On a Complex Theory of a Simple God

Christopher Hughes, 1989 Hughes discusses Aquinas work regarding the apparently irreconcilable theses of natural and revealed theology and he argues that Aquinas fails in his attempt to reconcile absolute simplicity with the doctrines of the Trinity and the Incarnation Hughes also offers a provocative account of divine simplicity and explores its implications for the Thomistic doctrines of the Trinity and Incarnation

Making Heretics Michael P. Winship, 2009-02-09 Making Heretics is a major new narrative of the famous Massachusetts disputes of the late 1630s misleadingly labeled the antinomian controversy by later historians Drawing on an unprecedented range of sources Michael Winship fundamentally recasts these interlocked religious and political struggles as a complex ongoing interaction of personalities and personal agendas and as a succession of short term events with cumulative results Previously neglected figures like Sir Henry Vane and John Wheelwright assume leading roles in the processes that nearly ended Massachusetts while more familiar hot Protestants like John Cotton and Anne Hutchinson are relocated in larger frameworks The book features a striking portrayal of the minister Thomas Shepard as an angry heresy hunting militant helping to set the volatile terms on which the disputes were conducted and keeping the flames of contention stoked even as he ostensibly attempted to quell them The first book length treatment in forty years Making Heretics locates its story in rich contexts ranging from ministerial quarrels and negotiations over fine but bitterly contested theological points to the shadowy worlds of orthodox and unorthodox lay piety and from the transatlantic struggles over the Massachusetts Bay Company's charter to the fraught apocalyptic geopolitics of the Reformation itself An object study in the ways that puritanism generated managed and failed to manage diversity Making Heretics carries its account on into England in the 1640s and 1650s and helps explain the differing fortunes of puritanism in the Old and New Worlds

Do You Want to Save The Church? Young J.

Choe, 2016-12-08 This book attempts to inspire both church leaders and lay people through serious discussion of strategies as to how to restore the church in the midst of a struggling and declining age The author identifies the factors that have contributed to the decline of the church Choe utilizes his experience working with a struggling ministry to propose twenty four ideas and programs for the restoration of the church He calls specifically on church leaders to inspire others to come together and rebuild the church This book finds a decisive solution between Sunday pastor and Everyday pastor

Making Cell Groups Work Navigation Guide Joel Comiskey, Scott Boren, Ralph Neighbour,

Randall Neighbour, Bill Beckham, 2023-05-27 This is an expanded 624 page reference tool for the 8 stage transition process found in How Do We Get There From Here formerly titled Making Cell Groups Work This sizable compilation is filled with hundreds of articles by pastors and experts including helpful articles such as how to transition your church's calendar and budget to allow for a growing holistic small group cell group ministry how to choose team members to implement the transition tips on how to prototype groups and much much more One of the most valuable tools found in this resource is a revealing readiness assessment tool which will help you determine weaknesses if any in four key areas of church health all of which are required for a successful transition

Do Something Else Nathaniel D. Phillips, 2016-02-05 Do Something Else is meant to encourage faith communities and their leaders to reconsider church as usual reengage Spirit led entrepreneurialism and reimagine new models of ministry bubbling up in their midst Many churches and leaders are already setting the pace They are establishing new gatherings in old buildings and using new building to do old things They are emphasizing diversity welcome and friendship If these stories are hidden from view they shouldn't be These pages will uncover how new expressions get started how they are led how they struggle and how they are sustained Do Something Else will encourage candidates for ministry who see limited options ministers who wonder about staying in ministry clergy call seekers trying to find hope in a desolate career landscape and churches attempting to manage staffs with limited resources It will also offer permission to small churches resigned to be without a pastor larger churches looking to do a new thing in an unorthodox way and middle governing bodies who need promising examples of working models in order to take the risk on new opportunities

MultiChurch Brad House, Gregg Allison, 2017-09-12 Is it time for your church to go multisite How do you know if it's the right solution for your congregation MultiChurch brings clarity to the multisite movement and assembles the lessons it has learned over the past 15 years Combining insights from multisite church pastor Brad House and Christian theology professor Gregg Allison this book will help anyone interested in multiplying gospel centered churches to effectively evaluate and develop the best multisite model for their own church context In MultiChurch you will Explore the opportunities presented by the various forms of multi site church Identify areas of concern while addressing criticisms against multisite models Understand how multisite is not only a biblically sound ecclesiological model but also a model that provides a compelling solution to contemporary reductionism in the church This theological philosophical and practical guide traces the history of the multisite movement and assembles the lessons the good the bad and the ugly learned over the past two decades

A New Kind of Church Aubrey Malphurs, 2007-02-01 There is no shortage of books these days on new ways of doing church New church models have been both warmly embraced and roundly criticized What are church leaders and others concerned about the state of the church to make of all this Does the Bible prescribe a standard model for doing church Or is there freedom within certain guidelines In A New Kind of Church respected church consultant Aubrey Malphurs addresses these important questions and suggests that there is room for new ways of doing ministry while being true to

Scripture In the process he offers a theological and interpretive framework for evaluating any church model new or old He also offers suggestions for implementing change in the local church The Cathedral Builders Leader Scott,2021-05-18 In The Cathedral Builders Leader Scott takes readers on an evocative journey through the artistry and architectural ingenuity of the medieval cathedrals that defined the European landscape Scott s writing blends meticulous historical research with vivid imagery evoking the spiritual aspirations and communal efforts of the builders whose labor transformed not just skylines but the very essence of faith and society Rich in detail and analytical depth the book situates these monumental structures within their broader socio political context illustrating how they were both products of their time and reflections of the human spirit s desire for transcendence Leader Scott a noted historian and architect draws from years of academic exploration into medieval construction techniques and ecclesiastical art His passion for Gothic architecture is evident stemming from his own background in structural engineering and a lifelong fascination with the sacred spaces of Europe Scott s unique perspective allows him to weave together intriguing anecdotes and scholarly insights encouraging readers to not only understand the physical structures but also the cultural movements that inspired their construction I highly recommend The Cathedral Builders to anyone interested in architecture history or the interplay of religion and society Scott s engaging prose and profound insights make this book not just informative but a deeply enriching experience for readers of all backgrounds In this enriched edition we have carefully created added value for your reading experience Hand picked Memorable Quotes shine a spotlight on moments of literary brilliance Interactive footnotes clarify unusual references historical allusions and archaic phrases for an effortless more informed read Proceedings of a Missionary Conference Held in Antananarivo, Madagascar, in January, 1874 Missionary Conference (ANTANANARIVO),1874 Aquarian Gospel Of Jesus the Christ with Bible References Levi Dowling with Rev.
