The Cambridge Companion to the Latin American Novel Efraín Kristal, 2005-05-26 The diverse countries of Latin America have produced a lively and ever evolving tradition of novels many of which are read in translation all over the world This Companion offers a broad overview of the novel's history and analyses in depth several representative works by for example Gabriel García Márquez Machado de Assis Isabel Allende and Mario Vargas Llosa The essays collected here offer several entryways into the understanding and appreciation of the Latin American novel in Spanish speaking America and Brazil The volume conveys a real sense of the heterogeneity of Latin

American literature highlighting regions whose cultural and geopolitical particularities are often overlooked Indispensable to students of Latin American or Hispanic studies and those interested in comparative literature and the development of the novel as genre the Companion features a comprehensive bibliography and chronology and concludes with an essay about the success of Latin American novels in translation Stories of Latin American Women of African Heritage María Mercedes Jaramillo, Lucía Ortiz, 2025-07-24 Stories of Latin American Women of African Heritage Daughters of Muntu highlights the significant contributions of women in the African diaspora to the Americas A translation to English of the highly influential Hijas del Muntu the chapters of this edited collection illuminate life experiences and examine narrative threads and traces of identity whose common theme is the history of struggle for equal rights and participation in society The diverse women in these stories come from all walks of life from the singers and poets to favela leaders and mainstream politicians Their stories are told through interviews personal accounts and traditional academic biography Stories of Latin American Women of African Heritage Daughters of Muntu will be a valuable resource to those interested in Latin American Studies Gender Studies and Race Studies among other disciplines Latin Americanism Román De la Campa, 1999 In this timely book Román de la Campa asks to what degree the Latin America studied in U S academies is actually an entity made in the U S A He argues that there is an ever increasing gap between the political theoretical and financial pressures affecting the U S academy and Latin America s own cultural political and literary practices De la Campa focuses on the conduct of Latin American literary criticism in U S universities and compares this with the Latin Americanism of Latin America itself

Writing Revolution in Latin America Juan E. De Castro, 2019-09-15 In the politically volatile period from the 1960s through the end of the twentieth century Latin American authors were in direct dialogue with the violent realities of their time and place Writing Revolution in Latin America is a chronological study of the way revolution and revolutionary thinking is depicted in the fiction composed from the eye of the storm From Mexico to Chile the gradual ideological evolution from a revolutionary to a neoliberal mainstream was a consequence of on the one hand the political hardening of the Cuban Revolution beginning in the late 1960s and on the other the repression dictatorships and economic crises of the 1970s and beyond Not only was socialist revolution far from the utopia many believed but the notion that guerrilla uprisings would lead to an easy socialism proved to be unfounded Similarly the repressive Pinochet dictatorship in Chile led to unfathomable tragedy and social mutation This double edged phenomenon of revolutionary disillusionment became highly personal for Latin American authors inside and outside Castro s and Pinochet s dominion Revolution was more than a foreign affair it was the stuff of everyday life and therefore of fiction Juan De Castro s expansive study begins ahead of the century with Jos Martí in Cuba and continues through the likes of Mario Vargas Llosa in Peru Gabriel García Márquez in Colombia and Roberto Bolaño in Mexico by way of Chile The various often contradictory ways the authors convey this precarious historical moment speaks in equal measure to the social circumstances into which these authors were thrust and to the fundamental differences in the ways they themselves witnessed history Ethnic American Literature Emmanuel S. Nelson, 2015-02-17 Unlike any other book of its kind this volume celebrates published works from a broad range of American ethnic groups not often featured in the typical canon of literature This culturally rich encyclopedia contains 160 alphabetically arranged entries on African American Asian American Latino a and Native American literary traditions among others The book introduces the uniquely American mosaic of multicultural literature by chronicling the achievements of American writers of non European descent and highlighting the ethnic diversity of works from the colonial era to the present The work features engaging topics like the civil rights movement bilingualism assimilation and border narratives Entries provide historical overviews of literary periods along with profiles of major authors and great works including Toni Morrison Maxine Hong Kingston Maya Angelou Sherman Alexie A Raisin in the Sun American Born Chinese and The House on Mango Street The book also provides concise overviews of genres not often featured in textbooks like the Chinese American novel African American young adult literature Mexican American autobiography and Cuban American poetry Novels and Plays of Eduardo Manet Phyllis Zatlin, 2010-11-01 José Lezama Lima's Joyful Vision Gustavo Pellón, 2014-08-27 Cuba's Jos Lezama Lima became the most controversial figure in the flowering of the Latin American novel with the 1966 publication of Paradiso Hailed as a seminal writer of breathtaking originality by Julio Cortázar Octavio Paz and Mario Vargas Llosa Lezama was also attacked by the Castro regime and others for his stylistic obscurity erotic descriptions and violation of literary norms Indeed his experimental fiction written on the very boundaries of the novelistic genre resists classification Jos Lezama Lima's Joyful Vision a much needed critical study of Paradiso Oppiano Licario and Lezama's essays is thus an exploration in reading one that highlights and preserves the essential and persistent contradictions in Lezama's theory and practice of literature Gustavo Pellón focuses his study on Lezama's search for equilibrium clarifying such oppositions in Lezama's writings as the mystical quest for illumination through obscurity the calculated cultivation of naïveté the Proust-like fascination with yet ultimate condemnation of homosexuality and a modernist even postmodernist narrative style that conveys a mystical essentially medieval worldview Above all Pellón shares his wonder at Lezama who in an age of pessimism maintained his joyful vision of art and existence The Routledge Companion to Latino/a Literature Suzanne Bost, Frances R. Aparicio, 2013 Latino a literature is one of the fastest developing fields in the discipline of literary studies It represents an identity that is characterized by fluidity and diversity often explored through divisions formed by language race gender sexuality and immigration The Routledge Companion to Latino a Literature represents over forty essays by leading and emerging international scholars of Latino a literature and analyses Regional cultural and sexual identities in Latino a literature Worldviews and traditions of Latino a cultural creation Latino a literature in different international contexts The impact of differing literary forms of Latino a literature The politics of canon formation in Latino a literature This collection provides a map of the critical issues central to the discipline as well as uncovering new perspectives and new directions for the development of the field It is essential reading for anyone interested in the past present and future of this literary culture

Literary Culture and U.S. Imperialism John Carlos Rowe, 2000 John Carlos Rowe considered one of the most eminent and progressive critics of American literature has in recent years become instrumental in shaping the path of American studies His latest book examines literary responses to U S imperialism from the late eighteenth century to the 1940s Interpreting texts by Charles Brockden Brown Poe Melville John Rollin Ridge Twain Henry Adams Stephen Crane W E B Du Bois John Neihardt Nick Black Elk and Zora Neale Hurston Rowe argues that U S literature has a long tradition of responding critically or contributing to our imperialist ventures Following in the critical footsteps of Richard Slotkin and Edward Said Literary Culture and U S Imperialism is particularly innovative in taking account of the public and cultural response to imperialism In this sense it could not be more relevant to what is happening in the scholarship and should be vital reading for scholars and students of American literature and culture

Genre Analysis and Corpus Design Ulrike Henny-Krahmer, 2024-01-22 This work in the field of digital literary stylistics and computational literary studies is concerned with theoretical concerns of literary genre with the design of a corpus of nineteenth century Spanish American novels and with its empirical analysis in terms of subgenres of the novel The digital text corpus consists of 256 Argentine Cuban and Mexican novels from the period between 1830 and 1910 It has been created with the goal to analyze thematic subgenres and literary currents that were represented in numerous novels in the nineteenth century by means of computational text categorization methods To categorize the texts statistical classification and a family resemblance analysis relying on network analysis are used with the aim to examine how the subgenres which are understood as communicative conventional phenomena can be captured on the stylistic textual level of the novels that participate in them The Encyclopedia of the Novel Peter Melville
