Makeba My Story:

Makeba Miriam Makeba, James A. Hall, 1989 The renowned South African singer and political activist recounts her life a life that encompasses the splendor of international acclaim bitter personal tragedy and political intrigue and violence

South African Cultural Studies Christopher J. Lee, Andrew Offenburger, 2025-09-16 This book offers a holistic guide as to how South African identity and culture can be understood in the past present and future Drawing from the rich archive of previously published articles from the journal Safundi South African Cultural Studies documents the mutual histories of the country and the journal over the past quarter century Divided into six sections the first section addresses cultural figures including Oprah Winfrey Trevor Noah Olive Schreiner and Dimitri Tsafendas an unusual group that illustrates the unique and international character of South African culture The second part brings attention to the important role that photography has had in depicting and narrating South African cultural life whether through the intimacies found in recent images by Zanele Muholi or the historical work of David Goldblatt and Santu Mofokeng The third section of the book looks at music as another idiom that has proven indispensable for South African social life with Miriam Makeba Rodriguez and Die Antwoord providing examples The fourth and fifth sections of this book address sexuality and film respectively underscoring at once the contrasting approaches to popular culture that have surfaced in Safundi as well as their requisite abilities for grasping everyday tastes and mores The worlds of Ms magazine District 9 Black Panther and Spike Lee to pick only several topics raised supply ways of thinking across these chapters The final section of the volume concludes with the role of place in the construction of culture whether museums national monuments the Spur restaurant franchise or landscapes like the Karoo This book will be an indispensable resource for scholars students activists and critics as well as readers who are generally interested in understanding South Africa's cultural history over the past century

Legends Matthew Blackman, Nick Dall, 2023-09-29 We have a lot to be positive about in South Africa With all our problems it's easy to feel bleak But hold those thoughts because Legends might be just the tonic you need to drive off the gloom This book tells the stories of a dozen remarkable people some well known others largely forgotten who changed Mzansi for the better Most South Africans are proud of Nelson Mandela and rightly so His life was truly astounding but he's by no means the only person who should inspire us There's King Moshoeshoe whose humanity and diplomatic strategies put him head and shoulders above his contemporaries both European and African And John Fairbairn who brought non racial democracy to the Cape in 1854 Olive Schreiner was a bestselling international author who fought racism corruption and chauvinism And Gandhi spent twenty years here inventing a system of protest that would bring an Empire to its knees Legends also celebrates Eugène Marais's startling contributions to literature and natural history despite a lifelong morphine addiction Sol Plaatje's wit intelligence and tenacity in the face of racial zealots Cissie Gool's lifetime fighting for justice and exposing bigots and Sailor Malan's battles against fascists in the skies of Europe and on the streets of South Africa Legends also celebrates Eugène Marais's startling contributions to literature and natural history despite a lifelong morphine addiction Sol Plaatje's wit intelligence and tenacity in the face of racial zealots Cissie Gool's lifetime fighting for justice and exposing bigots and Sailor Malan's battles against fascists in the skies of Europe and on the streets of South Africa And then there's Miriam Makeba who began her life in prison and ended it as an international singing sensation Steve Biko who shifted the minds of an entire generation and Thuli Madonsela the book's only living legend who gracefully felled the most powerful man in the land Engagingly written and meticulously researched Legends reminds South Africans that we have a helluva lot to be proud of Liberated Threads Tanisha C. Ford, 2015-09-14 From the civil rights and Black Power era of the 1960s through antiapartheid activism in the 1980s and beyond black women have used their clothing hair and style not simply as a fashion statement but as a powerful tool of resistance Whether using stiletto heels as weapons to protect against police attacks or incorporating African themed designs into everyday wear these fashion forward women celebrated their identities and pushed for equality In this thought provoking book Tanisha C Ford explores how and why black women in places as far flung as New York City Atlanta London and Johannesburg incorporated style and beauty culture into their activism Focusing on the emergence of the soul style movement represented in clothing jewelry hairstyles and more Liberated Threads shows that black women's fashion choices became galvanizing symbols of gender and political liberation Drawing from an eclectic archive Ford offers a new way of studying how black style and Soul Power moved beyond national boundaries sparking a global fashion phenomenon Following celebrities models college students and everyday women as they moved through fashion boutiques beauty salons and record stores Ford narrates the fascinating intertwining histories of Black Freedom and fashion The Northeastern Dictionary of Women's Biography Jennifer S. Uglow, 1999 The most comprehensive reference book of its kind with more than 60 new entries in this third edition How It Feels to Be Free Ruth Feldstein, 2013-11-26 Winner of the Benjamin L Hooks National Book Award Winner of the Michael Nelson Prize of the International Association for Media and History In 1964 Nina Simone sat at a piano in New York's Carnegie Hall to play what she called a show tune Then she began to sing Alabama's got me so upset Tennessee made me lose my rest And everybody knows about Mississippi Goddam Simone and her song became icons of the civil rights movement But her confrontational style was not the only path taken by black women entertainers In How It Feels to Be Free Ruth Feldstein examines celebrated black women performers illuminating the risks they took their roles at home and abroad and the ways that they raised the issue of gender amid their demands for black liberation Feldstein focuses on six women who made names for themselves in the music film and television industries Simone Lena Horne Miriam Makeba Abbey Lincoln Diahann Carroll and Cicely Tyson These women did not simply mirror black activism their performances helped constitute the era's political history Makeba connected America's struggle for civil rights to the fight against apartheid in South Africa while Simone sparked high profile controversy with her incendiary lyrics Yet Feldstein finds nuance in their careers In 1968 Hollywood cast the outspoken Lincoln as a maid to a white family in For Love of Ivy adding a layer of complication to the film That same year Diahann Carroll took on the starring role in the television series Julia Was Julia a landmark for casting a black woman or for treating her race as unimportant The answer is not clear cut Yet audiences gave broader meaning to what sometimes seemed to be apolitical performances How It Feels to Be Free demonstrates that entertainment was not always just entertainment and that We Shall Overcome was not the only soundtrack to the civil rights movement By putting black women performances at center stage Feldstein sheds light on the meanings of black womanhood in a revolutionary time

A Short History of South Africa Gail Nattrass, 2017-11-16 South Africa is popularly perceived as the most influential nation in Africa a gateway to an entire continent for finance trade and politics and a crucial mediator in its neighbours affairs On the other hand post Apartheid dreams of progress and reform have in part collapsed into a morass of corruption unemployment and criminal violence A Short History of South Africa is a brief general account of the history of this most complicated and fascinating country from the first evidence of hominid existence to the wars of the 18th 19th and 20th centuries that led to the establishment of modern South Africa the horrors of Apartheid and the optimism following its collapse as well as the prospects and challenges for the future This readable and thorough account illustrated with maps and photographs is the culmination of a lifetime of researching and teaching the broad spectrum of South African history Nattrass s passion for her subject shines through whether she is elucidating the reader on early humans in the cradle of humankind or describing the tumultuous twentieth century processes that shaped the democracy that is South Africa today

Ethnomusicology and Cultural Diplomacy David G. Hebert, Jonathan McCollum, 2022-05-05 Music has long played a prominent role in cultural diplomacy but until now no resource has comparatively examined policies that shape how non western countries use music for international relations Ethnomusicology and Cultural Diplomacy edited by scholars David G Hebert and Jonathan McCollum demonstrates music s role in international relations worldwide Specifically this book offers insider views from expert contributors writing about music as a part of cultural diplomacy initiatives in Afghanistan Uzbekistan Iran Syria Japan China India Vietnam Ethiopia South Africa and Nigeria Unique features include the book s emphasis on diverse legal frameworks decolonial perspectives and cultural policies that serve as a basis for how nations outside the west use music in their relationships with Europe and North America

Hunger Lynda Schuster, 2014-09-15 If the Mandelas were the generals in the fight for black liberation the Mashininis were the foot soldiers Theirs is a story of exile imprisonment torture and loss but also of dignity courage and strength in the face of appalling adversity Originally published in Great Britain to critical acclaim A Burning Hunger One Family's Struggle Against Apartheid tells a deeply moving human story and is one of the seminal books about the struggle against apartheid This family Joseph and Nomkhitha Mashinini and their thirteen children became immersed in almost every facet of the liberation struggle from guerrilla warfare to urban insurrection Although Joseph and Nomkhitha were peaceful citizens who had never been involved in politics five of their sons became leaders in the antiapartheid movement When the students of Soweto rose up in 1976 to protest a new rule making Afrikaans the language of instruction they were led by charismatic young Tsietsi Mashinini Scores of students were shot down and hundreds were injured Tsietsi's actions on that day set in motion a chain of events that would forever change South Africa define his family and transform their lives A Burning Hunger shows the human catastrophe that plagued generations of black Africans in the powerful story of one religious and law abiding Soweto family Basing her narrative on extensive research and interviews Lynda Schuster richly portrays this remarkable family and in so doing reveals black South Africa during a time of momentous change Rethinking South Africa's Past Christopher J.

Lee, Andrew Offenburger, 2025-03-18 This book presents key historical scholarship published in Safundi from 1999 to 2024 tracing South Africa's past through approaches of comparative history transnational history and visual history in addition to addressing the importance of topics like gender labor and class dynamics as well as regional historiographies The first section of the book focuses on comparative history as a founding method for Safundi given the journal's origins in American and South African studies while also recalibrating this approach through a variety of topics cities biographies and practices of violence rather than nation states writ large Drawing upon innovative sources of evidence the second section moves beyond the comparative method to address transnational histories as a new narrative technique for storytelling and analysis Whether issues of education immigration or visiting musicians to South Africa these chapters demonstrate the importance of a post national approach for understanding the past The sections that follow fan out into other subject areas including the uses of visual history gender roles class cultures and environmental history all of which illuminate connections between South African history and other parts of the world This book will be an indispensable resource for scholars students activists and policymakers as well as those readers who are generally interested in understanding South Africa s complex history over the past several centuries Focus Carol Ann Muller,2008 First Published in 2008 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Black South African Autobiography After Deleuze Kgomo M. Masemola,2017-05-01 In Black South African Autobiography After Deleuze Belonging and Becoming in Self Testimony Kgomo Michael Masemola uses Gilles Deleuze s theories of immanence and deterritorialization to explore South African autobiography as both the site and the limit of intertextual cultural memory Detailing the intertextual turn that is commensurate with belonging to the African world and its diasporic reaches through the Black Atlantic among others this book covers autobiographies from Peter Abrahams to Es'kia Mphahlele from Ellen Kuzwayo to Nelson Mandela. It proceeds further to reveal wider dimensions of angst and belonging that attend becoming through transcultural memory. Kgomo, Michael Masemola successfully marshalls Deleuzian theories in a sophisticated re-reading that makes clear the autobiographers' epistemic access to worlds beyond South Africa.
