Making Her Way The Search For Helga:

Passing and the Fictions of Identity Elaine K. Ginsberg, 1996-04-29 Passing refers to the process whereby a person of one race gender nationality or sexual orientation adopts the guise of another Historically this has often involved black slaves passing as white in order to gain their freedom More generally it has served as a way for women and people of color to access male or white privilege In their examination of this practice of crossing boundaries the contributors to this volume offer a unique perspective for studying the construction and meaning of personal and cultural identities These essays consider a wide range of texts and moments from colonial times to the present that raise significant questions about the political motivations inherent in the origins and maintenance of identity categories and boundaries Through discussions of such literary works as Running a Thousand Miles for Freedom The Autobiography of an Ex Coloured Man Uncle Tom's Cabin The Hidden Hand Black Like Me and Giovanni's Room the authors examine issues of power and privilege and ways in which passing might challenge the often rigid structures of identity politics Their interrogation of the semiotics of behavior dress language and the body itself contributes significantly to an understanding of national racial gender and sexual identity in American literature and culture Contextualizing and building on the theoretical work of such scholars as Judith Butler Diana Fuss Marjorie Garber and Henry Louis Gates Jr Passing and the Fictions of Identity will be of value to students and scholars working in the areas of race gender and identity theory as well as U S history and literature Contributors Martha Cutter Katharine Nicholson Ings Samira Kawash Adrian Piper Valerie Rohy Marion Rust Julia Stern Gayle Wald Ellen M Weinauer Elizabeth Young

Interracial Encounters Julia H. Lee, 2011-10-01 2013 Honorable Mention Asian American Studies Association's prize in Literary Studies Part of the American Literatures Initiative Series Why do black characters appear so frequently in Asian American literary works and Asian characters appear in African American literary works in the early twentieth century Interracial Encounters attempts to answer this rather straightforward literary question arguing that scenes depicting Black Asian interactions relationships and conflicts capture the constitution of African American and Asian American identities as each group struggled to negotiate the racially exclusionary nature of American identity In this nuanced study Julia H Lee argues that the diversity and ambiguity that characterize these textual moments radically undermine the popular notion that the history of Afro Asian relations can be reduced to a monolithic media friendly narrative whether of cooperation or antagonism Drawing on works by Charles Chesnutt Wu Tingfang Edith and Winnifred Eaton Nella Larsen W E B Du Bois and Youngblood King Interracial Encounters foregrounds how these reciprocal representations emerged from the nation's pervasive pairing of the figure of the Negro and the Asiatic in oppositional overlapping or analogous relationships within a wide variety of popular scientific legal and cultural discourses Historicizing these interracial encounters within a national and global context highlights how multiple racial groups shaped the narrative of race and national identity in the early twentieth century as well as how early twentieth century American literature emerged from that multiracial political context Telling Tales E. James Chapman, 2018-03-20 In Telling Tales the Confessions of a Handyman there is a compilation of seven stories that encompass many of the not so everyday events that the author has come across as a property manager come butler within the Ex Pat community on Southern Spain's Costa del Sol The Barbarian King & His Beauty Savanna Cook, 2024-08-13 A new system of marriage proposals a recipe for a fairytale or a nightmare in the making Lillian is humble loves to read and is quick to stand up for others It's clear she's cut from a different cloth She doesn't fit in with the other princesses Close to her fourth rejection from yet another eligible prince she's become used to the idea that she will never marry Worse yet the next bachelor her father could send a proposal to is King Conrad Gruff unapproachable and recluse it is no surprise Conrad's known throughout the lands as a barbarian And now he may be Lillian's last chance for love Will Lillian be able to tame his heart Or will his self-deprecating ways along with his miserable family push her too far away Will they be able to prove the gossips wrong by showing that there is more to The Barbarian King His Beauty Communal Modernisms E. Hinnov, L. Rosenblum, L. Harris, 2013-05-07 Drawing from recent research that seeks to expand our understanding of modernism this volume offers practical pedagogical approaches for teaching modernist literature and culture in the twenty-first century classroom Passing Novels in the Harlem Renaissance María del Mar Gallego Durán, 2003 This book offers an insightful study of the significance of passing novels for the literary and intellectual debate of the Harlem Renaissance Author Mar Gallego effectively uncovers the presence of a subversive component in five of these novels by James Weldon Johnson George Schuyler Nella Larsen and Jessie Fauset turning them into useful tools to explore the passing phenomenon in all its richness and complexity Her compelling study intends to contribute to the ongoing revision of the parameters conventionally employed to analyze passing novels by drawing attention to a great variety of textual strategies such as double consciousness parody and multiple generic covers Examining the hybrid nature of these texts Gallego skillfully highlights their radical critique of the status quo and their celebration of a distinct African American identity Well researched and stimulating to read Passing Novels in the Harlem Renaissance is an impressive work of scholarship and interpretation

Quicksand Nella Larsen, 2025-02-28 Quicksand by Nella Larsen is a profound novel that delves into the complexities of race and identity in the 1920s The story revolves around Helga Crane a mixed race woman who is searching for a sense of belonging and fulfillment amidst the restrictive social constructs of her time Helga's journey takes her from her upbringing in the black middle class in the North to the vibrant artistic community of Harlem to the rural Southern town of her ancestry and finally to the exotic land of Denmark Throughout her travels she grapples with the dichotomy of her racial identity and the expectations placed upon her by the people around her leading to a tumultuous journey of self-discovery The novel opens with Helga Crane an educator at a Southern school for black children feeling stifled by the constraints of her job and the societal norms of the black community Driven by a desire to find her true place in the world she moves to Harlem seeking the cultural richness of the Harlem Renaissance However she quickly becomes disillusioned with the materialism and shallow relationships she encounters there Her search for authenticity leads her to Copenhagen where she hopes to find a connection with her white Danish heritage Initially she is embraced by the avant garde artistic community but she soon realizes that her racial identity is as much of an issue in Europe as it is in America Despite her attempts to assimilate she remains an outsider and her romantic involvement with a married artist further complicates her search for belonging Returning to the Southern town where her mother was born Helga experiences a sense of kinship with the black community but is also faced with the stark realities of Jim Crow laws and the deep seated racism that pervades American society Her time in the South is marked by a passionate love affair with a minister named Dr Anderson who represents a potential escape from her past However their relationship is fraught with the same issues of identity and conformity that she has been wrestling with throughout her life Feeling trapped by her choices and her identity Helga ultimately marries a man named James Vayle a fellow teacher from the North who offers her stability and a respite from her tumultuous past Yet their marriage is plagued by her inability to fully embrace the domestic role expected of her as well as James s infidelity and his inability to understand her inner turmoil As the story unfolds Helga s journey becomes a metaphor for the struggles of individuals caught between two worlds unable to find a stable footing in either The novel delivers a poignant commentary on the fluidity of identity and the quest for authenticity in a society that seeks to categorize and contain Larsen s vivid portrayal of Helga s internal conflict is mirrored in the external landscapes she traverses each offering a unique perspective on race and identity Quicksand is a powerful exploration of the intersections of race class and gender during the era of the New Negro The characters are complex and multifaceted reflecting the multitude of experiences faced by those navigating the complexities of the time The prose is rich and evocative painting a vivid picture of the various settings and the tumultuous emotions of the protagonist The novel is significant for its nuanced treatment of racial passing and the psychological toll it takes on individuals who are forced to navigate the boundaries of identity Helga s experiences highlight the pain and isolation that result from a lifelong quest to find a place where she truly fits in Through her story Larsen critiques the limitations imposed by a society that refuses to acknowledge the fluidity of identity and the human need for acceptance Quicksand is a timeless piece of literature that resonates with readers who grapple with the complexities of their own identity It is a compelling narrative that challenges readers to consider the societal pressures that shape our perceptions of ourselves and others The book s themes remain relevant today as discussions of race belonging and the search for identity continue to evolve Larsen s work is a poignant reminder of the enduring human desire for connection and authenticity amidst the ever shifting sands of social constructs

Littell's Living Age ,1912 Pragmatism and Poetic Agency Ulf Schulenberg,2021-11-18 Pragmatism is a humanist philosophy In spite of the much debated renaissance of pragmatism however a detailed discussion of the relationship between pragmatism and humanism is still a desideratum It is difficult to understand the complexity of pragmatism without considering the significance of humanism At least since the

1970s humanism mostly in its liberal version has been vehemently attacked and criticized. In pragmatism however a particular understanding of humanism has persisted. Bringing literary studies philosophy and intellectual history together and establishing a transatlantic theoretical dialogue. Pragmatism and Poetic Agency endeavors to elucidate this persistence of humanism. Schulenberg continues the thought provoking argument he developed in his previous two monographs by advancing the idea that one can only grasp the unique contemporary significance of pragmatism when one realizes how pragmatism humanism anti authoritarianism and postmetaphysics are interlinked. If one appreciates the implications and consequences of this link then one is in a position to see pragmatism's antifoundationalist and antirepresentationalist story of progress and emancipation as continuing the project of the Enlightenment. Misfit Modernism Octavio R. González, 2020-08-31. In this book Octavio R. González revisits the theme of alienation in the twentieth century novel identifying an alternative aesthetic centered on the experience of double exile or marginalization from both majority and home culture. This misfit modernist aesthetic decenters the mainstream narrative of modernism which explores alienation from a universal and existential perspective by showing how a group of authors leveraged modernist narrative to explore minoritarian experiences of cultural nonbelonging. Tying the biography of a particular author to a close reading of one of that author's major works. González considers in turn Nella Larsen's Quicksand Wallace Thurman's The Blacker the Berry Jean Rhys's Quartet and Christopher Isherwood's A Single Man. Each of these novels explores conditions of maladjustment within one of three burgeoning cultural movements that sought representation in the greater public sphere: the New Negro movement during the Harlem Renaissance the 1920s Paris expatriate scene and the queer expatriate scene in Los Angeles before Stonewall. Using a methodological approach that resists institutional taxonomies of knowledge González shows that this double exile speaks profoundly through largely autobiographical narratives and that the novels' protagonists challenge the compromises made by these minoritarian groups out of an urge to assimilate into dominant social norms and values. Original and innovative Misfit Modernism is a vital contribution to conversations about modernism in the contexts of sexual identity nationality and race. Moving beyond the debates over the intellectual legacies of intersectionality and queer theory González shows us new ways to think about exclusion. Hansel and Gretel Charlotte Chorpénning, Charlotte Barrows Chorpénning, 1956-12. A Fresh Start Carol Welson-Burden, 2002-04-16. Written with a dash of vinegar A FRESH START tells nine wry happy bitter funny and ironic tales of fate and destiny pipe dreams and fortune hunters vanity and pleasures of the rich curdled love and finaglers skeptics and scoffers fools and simpletons all put together with satire and witticism and great big smiles in the face of adversity. Transatlantic Women's Literature Heidi Slettedahl Macpherson, 2008-11-03. Transatlantic Women's Literature is a valuable contribution to the evolving debate surrounding Transatlantic Studies and transatlantic literature. Its originality and importance lie in its focus on 20th century women's narratives of travel and adventure and its deliberate expansion of the Transatlantic concept beyond the familiar US-UK axis to include Canada South

America the Caribbean and Eastern Europe The crisscrossing of the Atlantic is contested and problematised throughout The book explores culturally resonant literature that imagines the views from both sides and examines the imaginary in between the space of the Atlantic It offers a considered exploration of the way in which the space of the Atlantic and women's space work together in the construction of meaning in transatlantic texts Focusing on contemporary literature this book engages with a range of genres from novellas and novels to essays memoirs and travel literature Nella Larsen's Quicksand is read alongside Bharati Mukherjee's Jasmine in relation to constructions of the exotic Eva Hoffman's Lost in Translation is explored in relation to memoirs of travel such as Jenny Diski's Skating to Antarctica and Stranger on a Train and Anne Tyler's transatlantic novel The Accidental Tourist is read alongside her latest transpacific novel Digging to America as well as Isabel Allende's Daughter of Fortune Readers will gain an appreciation of the complexity of the transatlantic narrative and the ways in which these narratives are defined by and infused with gender considerations The Living Age, 1911 Race to the South Pole Kate Messner, 2022-08-17 In this middle grade historical adventure a dog travels through time to take part in a voyage from New Zealand to the South Pole Ranger the time traveling golden retriever with search and rescue training joins an early twentieth century expedition journeying from New Zealand to Antarctica He befriends Jack Nin the stowaway turned cabin boy of Captain Robert Falcon Scott's ship They're racing against a rival explorer to reach the South Pole but with unstable ice killer whales and raging blizzards the journey turns into a race against time and a struggle to stay alive Praise for the first book in the Ranger in Time series This excellent story contains historical details full page illustrations and enough action to keep even reluctant readers engaged School Library Journal The third person narration expertly balances Ranger's thoughts between the appropriately doglike squirrels bacon and the heroic Ranger's drive to find and protect Kirkus Reviews McMorris's richly rendered illustrations heighten the plot's many moments of danger and drama and Messner incorporates a wealth of historical details into her rousing adventure story Publishers Weekly The Cambridge Companion to the Harlem Renaissance George Hutchinson, 2007-06-14 The Harlem Renaissance 1918-1937 was the most influential single movement in African American literary history Its key figures include W E B Du Bois Nella Larsen Zora Neale Hurston Claude McKay and Langston Hughes The movement laid the groundwork for all later African American literature and had an enormous impact on later black literature world wide With chapters by a wide range of well known scholars this 2007 Companion is an authoritative and engaging guide to the movement It first discusses the historical contexts of the Harlem Renaissance both national and international then presents original discussions of a wide array of authors and texts and finally treats the reputation of the movement in later years Giving full play to the disagreements and differences that energized the renaissance this Companion presents a set of new readings encouraging further exploration of this dynamic field ToxicBlood Fabienne Gschwind, 2022-12-13 Firrland is a wild volcanic island between Spitsbergen and Greenland It would be an idyllic place if a poison and drug sect didn't rule everything there Helga the granddaughter of the high priestess is torn from her studies and forced to succeed her Then when the goddess Elyyr herself appears and orders Helga to build a modern army to conquer the world things get dicey To complicate things further a spaceship is discovered buried beneath the island what is the alien who lives there up to Toxic Blood is a fast paced science fiction novel It is set in the beautiful landscape of the Arctic Authentic Blackness J. Martin Favor,1999 Analysis of four Harlem Renaissance texts that challenges our assumptions about the stability of racial identity and investigates the ways those assumptions shape how we have read literature by Black writers Jazz in the Time of the Novel Bruce Barnhart,2013-10-18 In Jazz in the Time of the Novel Bruce Barnhart explores how jazz and fiction co evolved in early 20th century America to shape cultural understandings of time race and identity Through a nuanced analysis of literary and musical forms Barnhart reveals how jazz s improvisational structure and temporal fluidity influenced narrative techniques and social critique particularly during the Harlem Renaissance This interdisciplinary study offers a compelling framework for examining the aesthetic and political intersections of sound and story Famous Fantastic Classics #2 Ralph Milne Farley,H.
