Santosh Krinsky, 2022-01-01 Sri Aurobindo calls us to what he terms an adventure of consciousness Integral yoga was not intended to set forth a specific and rigid set of practices for everyone to follow rather it was developed to understand the specific needs of each individual at each stage of development and to employ those methods and practices that would best aid in the further progress for the individual seeker It also was not targeted at abandoning life The integral yoga first focuses on achieving the necessary liberation from the fixed habits of body life and mind that create a framework around each person's life and then on bringing down into the being a higher status of consciousness and aiding its transformation of the being in all its aspects The eventual objective of the integral yoga was to provide conscious support to the natural process of evolution of consciousness and thereby speed up its advent The book Integral Yoga Sri Aurobindo's Teaching and Method of Practice was compiled and organised from among the thousands of letters on yoga that Sri Aurobindo wrote to disciples and others over a number of years It outlines his philosophical outlook the background and basis of the integral yoga and delves into a vast array of details which aid the sincere seeker in understanding the inner workings of consciousness and helps the seeker to work through the difficulties obstacles and resistances of nature to truly bring about a transformation of consciousness in
