

The Raven

Edgar Allan Poe - January 18, 1809-October 6, 1849

Once upon a midnight dreary, while I pondered, weak and weary,
Over many a quaint and curious volume of forgotten lore—
While I nodded, nearly napping, suddenly there came a tapping,
As of some one gently rapping, rapping at my chamber door—
"Tis some visitor," I muttered, "tapping at my chamber door—
Only this and nothing more."

And, distinctly I remember it was in the bleak December;
And each separate dying ember wrought its ghost upon the floor.
Eagerly I wished the morrow;—vainly I had sought to borrow
From my books surcease of sorrow—sorrow for the lost Lenore—
For the rare and radiant maiden whom the angels name Lenore—
Nameless here for evermore.

Make Something! Greig Means, 2003 Circulating Communities Paula Mathieu, Stephen Parks, Tiffany Rousculp, 2012-01-01 Circulating Communities The Tactics and Strategies of Community Publishing edited by Paula Mathieu Steve Parks and Tiffany Rousculp represents the first attempt to gather the myriad of community and college publishing projects providing not only history and analysis but extended samples of the community writing produced Rather than feature only the voices of academic scholars this collection features also the words of writing group participants community organizers literacy instructors librarians and stay at home parents as well In libraries community centers prisons and homeless shelters across the US and around the world people not traditionally understood as writers regularly come together to write offer feedback revise publish and most importantly circulate their words The vast amount of literature that these community publishing projects create has historically been overlooked by scholars of literature journalism and literacy Over the past decade however higher education has moved outward off campus and into the streets Many of these efforts build from writing and publication projects that extend back over decades are grassroots in nature and are independent of college efforts Circulating Communities offers a unique glimpse into how neighbor and scholar teacher and activist are using writing and publishing to improve the daily lives on the streets they call home Anthology of 20 Stories: Crime Anish Deb, 2020-06-26 20 ace criminals involved in 20 mind boggling fictional crimes penned by the Masters of the Game such as James Hilton Arthur Conan Doyle G K Chesterton Dorothy L Sayers Frederick Brown Ross McDonald Stanley Ellin This anthology is sure to keep you at the edge of your seat while you enjoy your crime time 2018 Poetry & Short Story Anthology - Oregon Writers Edition David Meisburger, 2022-02-03 My plan is that this Anthology become an annual compilation of aspiring OregonaEURbased writers of Poetry and Short Stories for all genders and ages This initial edition finds fortyaEUReight Oregon writers from twentyaEUReight different Oregon cities submitting their original offerings spanning a wide variety of genres Girl Zines Alison Piepmeier, 2009-11-18 Stroll through any public park in Brooklyn on a weekday afternoon and you will see black women with white children at every turn Many of these women are of Caribbean descent and they have long been a crucial component of New York s economy providing childcare for white middle and upper middleclass families Raising Brooklyn offers an in depth look at the daily lives of these childcare providers examining the important roles they play in the families whose children they help to raise Tamara Mose Brown spent three years immersed in these Brooklyn communities in public parks public libraries and living as a fellow resident among their employers and her intimate tour of the public spaces of gentrified Brooklyn deepens our understanding of how these women use their collective lives to combat the isolation felt during the workday as a domestic worker Though at first glance these childcare providers appear isolated and exploited and this is the case for many Mose Brown shows that their daily interactions in the social spaces they create allow their collective lives and cultural identities to flourish Raising Brooklyn demonstrates how these daily interactions form a continuous expression of cultural preservation as a weapon against difficult working conditions examining how this process unfolds through the use of cell phones food sharing and informal economic systems Ultimately Raising Brooklyn places the organization of domestic workers within the framework of a social justice movement creating a dialogue between workers who don't believe their exploitative work conditions will change and an organization whose members believe change can come about through public displays of solidarity

Spaces of Contention Byron Miller, 2016-04-01 As social movements have become more complex geographers are increasingly studying the spatial dynamics of collective resistance and sociologists and political scientists increasingly analyzing the role of space place and scale in contentious political activity Occupying a position at the intersection of these disciplinary developments this book brings together leading scholars to examine how social movements have employed spatial practices to respond to and shape changing social and political contexts It is organised into three main sections 1 Place Space and Mobility sites of mobilization and regulation 2 Scale and Territory structuring collective interests identities and resources and 3 Networks connecting actors and resources across space It concludes by suggesting that different spatialities place scale networks interlink within one another in particular instances of collective action playing distinctive yet complementary roles in shaping how these actions unfold in the political arena By mapping state of the art conceptual and empirical terrain across Geography Sociology and Political Science Spaces of Contention provides readers with a much needed guide to innovative research on the spatial constitution of social movements and how social movements tactically and strategically approach and produce space Shotgun Seamstress Osa
