Designed for use by speech language therapists, students, volunteers and carers, this is a very user friendly and practical workbook providing activity ideas to improve skills in specific areas for people who have aphasia. The activities cover a range of difficulties encountered in aphasia including colour recognition, reading and writing, numeracy, memory and vocabulary. The book offers progress from easy to more complex tasks for each topic. It helps you have a clear rationale for inclusion, form part of an overall progression and have a simple list of materials required. It aims to enhance the client's overall communication skills, this may be by strengthening or teaching skills that have not been so damaged such as gesture drawing or writing. Resulting from many requests from volunteers, carers and students, this book is ideal for anyone wishing to help people with the frustrating and persisting problem of aphasia. The ideas can also be used as photocopiable homework activities for speech language therapists to give to clients. Quarterback Dad Bobby Mercer, Alison D. Schonwald, 2008-03-01. Thugness Sumer Tyme, 2020-11-15. When Tracy, a successful singles and couples counselor, turned thirty she decided that she was ready to settle down. Tracy had not dated since her early college days. She took time to focus on her career. One day she saw this dark skin, six foot tall guy walk into Pierre's. He had all the makings of a thug. A chance encounter a few days later the two would meet. Christian Giles was an up and coming music producer from a different side of town than Tracy. Since he had thug qualities Tracy named him Thugness. From there they entered into a relationship filled with love, compassion and understanding, a love that reminded her of the love her dad had always shown her. The relationship was going well until Chris's past came back to haunt him. Tracy and Christian ended their relationship. A heartbroken Tracy didn't want to deal with the memories of her and Christian's relationship so she moved to a new house and a new office. Across the hall worked a money worshipping, six foot two, brown skinned dentist with a million dollar smile named Dr Shawn Richards.
