Workshops Body Spirit Mind Life, Love, and Sex Joseph H. Casey S.J.,2004-04-12 People are being forced today to take a stand on same sex marriage assisted suicide and capital punishment As they ponder how to vote on these issues a critical question emerges Is this morally right At the same time people have become confused about the morality of sex in general What should they teach their teenagers and how talk with their older sons and daughters about living together Undergirding current sexual practice is the unquestioned acceptance of contraception Should contraception be explicitly examined Besides clarifying each issue I let the reader know what the Church teaches using the Catechism of the Catholic Church and Pope John Paul IIs encyclicals And I show how reasonable the Church s position is utilizing the writings of Germain Grisez a distinguished lay moral theologian and philosopher To ensure readers understand Grisez s solutions to these diverse issues I explain in simple terms his ethical approach Non Catholics will find especially significant the human reasoning behind such teachings They and Catholics can dialogue on this level The Pope s early writings on conjugal love may prove impressive People just do not discuss abortion today for positions seem hardened and unbreachable By posing a series of fundamental questions logically interrelated I hope to breach the unbreachable At least it will be clear precisely where participants part company from one another The most sensitive issue I find to be homosexuality I have rewritten the treatment a number of times in an effort to be clear fair and sensitive

Awareness of the Heart Dennis Maglinte,2011-01-06 So often in many people's lives there is an awakening For some it comes out of nowhere and for others it seems as though it has always been Seemingly from darkness a light turns on and all that was once confusing becomes clear and all that was once hidden is revealed Some call this enlightenment Some call this a revelation Some call this peace I call it an awareness of the heart The following passages were written between late 2002 until 2010 Inspired by those around me including loved ones family friends and strangers and by the happenings of the world we share my heart was poured onto paper Though these words were written by my hand and sometimes spoken by my tongue there is nothing unique about them for the stirring in me is also in you So whether you choose to read the following passages in order read it backwards or randomly allow yourself to pick a page don't follow me Instead take a journey into your own heart and see where it takes you Throughout these pages you will find references to God Allah Great Spirit The Divine Elohim Yahweh Jehovah He who has no name and a myriad of other beliefs Though our words and our thoughts may differ today allow yourself to read with an open mind an open heart and an open spirit Let your heart inspire you Let God work through you by being you

The Philosophy of Love Michael S. Pendergast III, 2008-12 With a history that of open marriages staggering divorce rates single parent homes shacking up with significant others and living together and often troubled blended families it seems that the option of a happy life long marriage no longer exists in today's secularized feminized world of radical individualism Yet hidden under this shabby veneer most persons still long for something still desire real meaning still feel the pull towards permanence a romantic ideal to be completed It just won't go away This ideal real marriage survives as a dream though this joyful state cannot be found in any of the alternatives available from a secular world that's devoid of absolutes and allows any unhappy permutation Is there any hope There is But it doesn't lie in constantly trying to redefine marriage and consistently failing to make anyone's life better It lies in returning to what Sacred Marriage was always meant to be a sacrament of Life That however can only be found if we return to being what we ourselves were always meant to be spiritual beings that are larger than the material world and actually grasp what it means to love and risk loving Want to know how Look inside
