Making And Breaking Of The Soviet System An Interpretation:

The Making and Breaking of the Soviet System Christopher Read, 2001-06-18 The consequences of the Russian Revolution of 1917 have been among the most dominant shaping forces of the twentieth century eventually dividing almost the entire globe into a battleground between capitalism and communism The reputations of the main leaders of Russia the Soviet Union Lenin Stalin Khrushchev Brezhnev Gorbachev and Yeltsin have soared and plummeted Great achievements such as victory over Nazi Germany putting the first satellite and human in space building a massive industrial base and advancing the living and educational standards of the population have been undermined by political repression and incalculable human cost In a cool non polemical manner the author shows how the contradictory parts of the Soviet experience are linked Using post Soviet materials and perspectives he examines the reasons for the successes and failures of the Soviet system In particular the book argues that the underlying reasons for the system's collapse can be found in the contradictions of the revolution which gave birth to it The consequences are traced through the Stalin Revolution the Great Terror the Second World War the Cold War the Khrushchev and Brezhnev years down to Gorbachev's doomed attempt to transform the Soviet system Particular attention is given to the divergence between the aspirations of the leadership and the social evolution of the ordinary Russian people The study concludes with a survey of the post Soviet scene from Yeltsin to Putin The result is a volume indispensable to anyone who needs a readily comprehensible guide to the Russia that lies beyond the stereotypes

Bourgeois Liberty and the Politics of Fear Marc Mulholland, 2012-10-04 In 1842 Heinrich Heine the German poet wrote that the bourgeoisie obsessed by a nightmare apprehension of disaster and an instinctive dread of communism were driven against their better instincts into tolerating absolutist government Theirs was a politics motivated by fear Over the next 150 years the middle classes were repeatedly accused of betraying liberty for fear of red revolution The failure of the revolutions of 1848 conservative nationalism from the 1860s fascist victories in the first half of the twentieth century and repression of national liberation movements during the Cold War these fateful disasters were all explained by the bourgeoisie's fear of the masses For their part conservatives insisted that demagogues and fanatics exploited the desperation of the poor to subvert liberal revolutions leading to anarchy and tyranny Only evolutionary reform was enduring From the 1970s however liberal revolution revived on an unprecedented scale With the collapse of communism bourgeois liberty once again became a crusading force but now on a global scale In the twenty first century the armed forces of the United States Britain and NATO became instruments of regime change seeking to destroy dictatorship and build free market democracies President George W Bush called the invasion of Iraq in 2003 a watershed event in the global democratic revolution This was an extraordinary turn around with the middle classes now hailed as the truly universal class which in emancipating itself emancipates all society The debacle in Iraq and the Great Recession from 2008 revealed all too clearly that hubris still invited nemesis Bourgeois Liberty and the Politics of Fear examines this remarkable story and the fierce debates it occasioned It takes in a span from the seventeenth century to the twenty first covering a wide range of countries and thinkers Broad in its scope it presents a clear set of arguments that shed new light on the creation of our modern world A/AS Level History for AQA Tsarist and Communist Russia, 1855-1964 Student Book Hannah Dalton,2015-09-17 A new series of bespoke full coverage resources developed for the AQA 2015 A AS Level History Written for the AQA A AS Level History specifications for first teaching from 2015 this print Student Book covers the Tsarist and Communist Russia 1855 1964 Breadth component Completely matched to the new AQA specification this full colour Student Book provides valuable background information to contextualise the period of study Supporting students in developing their critical thinking research and written communication skills it also encourages them to make links between different time periods topics and historical themes

Armour,2021-04-08 Why is Eastern Europe still different from Western Europe more than a quarter century after the collapse of Communism A History of Eastern Europe 1918 to the Present shows how the roots of this difference are based in Eastern Europe s tortured 20th century Eastern Europe emerged in 1918 as the lands between new states whose weakness vis vis Germany and Soviet Russia soon became obvious The region was the main killing field of the Second World War which visited unimaginable horrors on its inhabitants before their liberation by the Soviets in 1945 The imposition of Communist dictatorships on the region ironically only deepened Eastern Europe's backwardness Even in the post Communist period its problems continue to make it a fertile breeding ground for nationalism and political extremism A History of Eastern Europe 1918 to the Present explores the comparative backwardness of Eastern Europe and how this has driven strategies of modernisation it looks at the ways in which the region has served as a giant test tube for political experimentation and in particular at the enduring strength of nationalism which since 1989 has re-emerged more virulent than ever This book is the essential textbook for any student of 20th century Eastern Europe Teaching History, 2004

Communism Mark Sandle, 2014-05-22 The twentieth century cannot be properly understood unless we understand communism its origins growth demise and legacy This brief overview of the history of communism challenges us to think about its role in shaping the contemporary world This book shows how the modern communist movement emerged out of radical millenarian movements of the Middle Ages and the English Civil War becoming a mass movement of industrial society seeking to overturn capitalism and replace it with a society of equality justice harmony and co-operation It traces the growth of modern communism from its beginnings in the early nineteenth century to its position of global power at the end of the Second World War Why did communism grow so quickly Why did it spread to turn almost half of the world red by the mid 1970s What impact did it have upon capitalism and capitalist society Canadian-American Slavic Studies, 2005 A quarterly journal devoted to Russia and East Europe

Making Russia and Turkey Great Again? Norman A. Graham, Folke Lindahl, Timur Kocaoglu, 2021-03-19 This study analyzes theoretically and empirically the background of the rise to power of Vladimir Putin in Russia and Recep Tayyip Erdogan in Turkey It situates this analysis in the contexts of the historical assessment of the fragility of liberal democracy and the persistence and growth of authoritarianism populism and dictatorship in many parts of the world The authors argue that the question whether Putin and Erdogan can make Russia and Turkey great again is hard to confirm personal ambition for power and wealth is certainly key to an understanding of both rulers They each squandered opportunities to build from free and fair democratic electoral legitimacy and economic progress The prospect for restored national greatness depends on how they can handle the economic and political challenges they now face and will continue to face in the near future in a climate of global pandemic and economic recession Both rulers so far have succeeded in maintaining and increasing their powers and influence in their respective regions but neither has made real contributions to regional stability and order Chaos seems to be growing and the EU and the U S thus far seem unable to provide coherent responses to mitigate the impact of their adventurism and disruption

Education of a Canadian

My Existentialism

Leslie Herzberger,2006-04-01 The history of the United States in the last thirty years its preoccupation with the Vietnam War and the devastating affects of that war on the psyche of this nation is evidence of a foreign policy tragedy Foreign policy tragedy brings domestic tragedy in its wake The purpose of this study is to work out why the approaches to social revolution and that is what the Vietnam War was about have been wrong on both sides of the ideological spectrum the last thirty years in the U S point out why they were wrong point to where they were wrong and point to the consequences of acting in a society when the perceptions are in certain respects wrong Let me sum up my perception on what went wrong in Vietnam It was a Right wing war fought on Left wing premises It was a war that could not have been won because those who designed it would not or could not win it but were also afraid of losing it It was a war that was wrongly perceived by both sides of the ideological spectrum The Liberal argument was that America tried everything and still lost it The Conservative argument was that it could have been won if the opposition had not tied their hands keeping them from an all out effort that would have been required to win it The war was started in earnest by the Liberals under Kennedy The strategy was to roll up the enemy by hitting on the peasant and through it cut off the leaders Pacification education re education indoctrination and the introduction of self defense techniques to the South Vietnamese peasants was meant to stop the revolution exported from the North in its tracks The U S policy was predicated on the assumption that the peasants really had something to do with the ruling functions of the North Vietnamese revolution after Thermidor that after the onset of Thermidor after the institutionalization of the revolution in Hanoi the revolution was still revolution The Liberal approach has believed that revolution is tantamount to Mao s view of it in China peasants all immersed in the revolutionary process as fish in the sea And so you would have to drain the very ocean itself to stop it Our approach to the post revolutionary process is that after the onset of Thermidor in a society revolution is a bunch of terror informed super bureaucrats at the center of a society increasingly cut off from the periphery In a post revolutionary society it is the leaders that matter not the fish in the sea So bombing the small fish into fish soup hell in response as did the West in Vietnam in that war every tree every outhouse every shack and every village until they drop so much ordinance that the entire region is brain dead from defoliants and pockmarks and natural calamities while leaving the center untouched would seem insane Yet that was the policy in Vietnam of America And then nothing happened Nothing happened week after week year after year except that America itself was being driven mad doing the same thing and expecting it to come out different That as the President elect said in 1993 was and is insanity But what choice did they all have The pro war liberal American leadership that designed the war in Vietnam did not dare bomb Hanoi the capitol of North Vietnam for fear of triggering World War III with Red China and with Soviet Russia both of whose client North Vietnam was So they tied their own hands figuring that by coming through the back door fish in the sea style piece by piece nobody will notice in China and Russia ergo no World War III So they took a strategy that was insane and made a virtue out of its necessity They
