University prints, series A-H Boston University prints, 1907 Italian Renaissance and Baroque Bronzes in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Denise Allen, Linda Borsch, James David Draper, Jeffrey Fraiman, Richard E. Stone, Peter Jonathan Bell, Raymond Carlson, Federico Carò, Paola D'Agostino, Alex Foo, Claudia Kryza-Gersch, Fernando Loffredo, Tommaso Mozzati, 2022-06-15 The revival of the bronze statuette popular in classical antiquity stands out as an enduring achievement of the Italian Renaissance. These small sculptures attest to early modern artists' technical prowess, ingenuity, and desire to emulate or even surpass the ancients. From the studioli or private studies of humanist scholars in fifteenth-century Padua to the Fifth Avenue apartments of Gilded Age collectors, viewers have delighted in the mysteries of these objects: how they were made, what they depicted, who made them, and when. This catalogue is the first systematic study of The Metropolitan Museum of Art's European Sculpture and Decorative Arts collection of Italian bronzes. The collection includes statuettes of single mythological or religious figures, complex figural groups, portrait busts, reliefs, utilitarian objects like lamps and inkwells, and more. Stunning new photography of celebrated masterpieces by leading artists such as Antico Riccio and Giambologna, enigmatic bronzes that continue to perplex, quotidian objects, later casts, replicas, and even forgeries show the importance of each work in this complex field. International scholars provide in-depth discussions of 200 objects included in this volume, revealing new attributions and dating for many bronzes. An Appendix presents some 100 more, complete with provenance and references. An essay by Jeffrey Fraiman provides further insight into Italian bronze statuettes in America, with a focus on the history of The Met's collection, and Richard E. Stone, who pioneered the technical study of bronzes, contributes an indispensable text on how artists created these works and what their process conveys about the object's maker. A personal reminiscence by James David Draper, who oversaw the Italian sculpture collection for decades, rounds out this landmark catalogue that synthesizes decades of research on these beloved and complex works of art. The University Prints University Prints (Boston, Mass.), 1907 French Pictures and Their Painters Lorinda Munson Bryant, 1923 Bazille: Purity, Pose, and Painting in the 1860s, 1998 Millet Paul Gsell, 1928 A Writer's Companion Louis D.
