So You Think You Know About Britain? Danny Dorling, 2011-03-17 When it comes to immigration the population explosion the collapse of the family the north south divide devolution or the death of the countryside common wisdom tells us that we are in trouble however this is far from the truth In his brilliant anatomy of contemporary Britain leading geographer Daniel Dorling dissects the nation and reveals unexpected truths about the way we live today contrary to what you might read in the news The human mosaic Most children who live above the fourth floor of tower blocks in England are Black or Asian The higher you go in a building the darker skinned children tend to be Relationships The more times a person s heart is broken the nearer they will tend to move to the sea If you want to find a good man to marry head for the countryside North and South People in the south move home on average every seven years and job every eight years This is a year faster than in the north of England but a year slower than is usual in Scotland Optimum population Emmigrant nation There are twice as many grandchildren of British born people living over seas as there are people living in Britain who have grandparents who were themselves born abroad The problem now is more about getting pregnant than a population explosion and we need more immigration not less Immigration Muslims are far more likely to marry non Muslims in Britain than Christians are to marry non Christians The elderly Most people in Britain never live long enough to experience being burgled In some areas you would have to live for over five hundred years to have an evens chance of being a crime victim Town and Country divided since the enclosures Step children are most commonly found in the most leafy of idyllic rural villages Nuclear family homogeneity is now an inner city phenomena Why are there no cheap homes in the countryside any more Transport The greatest threat to life in Britain of all those aged under 40 is the car For adults aged over 24 they most likely die as a driver over 15 as a passenger and over age 4 as a pedestrian Work There is no need for us to work until we drop all could retire early Reviews for Injustice A geographer maps the injustices of Selfish Capitalism with scholarly detachment Oliver James Dorling provides the brain cleaning software we need to begin creating a happier society Richard Wilkinson author of The Spirit Level

The Morbid Age Richard Overby, 2009-05-07 British intellectual life between the wars stood at the heart of modernity The combination of a liberal uncensored society and a large educated audience for new ideas

made Britain a laboratory for novel ways to understand the world The Morbid Age opens a window onto this creative but anxious era the golden age of the public intellectual and scientist Arnold Toynbee Aldous and Julian Huxley H G Wells Marie Stopes and a host of others Yet as Richard Overly argues a striking characteristic of so many of the ideas that emerged from this new age from eugenics to Freud's unconscious to modern ideas of pacifism and world government was the fear that the West was facing a possibly terminal crisis of civilization The modern era promised progress of a kind but it was overshadowed by a growing fear of decay and death an end to the civilized world and the arrival of a new Dark Age even though the country had suffered no occupation no civil war and none of the bitter ideological rivalries of inter war Europe and had an economy that survived better than most The Morbid Age explores how this strange paradox came about Ultimately Overly shows the coming of war was almost welcomed as a way to resolve the contradictions and anxieties of this period a war in which it was believed civilization would be either saved or utterly destroyed Love on the Dole Ronald Gow, 1934
