Robert Knecht

Louis Xii:

Louis XII Frederic J. Baumgartner,1994 A biography which assesses the reign of King Louis XII 1498 1515 showing how France s church legal system and cultural life were strongly influenced by Louis XII The Italian Wars 1494-1559,2014-06-11 The Italian Wars of 1494 1559 had a major impact on the whole of Renaissance Europe In this important text Michael Mallett and Christine Shaw place the conflict within the political and economic context of the wars Emphasising the gap between aims and strategies of the political masters and what their commanders and troops could actually accomplish on the ground they analyse developments in military tactics and the tactical use of firearms and examine how Italians of all sectors of society reacted to the wars and the inevitable political and social change that they brought about The history of Renaissance Italy is currently being radically rethought by historians This book is a major contribution to this re evaluation and will be essential reading for all students of Renaissance and military history The Shaping of History and Poetry in Late Medieval France Cynthia Jane Brown,1985 Châteaux of the Loire ,2007-06-20 History of the Latin and Teutonic Nations (1494 to 1514). Leopold von Ranke,1909 Second Catalogue of the Library of the Peabody Institute of the City of Baltimore, Including the Additions Made Since 1882 George Peabody Library,1901 The Valois Robert Knecht,2007-04-01 The house of Valois ruled France for 250 years playing a crucial role in its establishment as a major European power This extremely well written and structured book will appeal to the general reader Encyclopædia Americana Francis Lieber,Edward Wigglesworth,1835 Illuminating Metalwork Joseph Salvatore Ackley,Shannon L. Wearing,2021-12-20 The presence of gold silver and other metals is a hallmark of decorated manuscripts the very characteristic that makes them illuminated Medieval artists often used metal pigment and leaf to depict metal objects both real and imagined such as chalices crosses tableware and even idols the luminosity of these representations contrasted pointedly with the surrounding paints enriching the page and dazzling the viewer To elucidate this key artistic tradition this volume represents the first in depth scholarly assessment of the depiction of precious metal objects in manuscripts and the media used to conjure them From Paris to the Abbasid caliphate and from Ethiopia to Bruges the case studies gathered here forge novel approaches to the materiality and pictoriality of illumination In exploring the semiotic material iconographic and technical dimensions of these manuscripts the authors reveal the canny ways in which painters generated metallic presence on the page Illuminating Metalwork is a landmark contribution to the study of the medieval book and its visual and embodied reception and is poised to be a staple of research in art history and manuscript studies accessible to undergraduates and specialists alike Illustrated Universal History Israel Smith Clare,1881 Chronological Look at the History of France Jean-Charles Volkmann,2001 Italy and the European Powers Christine Shaw,2006-07-01 This is a pioneering examination of the impact of the crucial central phase of the Italian Wars on the society politics and culture of Italy and how the experience of these campaigns and their consequences affected the combatants and the way they saw Italy and the Italians

The essays cover a broad range of subjects from fortifications and military organization to civic and royal ritual music and musicians to universities political society and diplomacy to the history of ideas Together they throw light on the complex effects of the wars how Italians tried to explain and to react to the dramatic changes these brought and how the European powers who conquered and occupied Italian states dealt with their new subjects The Standard History of the World, by Great Historians ,1914 Court and Humour in the French Renaissance Sarah Alyn Stacey,2009 This collection of essays by thirteen renowned specialists in the fields of French Renaissance literature and history is a fitting tribute to the scholarship of Pauline Smith Emeritus Professor in French at the University of Hull and Research Associate of the Centre for Medieval and Renaissance Studies Trinity College Dublin The essays which focus on areas of research to which Professor Smith has herself given and continues to give particular attention are organised into two frequently converging strands court and humour The contributors engage with political and cultural issues at the heart of the construction and aesthetic expression of the French Renaissance whilst also offering insights into the broader European context The collection as a whole challenges and revises a number of established views and identifies paths for future research The Standard History of the World Israel Smith Clare,1928 This Earthly Globe Andrea Di Robilant,2024-06-18 From the author of the best selling A Venetian Affair A narrative of novelistic resonance Astonishing The Washington Post the story of an Italian Renaissance book editor who introduced European minds to the wider world through his passion for geography In the autumn of 1550 a thick volume containing a wealth of geographical information new to Europeans with startling wood cut maps of Africa India and Indonesia was published in Venice under the title Navigazioni et Viaggi Journeys and Navigations The editor of this remarkable collection of travelogues journals and classified government reports remained anonymous Two additional volumes delivered the most accurate information on Asia and the New World available at the time The three volumes together constituted an unparalleled release of geographical data into the public domain It was Andrea di Robilant writes the biggest Wikileaks of the Renaissance In This Earthly Globe di Robilant brings to life the palace intrigues editorial wheedling delicate alliances and vibrant curiosity that resulted in this coup by the editor Giovambattista Ramusio Learned and self effacing he gathered a vast array of both popular and closely guarded narratives from the journals of Marco Polo he fact checked them to detailed reports on Northern African cultures from the Muslim scholar and diplomat al Hasan ibn Mohammad al Wazzan later known as Leo Africanus Diverse voices spill out from these chapters as di Robilant recounts how Ramusio pursued the sources and how he understood both the darker episodes of exploration involving colonial violence and the voyage stories which included accounts of people from African and Asian lands who had a great deal to share about their cultures The result is a far flung and delightful homage to one of the founding fathers of modern geography The Cambridge Modern History ,1925 Fifteenth-Century Studies Edelgard E.
