V. Ganeshanathan, 2008 Outstanding debut novel of fractured family relationships in modern Sri Lanka Love and the Novel G. Paizis, 1998-09-07 The popularity of romance fiction is such that it constitutes nearly one quarter of new paperback fiction printed in the world Its success depends on its ability to reflect and articulate the reader's aspirations for a better life and stands at the same time as a testament to her alienation This fresh look at the romantic fiction seeks to discover the reason for its appeal by combining analysis of the poetics of the genre with a study of the real reader's intervention Love and Marriage Herbert M. Katz, 1975 Love Marriage Vasugi Vani Ganeshanathan, 2002 R.K. Narayan Chhote Lal Khatri, 2006 Comprehensive study on the works on Rasipuram Krishnaswamy Narayan 1906-2001 Indian English novelist Love Marriage Monica Ali, 2022-05-03 Yasmin Ghorami is twenty six in training to be a doctor like her Indian born father and engaged to the charismatic upper class Joe Sangster whose domineering mother Helen is a famous feminist Though both Yasmin's parents and Joe's mother approve of the marriage the cultural gulf between them is vast as it turns out is the gulf in sexual experience between Yasmin and Joe The novel opens as Yasmin her parents and her brother pile into their car packed with Indian food prepared by Yasmin's mother to go to dinner to meet Joe's mother in her elegant townhouse in one of London's poshest neighborhoods Contrary to all of Yasmin's fears her unsophisticated and somewhat flamboyant mother is embraced and celebrated by Helen and her friends The Coupling Convention : Sex, Text, and Tradition in Black Women's Fiction Ann duCille Associate Professor of English and African American Studies Wesleyan University, 1993-10-19 What does the tradition of marriage mean for people who have historically been deprived of its legal status Generally thought of as a convention of the white middle class the marriage plot has received little attention from critics of African American literature In this study Ann duCille uses texts such as Nella Larsen s Quicksand 1928 and Zora Neale Hurston s Their Eyes Were Watching God 1937 to demonstrate that the African American novel like its European and Anglo American counterparts has developed around the marriage plot what she calls the coupling convention Exploring the relationship between racial ideology and literary and social conventions duCille uses the coupling convention to trace the historical development of the African American women s novel She demonstrates the ways in which black women appropriated this novelistic device as a means of expressing and reclaiming their own identity More than just a study of the marriage tradition in black women s fiction however The Coupling Convention takes up and takes on many different meanings of tradition It challenges the notion of a single black literary tradition or of a single black feminist literary canon grounded in specifically black female language and experience as it explores the ways in which white and black male and female mainstream and marginalized traditions and canons have influenced and cross fertilized each other Much more than a period study The Coupling Convention spans the period from 1853 to 1948 addressing the vital questions of gender subjectivity race and the canon that inform literary study today In this original work duCille offers a new paradigm for reading black women s fiction

After Intimacy Karl Leydecker, Nicholas White, 2007 Divorce is a conspicuous character trait of modernity commonly portrayed in texts and on screen with its moral and social rationalisation firmly rooted in Enlightenment and Romantic thought The aim of this volume is to bring into focus this contemporary cultural fascination by assembling the variety of academic responses it has started to create Bringing together the reflections of scholars from the UK and North America who have worked in this domain this study offers for the first time a genuinely wide ranging account of the depiction of divorce across the northern hemisphere in a number of media fiction journalism film and television It reaches historically from the intellectual and legal aftermath of the Enlightenment right up to the present day As such the collection shows both the roots of this apparently contemporary phenomenon in nineteenth century literary practice and the very particular ways in which divorce characterises the different narrative media of modernity
