How Science Engages with Ethics and Why It Should Kristen Renwick Monroe, 2024-04-22 We live in an era of extreme claims versus weak consensus on issues critical to the public Is climate change a hoax or is it destroying our planet Were the vaccines and social distancing measures of COVID 19 designed to protect us or were they an invasion of our liberty How do we determine the validity of these claims and others like them Can we find a reliable middle ground leading to policies that help everyone How Science Engages with Ethics and Why It Should makes an impassioned plea for a scientific analysis of ethics discussing what such a method is why we need it and what it can offer that other methods cannot With contributions from leading thinkers across a range of disciplines Part 1 explores the challenges facing scientists and how to establish ground rules that will both protect human subjects and guide researchers in the future Part 2 explores the importance of evidence based science for topics such as climate change social care political polarization and rational decision making showing how even good science can go wrong at times contributing to disastrous effects At the cutting edge of its discipline How Science Engages with Ethics and Why It Should provides a compelling case for demanding evidence based analysis to form the foundation of the discussions and policies that affect our very lives With contributions by Jeffrey Barratt Peter Ditto Jessica Maria Gonzalez James W Hicks Mahtab Jafari Rose McDermott B W Sarnecka Roxane Cohen Silver Brian Skyrms Teresa Sabol Spezio Lawrence Sporty Kyle Stanford Ashley J Thomas James Tran and the assistance of Ali Ansari Kendrick Choi Hannah Dastgheib David Han Nate Kang Alexis Kim Connor Lee Michelle Lee Lauren O Neill Samuel Shih and Anqi Wang Moral Choices Video Lectures Scott Rae, 2018-10-16 Moral Choices Video Lectures a companion to the bestselling ethics textbook Moral Choices by Scott Rae features 16 lessons each corresponding to a chapter in the textbook The lectures provide students with an introduction to Christian ethics and equips them to form a basis for practical ethical decision making in contemporary culture Ethics and Critical Care Medicine J.C. Moskop, L.M. Kopelman, 1985-09-30 The expense of critical care and emergency medicine along with widespread expectations for good care when the need arises pose hard moral and political problems How should we spend our tax dollars and who should get help The purpose of this volume is to reflect upon our choices The authors whose papers appear herein identify major difficulties and offer various solutions to them Four topics are discussed throughout the volume First encounters between patients and health professionals in critical situations in general and where scarcity makes rationing necessary second allocation and social policy including how much to spend on preventive chronic or critical care medicine or for medicine in general compared to other important social projects third conflicts between or ranking of important goals and values and fourth conceptual issues affecting the choices we make Since these topics are raised by the authors in almost every essay we did not divide the papers into separate sections within the volume Warren Reich begins the volume with a parable illustrating a key problem for contemporary medicine and two very different approaches to its solution His story begins with the delivery of three indigent critically ill foreign patients to the emergency room of a large American private hospital Although the hospital is legally bound to care for these patients providing long term high cost care for them and others soon becomes a major financial strain Introducing Christian Theologies, Volume Two Victor I. Ezigbo, 2015-12-31 Should Christianity's theological face remain largely European and North American in the twenty first century in the wake of the expansion of Christianity in sub Saharan Africa Asia and Latin America The question about the theological face of Christianity cannot be ignored For too long African Asian and Latin American theologians have been left out of mainstream theological discussions Few standard textbooks on Christian theology acknowledge the unique contributions theologians from these continents have made to global Christianity Introducing Christian Theologies Voices from Global Christian Communities is a two volume textbook that alters the predominantly European and North American theological face of Christianity by interacting with voices of Christian communities from across the globe Introducing Christian Theologies explores the works of key theologians from around the world highlighting their unique contributions to Christian theology and doctrine
