Louis Farrakhan Political Activist:

Jim McAvoy,2002-01-01 Louis Farrakhan Philip Koslow,Therese De Angelis,1997-08-01 A biography of the Afro American who dreamed of a career as a violinist before joining the Nation of Islam and rising in its ranks eventually becoming its leader The Politics of Black Empowerment James Jennings,2000-01-08 The Politics of Black Empowerment uses the experiences of grassroots activists to develop various conceptualizations and explanations of Black political behavior today In analyzing Black politics since the late 1960s James Jennings focuses on both the behavioral aspects such as individual and group characteristics of voting and nonvoting and elections as well as more fundamental philosophical and cultural questions regarding Black politics This study examines how the traditional face of Black politics and electoral activism interacts with a growing progressive face of Black politics While traditional Black political activists seek access or political incorporation another group aims for power sharing The traditional approach is sometimes satisfied with merely replacing white politicians with Blacks but the progressive constituency focuses on fundamentally changing the whole economic and political pie Activists desirous of Black empowerment are pursuing a political and economic orientation that goes beyond programs based on access to American institutional arrangements and attempting to change or alter given political arrangements and social relations between Blacks and whites on the basis of changing the social structure and the distribution of wealth and power Based on interviews with Black and Latino activists in several big cities as well as on a review of the literature and the Black newspapers around the country The Politics of Black Empowerment describes the characteristics of Black empowerment activism in America Southern Political Party Activists John A. Clark,Charles L. Prysby,2004-09-10 The South continues to be the most distinctive region in American politics Over the last half century Democratic dominance in the South has given way to the emergence of a truly competitive two party system that leans Republican in presidential elections In some ways the region is increasingly like the rest of the country yet even the degree of change and the speed with which it occurred give the South a distinctive air The contributors to Southern Political Party Activists examine both the development of American political party organizations and the changing political character of the South focusing on grassroots party activists those who are involved in party organizations at the county level John A Clark is associate professor of political science at Western Michigan University Charles L Prysby is professor of political science at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro Angela Bassett Dawn Fitzgerald,2002 It would take a long time for Hollywood to recognize veteran Angela Bassett as a superb actor not until she received an Academy award nomination in 1994 for her dead on portrayal of pop star Tina Turner in What s Love Got to Do with it Antisemitism and Racism Christine Achinger,Robert Fine,2017-10-02 The growing threat of antisemitism racism and Islamophobia within the European political landscape poses urgent and difficult questions These questions concern both commonalities and connections between these forms of prejudice and persecution and differences regarding their discursive functions and the image of the other they project In this volume we interrogate the specific forms antiracism and anti antisemitism take in the public sphere their representation in scholarly discourses and the fact that they increasingly seem to be at home in separate and sometimes antagonistic political and academic camps We also address the conceptual resources and research tools required to study the unity that lies behind these varied phenomena This collection has a new introduction and brings together papers that arose out of discussions in the European Sociological Association Network on Racism and Antisemitism published in European Societies The chapters relate to current issues in the area of racism and anti Semitism such as the notable impact of the Israel Palestine conflict on antisemitism in Europe the contested antizionist humour of Dieudonn in France relations between antisemitic and Islamophobic attitudes in Italy and Spain the problem of antisemitic reactions to Islamophobia in Arab media the historical relation of antisemitism to other kinds of racism in German literary discourse and how their study can be instructive for the investigation of antisemitism and Islamophobia today the difficulties Marxists internationally have faced in addressing concerns about antisemitism and current disconnections between racism and antisemitism in the human sciences These papers raise fundamental issues of understanding the modern world This book was originally published as a special issue of European Studies

Black Politics Today Theodore J. Davis Jr., 2013-06-17 The late 1980s ushered in a new era of black politics the socioeconomic transition era Coming on the heels of the protest era and politics era the current stage is characterized by the emergence of a new black middle class that came of age after the Civil Rights struggle Although class still isn't a strong factor in the external politics of the black community it is increasingly a wedge issue in the community's internal politics Black politics today is increasingly less about the interest of the larger group and more about the interest of smaller subgroups within the community Theodore J Davis Jr argues that the greatest threat to the social and political cohesiveness of the so called black community may be the rise of a socially and economically privileged group among the ranks of black America This rift has affected blacks ability to organize effectively and influence politics Davis traces the changes in economic status public opinion political power and participation and leadership over three generations of black politics The result is an insightful analysis of black politics today

50 Events That Shaped African American History Jamie J. Wilson, 2019-09-19 This two volume work celebrates 50 notable achievements of African Americans highlighting black contributions to U S history and examining the ways black accomplishments shaped American culture This two volume encyclopedia offers a unique look at the African American experience from the arrival of the first 20 Africans at Jamestown through the launch of the Black Lives Matter movement and the Ferguson Protests It illustrates subjects such as the Jim
