Making Of A Veterinarian:

The Making of a Veterinarian & Other Stories DVM DAVID E. LARSEN, 2025-01-31 Dr Sanders handed me the flashlight after I jumped into the pigpen Then he scrambled in after me The wind still stung our faces as it blew through the wide slats in the fence We duck walked back toward the corner the boys had pointed out to us At least all the manure was frozen solid This would be just as interesting in the summer I thought from Twas the Night Before Christmas The Making of a Country Veterinarian This second edition of Dr David E Larsen s fifth book in his Memoirs of a Country Vet series contains all the stories from the first edition plus many new ones that continue to describe his early years in veterinary medicine From tending to a sick cow when he was a kid through high school college an Army enlistment more college and finally veterinary school this active farm boy with a diverse background from Oregon s Coquille River Valley became the country vet he aspired to and his struggles and life events and challenges that shaped him as a veterinarian For forty years Dave served the animals in his care with skill and expertise and their owners with knowledge grace and humor

Decision-Making in Veterinary Practice Barry Kipperman, 2024-01-24 Decision Making in Veterinary Practice The first ever guide to rational decision making in veterinary practice The practice of veterinary medicine entails crucial decisions about patient care on a daily basis Whether to admit patients displaying symptoms whether to pursue diagnoses or prioritize therapeutic trials whether to advise overnight stays after routine surgery whether to refer patients the answers to questions like these can significantly influence patient outcomes and standards of care However veterinary clinicians are seldom trained to analyze their patterns of decision making relying instead on the existing culture of a practice to dictate their behaviors This can lead to irrational decisions institutional inertia reluctance to comply with evidence based medicine and failure to optimize patient outcomes Decision Making in Veterinary Practice provides the first ever dedicated guide to rational principles for decision making in veterinary practice Rooted in the study of normative ethics it seeks to pose important questions and develop processes by which they can be answered The book promises to transform the clinical performance of clinicians and practices that utilize it Decision Making in Veterinary Practice readers will also find Discussions of key issues based on extensive clinical experience and evidence Detailed discussion of important decision determinants like time of day patient weight criteria for stopping treatment and more Essential insights on clinical decision making and clinical reasoning Decision Making in Veterinary Practice is ideal for all veterinary practitioners veterinary students and clinical skills instructors Decision Making in Veterinary Practice offers expert medical knowledge and an ethical sensibility to illuminate everyday veterinary issues like animal euthanasia treatment of elderly patients and moral stress The result is an unparalleled practical road map to fulfilling the patient advocacy role of the veterinarian I wish I had the benefit of Dr Kipperman s wisdom when I was a young veterinarian All veterinarians should read this terrific book veterinary students new graduates and seasoned professionals Simon Coghlan PhD BVSc University of Melbourne Victoria Australia Decision Making in Veterinary Practice is a detailed and
