and evil Film Noir Ian Brookes, 2017-03-09 Film noir may seem a familiar term to many with its use of a complex narrative structure flashbacks and voiceover narration and with such archetypal characterisations as the femme fatale and private eye But this introduction is not so much an account of what film noir is but more an interrogation of the ways in which the term came to be applied to a particular group of American films of the 1940s and 1950s Ian Brookes asks What is film noir With this sharply focused question active throughout the book students will benefit from an introductory text designed to provide a sophisticated treatment of the problems inherent in the category This will be the first critical introduction to film noir which takes into account the complexity of the term and the difficulties of straightforward definition and classification Brown Gumshoes Ralph E. Rodriguez, 2009-03-06 Winner Modern Language Association Prize in United States Latina and Latino and Chicana and Chicano Literary and Cultural Studies 2006 Popular fiction with its capacity for diversion can mask important cultural observations within a framework that is often overlooked in the academic world Works thought to be merely escapist can often be more seriously mined for revelations regarding the worlds they portray especially those of the disenfranchised As detective fiction has slowly earned critical respect more authors from minority groups have chosen it as their medium Chicana o authors previously reluctant to write in an underestimated genre that might further marginalize them have only entered the world of detective fiction in the past two decades In this book the first comprehensive study of Chicano a detective fiction Ralph E Rodriguez examines the recent contributions to the genre by writers such as Rudolfo Anaya Lucha Corpi Rolando Hinojosa Michael Nava and Manuel Ramos Their works reveal the struggles of Chicanas os with feminism homosexuality familia masculinity mysticism the nationalist subject and U S Mexico border relations He maintains that their novels register crucial new discourses of identity politics and cultural citizenship that cannot be understood apart from the historical instability following the demise of the nationalist politics of the Chicana o movement of the 1960s and 1970s In contrast to that time when Chicanas os sought a unified Chicano identity in order to effect social change the 1980s 1990s and 2000s have seen a disengagement from these nationalist politics and a new trend toward a heterogeneous sense of self The detective novel and its traditional focus on questions of knowledge and identity turned out to be the perfect medium in which to examine this new self Makers of Modern Culture Justin Wintle, 2002 This volume provides lively and clearly written expositions of those figures who have done most to shape our views in the period since 1914 Music cinema drama art fiction poetry and philosophy are just some of the fields covered Glimpses of Phoenix David William Foster, 2013-05-01 Part of the self image of Phoenix is that the city has no history and that anything of importance happened yesterday Also that Phoenix the Arizona state capital is a clean city despite a past of police corruption and social oppression The real Phoenix easygoing sun drenched a place of ever expanding development and economic growth guarantees it is said an enviable lifestyle low taxes and unfettered personal freedom and opportunity Little of this is true Phoenix has been described as one of the least sustainable cities in the country This sixth largest urban area of the United States has an alarmingly superficial and tourism oriented discourse among its leaders This book examines a series of narrative works novels theater chronicles investigative reporting personal accounts editorial cartooning even a children's television program that question this discourse in a frequently stinging fashion The works examined are anchored in a critical understanding of the dominant urban myths of Greater Phoenix and an awareness of how all the newness modernity and fun in the sun mentality mask a uniquely dystopian human experience Annual Bibliography of Modern Art Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.). life for fans of Rebecca Solnit Olivia Laing's The Lonely City and literary history A labyrinthine journey into the literature of walking and thinking as seen in the lives and works of Edgar Allan Poe Virginia Woolf Ray Bradbury and other literary greats Guardian There is no such thing as a false step Every time we walk we are going somewhere Especially if we are going nowhere Moving around the modern city is not a way of getting from A to B but of understanding who and where we are In a series of riveting intellectual rambles Matthew Beaumont retraces episodes in the history of the walker since the mid 19th century From Dickens s insomniac night rambles to restless excursions through the faceless monuments of today s neoliberal city the act of walking is one of self discovery and self escape of disappearances and secret subversions Pacing stride for stride alongside literary amblers and thinkers such as Edgar Allan Poe Andr Breton H G Wells Virginia Woolf Jean Rhys and Ray Bradbury Beaumont explores the relationship between the metropolis and its pedestrian life Through these writings Beaumont asks Can you get lost in a crowd What are the consequences of using your smartphone in the street What differentiates the nocturnal metropolis from the city of daylight What connects walking philosophy and the big toe And can we save the city or ourselves by taking to the pavement Power and the Pursuit of Peace: Theory and Practice in the History of Relations Between States F. H. Hinsley, Francis Harry Hinsley, 1967-10 In the last years of the nineteenth century peace proposals were first stimulated by fear of the danger of war rather than in consequence of its outbreak In this study of the nature and history of international relations Mr Hinsley presents his conclusions about the causes of war and the development of men's efforts to avoid it In the first part he examines international theories from the end of the middle ages to the establishment of the League of Nations in their historical setting This enables him to show how far modern peace proposals are merely copies or elaborations of earlier schemes He believes there has been a marked reluctance to test these theories not only against the formidable criticisms of men like Rousseau Kant and Bentham but also against what we have learned about the nature of international relations and the history of the practice of states This leads him to the second part of his study an analysis of the origins of the modern states system and of its evolution between the eighteenth century and the First World War Los Angeles John Walton Caughey, LaRee Caughey, 2023-09-01 Los Angeles City of Angels A city with a remarkable history over 200 years old Interwoven with the Caughey's commentary are over 100 of the choicest essays on Los Angeles The saga of cowtown turned post war metropolis unfolds before the reader Los Angeles City of Angels A city with a remarkable history over 200 years old Interwoven with the Caughey's commentary are over 100 of the choicest essays on Los Angeles The saga of cowtown turned post war metropolis unfolds before the reader The Cinematic City David Clarke, 2005-08-19 The Cinematic City offers an innovative and thought provoking insight into cityscape and screenscape and their inter connection Illustrated throughout with movie stills a diverse selection of films from Bladerunner to Little Caesar genres cities and historical periods are examined by leading names in the field The key dimensions of film and urban theory are introduced before detailed analysis of the various cinematic forms which relate most significantly to the city From early cinema and documentary film to film noir New Wave and postmodern cinema the contributors provide a wealth of empirical material and illustration whilst drawing on the theoretical insights of contemporary feminism Benjamin Baudrillard Foucault Lacan and others The Cinematic City shows how the city has been undeniably shaped by the cinematic form and how cinema owes much of its nature to the historical development of urban space Engaging with current theoretical debates this is a book that is set to change the way in which we think about both the nature of the city and film Contributors Giuliana Bruno Iain Chambers Marcus Doel David Clarke Anthony Easthope Elisabeth Mahoney Will Straw Stephen Ward John Gold James Hay Rob Lapsley Frank Krutnik
