Love And Kibes Mini:

Love, Stoic & Frustrated Barrel Vivek Koka, 2020-10-15 This book is about 3 young men and their ordinary existence. The three are as different as beer and whiskey but by some divine intervention come together and stick it out against all odds. Their only agenda is to have fun and fill their infamous black diary. Purab, being gifted with exceptional quantitative skills, he is so caught up in dealing with life in a logical and analytical manner that when true love comes knocking on his door, he is too busy doing the math. Prakash, blatantly possessive about his friend, he withdraws into his cave and behaves in an eccentric manner every time women enter their household. Sidharth, an atheist as far as love is concerned, he believes everything is fair in his quest for lust. He does experience a genuine bond with Mini Chaturvedi but soon realizes that some men are destined to be predators. Life in the Fast Lane: Unless your fast lane is Slow Shari Figroid, The Bedside Guardian 2011

Paul Johnson, 2011-12-06 2011 was an extraordinary year. And the Guardian was at the very heart of it. It was a year that will be remembered for the phone hacking scandal uncovered only by the persistence and skill of Guardian investigative reporter Nick Davies and the seismic changes it forced in the relationship between parliament, the media and the police. It was a year that will be remembered because a Guardian reporter was passed a memory stick small enough to hang on a key ring but which contained 250,000 US diplomatic cables whose publication provoked reverberations around the world. And it was a year packed with drama, tragedy and inspiration: the Arab Spring, the tsunami in Japan, the August riots, the killing of Bin Laden, the capture of Mladic and a royal wedding. The year's events are vividly documented and debated here by writers including David Leigh, Nick Davies, Marina Hyde, Polly Toynbee, Hadley Freeman, Simon Jenkins and Jonathan Freedland. George Monbiot explains why the Fukushima nuclear disaster affirmed his faith in atomic energy. Charlie Brooker brilliantly satirises the case of a Twitter user convicted over a joke and Margaret Drabble lambasts the coalition's plans for the NHS. Richard Williams celebrates the life of Seve Ballesteros. Declan Walsh reveals the truth about Osama bin Laden's last hours and Jack Shenker reports on being caught in a roundup by Egypt's notorious security services just before the fall of Hosni Mubarak in a revolution documented here by Ahnaf Soueif from Tahrir Square. Away from the big news stories, Decca Aitkenhead reveals another side of Ann Widdecombe, poet Simon Armitage has a difficult encounter with his musical hero Morrissey and Steve Bell looks back over 30 years of cartooning for the Guardian. Martin Kettle contemplates whether MI5 were right to spy on his father and regular Guardian correspondent David Hockney dashes off another iPad composed letter to the paper this time not about smoking. Reality TV Susan Murray, Laurie Ouellette, 2009 A collection of essays which provide a comprehensive picture of how and why the genre of reality television emerged, what it means, how it differs from earlier television programming and how it engages societies, industries and individuals. Two Elephants in the Matchbox Sathajanan Luxman, 2012-02-01 Two Elephants in the Matchbox is the story of Jana, a young boy aspiring to be an athlete from an early age, growing from the influence of British colonisation under the torturous regime of Sri Lanka in the seventies.

He comes from a brave family of Dutch Delft patriots intellectuals who fought historical wars with invaders from the north island regions His love of cricket and middle distance running is marred by the death of his close relatives His sporting dream shattered and on the verge of losing his father from a war related illness and his mother from an accident Jana decides to leave the paradise island His father s dream of seeing his grandchildren will never be fulfilled Based on the true controversial political events in Sri Lanka in the late seventies Two Elephants in the Matchbox tells the story of Tamil uprising The conflicts Jana faced in his home and the streets witnessing torture and deaths will haunt him forever but he still keeps the dream for that podium spot in his life back in the UK Sathajanan was born in Sri Lanka but now lives in London where he works as a nurse He is actively involved in ending the suffering of Tamils by peaceful means to raise awareness of recent ethnic war crimes committed against them He is also interested in promoting art and culture within the Diaspora communities in London Two Elephants in the Matchbox is his first novel
