Makassar Sailing G. E. P. Collins, 1937 The Lands West of the Lakes Stephen C. Druce, 2009-01-01

The period 1200 1600 CE saw a radical transformation from simple chiefdoms to kingdoms in archaeological terminology complex chiefdoms across lowland South Sulawesi a region that lay outside the classical Indicized parts of Southeast Asia The rise of these kingdoms was stimulated and economically supported by trade in prestige goods with other parts of island Southeast Asia yet the development of these kingdoms was determined by indigenous rather than imported political and cultural precepts Starting in the thirteenth century the region experienced a transition from swidden cultivation to wet rice agriculture rice was the major product that the lowland kingdoms of South Sulawesi exchanged with archipelagic traders Stephen Druce demonstrates this progression to political complexity by combining a range of sources and methods including oral textual archaeological linguistic and geographical information and analysis as he explores the rise and development of five South Sulawesi kingdoms known collectively as Ajattappareng the Lands West of the Lakes The author also presents an inquiry into oral traditions of a historical nature in South Sulawesi He examines their functions their processes of transmission and transformation their uses in writing history and their relationship to written texts He shows that any distinction between oral and written traditions of a historical nature is largely irrelevant and that the South Sulawesi chronicles which can be found only for a small number of kingdoms are not characteristic as historians have argued but exceptional in the corpus of indigenous South Sulawesi historical sources The book will be of primary interest to scholars of pre European contact Southeast Asia including historians archaeologists anthropologists linguists and geographers and scholars with a broader interest in oral tradition and the relationship between the oral and written registers Learn Indonesian - Level 5: Advanced Innovative Language Learning, IndonesianPod101.com, Interactive Effective And FUN Start speaking Indonesian in minutes and learn key vocabulary phrases and grammar in just minutes more with Learn Indonesian Level 5 Advanced a completely new way to learn Indonesian with ease Learn Indonesian Level 5 Advanced will arm you with Indonesian and cultural insight to utterly shock and amaze your Indonesian friends and family teachers and colleagues What you get in Learn Indonesian Level 5 Advanced 25 Audio Lesson Tracks in Indonesian 25 Indonesian Lesson Notes monologue transcripts with translation vocabulary and sample sentences This book is the most powerful way to learn Indonesian Guaranteed You get the two most powerful components of our language learning system the audio lessons and lesson notes Why are the audio lessons so effective powerful and to the point repeat after the professional teacher to practice proper pronunciation cultural insight and insider only tips from our teachers in each lesson fun and relaxed approach to learning effortlessly learn from bi lingual and bi cultural hosts as they guide you through the pitfalls and pleasures of Indonesia and Indonesian Why are the lesson notes so effective improve listening comprehension and reading comprehension by reading the dialog transcript while listening to the conversation grasp the exact meaning of phrases and expressions with natural translations expand your word

Gibson, 2007-06-11 This is a literary and anthropological analysis of historical narratives that illuminate regional notions of cosmological kingship cosmopolitan notions of Islamic law and mysticism and global notions of the modern bureaucratic state These notions have coexisted in Southeast Asia since the Sixteenth century and influence politics to this day Eastern Archipelago: Including the south-east end of Sumatra, Java, islands east of Java, south and east coasts of Borneo, and Célebes Island. 4th ed Great Britain. Intertidal History in Island Southeast Asia Jennifer L. Gaynor, 2016-06-15 Intertidal History in Island Southeast Asia shows the vital part maritime Southeast Asians played in struggles against domination of the seventeenth century spice trade by local and European rivals Looking beyond the narrative of competing mercantile empires it draws on European and Southeast Asian sources to illustrate Sama sea people's alliances and intermarriage with the sultanate of Makassar and the Bugis realm of Bon Contrasting with later portrayals of the Sama as stateless pirates and sea gypsies this history of shifting political and interethnic ties among the people of Sulawesi's littorals and its land based realms along with their shared interests on distant coasts exemplifies how regional maritime dynamics interacted with social and political worlds above the high water mark And the Sun Pursued the Moon Thomas Gibson, 2005-03-31 Over the course of a thousand years from 600 to 1600 CE the Java Sea was dominated by a ring of maritime kingdoms whose rulers engaged in long distance raiding trading and marriage alliances with one another And the Sun Pursued the Moon explores the economic political and symbolic processes by which early Makassar communities were incorporated into this regional system As successive empires like Srivijaya Kediri Majapahit and Melaka gained hegemony over the region they introduced different models of kingship in peripheral areas like the Makassar coast of South Sulawesi As each successive model of royal power gained currency it became embedded in local myth and ritual To better understand the relationship between symbolic knowledge and traditional royal authority in Makassar society Thomas Gibson draws on a wide range of sources and academic disciplines He shows how myth and ritual link practical forms of knowledge boat building navigation agriculture warfare to basic social categories such as gender and hereditary rank as well as to environmental celestial and cosmological phenomena He also shows how concrete historical agents have used this symbolic infrastructure to advance their own political and ideological purposes Gibson concludes by situating this material in relation to Islam and to life cycle rituals Who's who in the United Nations Christian E. Globalizing Migration History is a major step forward in comparative global migration history Looking at the period 1500 2000 it presents a new universal method to quantify and qualify cross cultural migrations which makes it possible to detect regional trends and explain differences in migration patterns across the globe in the last half millennium The contributions in this volume written by specialists on Russia China Japan India Indonesia and South East Asia show that such a method offers a fruitful starting point for rigorous comparisons Furthermore the volume is an explicit invitation to other economic cultural social and political historians to include migration more explicitly and systematically in their analyses and thus reach a deeper understanding of the impact of cross cultural migrations on social change Contributors are Sunil Amrith Ulbe Bosma Gijs Kessler Jelle van Lottum Jan Lucassen Leo Lucassen Mireille Mazard Adam McKeown Atsushi Ota Vijaya Ramaswamy Osamu Saito Jianfa Shen Ryuto Shimada Willard Sunderland and Yuki Umeno Early Modern East Asia Kenneth M.
