Tankard, 2018-11-27 The ever alluring Arts and Crafts garden is profoundly relevant to our 21st century needs Sam Watters author of Gardens for a Beautiful America In Gardens of the Arts and Crafts Movement landscape scholar Judith B Tankard surveys the inspirations characteristics and development of garden design during this iconic movement Tankard presents a selection of houses and gardens of the era from Great Britain and North America With almost 300 illustrations and photographs and an emphasis on the diversity of designers who helped forge the movement Gardens of the Arts and Crafts Movement is an essential resource for this truly distinct approach to garden design England's Magnificent Gardens Roderick Floud, 2021-06-15 An altogether different kind of book on English gardens the first of its kind a look at the history of England s magnificent gardens as a history of Britain itself from the seventeenth century gardens of Charles II to those of Prince Charles today In this rich revelatory history Sir Roderick Floud one of Britain s preeminent economic historians writes that gardens have been created in Britain since Roman times but that their true growth began in the seventeenth century by the eighteenth century nurseries in London took up 100 acres with ten million plants that were worth more than all of the nurseries in France combined Floud s book takes us through more than three centuries of English history as he writes of the kings queens and princes whose garden obsessions changed the landscape of England itself from Stuart Georgian and Victorian England to today s Windsors Here are William and Mary who brought Dutch gardens and bulbs to Britain William who twice had his entire garden lowered in order to see the river from his apartments and his successor Queen Anne who like many others since vowed to spend little on her gardens and instead spent millions Floud also writes of Frederick Prince of Wales the founder of Kew Gardens who spent more than 40 000 on a single twenty five foot tulip tree for Carlton House Queen Victoria who built the largest most advanced and most efficient kitchen garden in Britain and Prince Charles who created and designed the gardens of Highgrove inspired by his boyhood memories of his grandmother s gardens We see Sarah Duchess of Marlborough who created a magnificent garden at Blenheim Palace only to tear it apart and build a greater one Deborah Duchess of Devonshire the savior of Chatsworth s 100 acre garden in the midst of its 35 000 acres and the gardens of lesser mortals among them Gertrude Jekyll and Vita Sackville West both notable garden designers and writers We see the designers of royal estates among them Henry Wise William Kent Humphrey Repton and the greatest of all English gardeners Capability Brown who created the 150 acre lake of Blenheim Palace earned millions annually and designed more than 170 parks many still in existence today We learn how gardening became a major catalyst for innovation central heating came from experiments to heat greenhouses with hot water pipes how the new iron industry of industrializing Britain supplied a myriad of tools mowers pumps and the boilers that heated the greenhouses and finally Floud explores how gardening became an enormous industry as well as an art form in Britain and by the nineteenth century was unrivaled anywhere in the world The Hardy Plant ,2002 The Changing English Countryside, 1400-1700 Leonard

Cantor,2017-07-06 The period covered by this book first published in 1987 was an important one for the rural landscape in England The author describes and analyses the evolution of the countryside during the years which witnessed the gradual disappearance of the medieval landscape and the introduction of new farming methods and industrial techniques thus laying the foundation for the radical changes that were to transform the English countryside in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries The main features of the countryside are dealt with fully and examples are given of their remains which can still be identified in the landscape today Women and the Making of Built Space in England, 1870-1950 Elizabeth
