Making A Living In Fine Arts:

The Fine Artist's Career Guide Daniel Grant,2004-04-01 This indispensable guide gives anyone with studio art training the vital tools and breadth of information they need to develop and succeed in the fine and applied arts It covers the full spectrum of career options available to artists today from being an independent artist to niches in the corporate world and from jobs that require special artistic skills to those calling for artistic improvisation Yes, You Can Make a Better Living As a Fine Artist Ann Elizabeth Rea,2025-03-11

The Difficulty of Practising Fine Artists in Making a Living Marco Thom,2017-10-18 This study identifies six key reasons explaining the social phenomenon that many practising fine artists find it so difficult to make a living in the arts Due to a marked paucity of research explaining this social phenomenon the study at hand investigates the internal factors related to artists personality motivation and skills as well as various external factors influencing artists working and business environment by applying two acknowledged analysis tools in strategic business management The literature findings highlight four external threat factors mainly responsible for a very challenging working and business environment affecting practising fine artists chances of professional success Consequently two internal factors notably artists motivation and ambition to conduct business and a living in the arts as well as their developed skills turn out to be key factors to successfully deal with these external threat factors In this context three research aims related to practising artists professional education and preparation arise the identification of crucial skills to successfully make a living in the arts as practising artists the status of their professional education at higher education institutions HEIs and the capability of arts incubators as alternative education programmes to prepare large numbers of practising fine artists for professional success The approach to investigation is exploratory and inductive with a cross sectional survey strategy To identify the crucial skills for professional success in the arts surveys of up to 219 fine art lecturers 168 fine art undergraduates and 149 commercial galleries are conducted To report on the status of fine artists educational preparation 87 undergraduate degree programmes 55 post graduate programmes and 46 extracurricular training offerings at HEIs are investigated The study focuses mainly on the UK and Germany These countries are selected due to their significantly different market sizes and reputation for the purpose of identifying differences in market challenges and professional preparations faced by fine artists To analyse arts incubators capability in preparing large numbers of practising fine artists for a professional career 92 arts incubation programmes around the globe are analysed and nine structured interviews with practising fine artists are conducted The investigation of the crucial skills for fine artists professional success highlights in particular the development of an entrepreneurial mindset as well as of seven skills Research on arts education shows evidence that fine art graduates are hardly equipped with this skillset and mindset due to HEIs lack of focus on the professional careers of practising artists The analysis of arts incubation programmes illustrates serious limitations in supporting larger numbers of practising fine artists in their professional endeavours The research findings stimulate the discussion in and contribute to knowledge in the fields of artists professional preparation arts entrepreneurship and the redesigning of fine art curriculum to purposefully prepare fine art graduates for an entrepreneurial and professional career as practising artists

What is the nature of economics How does economics relate to politics Readers searching for the Ancient Greeks answers to these questions often turn to Aristotle focusing on small portions of the Politics and Nicomachean Ethics that relate to money making exchange and household management While this approach yields some understanding of economics and politics it fails to account for how Aristotle s theoretical inquiry into these practical matters reflects the character of his political philosophy According to Aristotle the Ethics and Politics together form the philosophy concerning the human things All human things begin with choice an intellectual desire and need for the good Aristotle s care for this desire is the heart of his political philosophy Through a close literal and careful reading of Aristotle s political philosophy readers discover the natural boundaries to economic and political life Simultaneously theoretical and practical Aristotle s political philosophy offers readers a perspective of economics and politics that provides them the experience of the knowledge they need to desire and live within the limit of the good
