Placing Movies

Jonathan Rosenbaum, 2023-09-01 Jonathan Rosenbaum longtime contributor to such publications as Film Quarterly, Sight and Sound and The Village Voice is arguably the most eloquent insightful film critic writing in America today. Placing Movies the first collection of his work gathers together thirty of his most distinctive and illuminating pieces. Written over a span of twenty one years these essays cover an extraordinarily broad range of films from Hollywood blockbusters to foreign art movies to experimental cinema. They include not just reviews but perceptive commentary on directors actors and trends and thoughtful analysis of the practice of film criticism. It is this last element Rosenbaum's reflections on the art of film criticism that sets this collection apart from other volumes of film writing. Both in the essays themselves and in the section introductions Rosenbaum provides a rare insider's view of his profession the backstage politics the formulation of critical judgments the function of film commentary. Taken together these pieces serve as a guided tour of the profession of film criticism. They also serve as representative samples of Rosenbaum's unique brand of film writing. Among the highlights are memoirs of director Jacques Tati and maverick critic Manny Farber celebrations of classics such as Gentlemen Prefer Blondes and The Manchurian Candidate and considered reevaluations of Orson Welles and Woody Allen. Jonathan Rosenbaum longtime contributor to such publications as Film Quarterly, Sight and Sound and The Village Voice is arguably the most eloquent insightful film critic writing in America today. Where Does it Happen? George Kouvaros, 2004 A good movie John Cassavetes has remarked will ask you questions you don't already know the answers to. And in his films Cassavetes is as good as his word. Taking up the radical question that Cassavetes's films consistently pose specifically where is the line between actor and character fiction and reality film and life George Kouvaros reveals the unique and illuminating position that Cassavetes's work occupies at the intersection of filmmaking and film theory. Central to any understanding of Cassavetes's achievement is the issue of performance. Looking at the work of Gena Rowlands Ben Gazzara and Cassavetes himself in films such as Faces, A Woman under the Influence and The Killing of a Chinese Bookie Kouvaros shows how performative instances gestures words or glances open up intimations of dramas belonging neither strictly to these films nor to the everyday worlds in which they are immersed. A major reassessment of the filmmaker as a formal experimenter Where Does It Happen gives Cassavetes his due as a filmmaker whose critical place in the modern cinema is only now becoming clear. George Kouvaros is senior lecturer in the School of Theatre Film and Dance at the University of New South Wales Australia. The Films of John Cassavetes Raymond Carney, 1994-01-28 Through words and pictures Cassavetes is shown to have been a deeply thoughtful and self aware artist and a profound commentator on the American experience. Times of Refreshing , Book 4. «The Teachers of the humanity report» Oris Oris, 1998-01-01 Throughout all the history the humanity has been narrowing its perception of the Worlds from multidimensional which includes all the subtle material Spheres of the Astral to three dimensional rough material Level thus not only limiting itself in the better understading of the world around but also completely destroying the possibility of free contact with the
