The Making of Little Punjab in Canada Archana B Verma, 2002-08-13 Archana Verma's powerful and vivid narrative focuses on a specific community in a particular time frame namely the Punjabi diaspora in twentieth century Canada. The author concentrates on two localities: Paldi village in Punjab and the Punjabi settlement of Paldi in Vancouver Island, British Columbia. She traces the historical links and ethnic roots of these two village communities situated on opposite sides of the world. Dr Verma depicts rural peasant migration in terms of the creation of social spaces at home and overseas. The sub text of this book is a revealing inquiry into the dynamics of caste, family and kinship networks and the resulting reciprocal relations between the two communities. Trebilcock, 2010-10-02 Immigration policy is a subject of intense political and public debate. In this second edition of the widely recognized and authoritative work The Making of the Mosaic, Ninette Kelley and Michael Trebilcock have thoroughly revised and updated their examination of the ideas, interests, institutions and rhetoric that have shaped Canada's immigration history. Beginning their study in the pre Confederation period, the authors interpret major episodes in the evolution of Canadian immigration policy, including the massive deportations of the First World War and Depression eras as well as the Japanese Canadian internment camps during World War Two. New chapters provide perspective on immigration in a post 9/11 world where security concerns and a demand for temporary foreign workers play a defining role in immigration policy reform. A comprehensive and important work, The Making of the Mosaic clarifies the attitudes underlying each phase and juncture of immigration history, providing vital perspective on the central issues of immigration policy that continue to confront us today. The Ashgate Research Companion to Modern Imperial Histories

John Marriott, 2016-03-23 Written by leading scholars this collection provides a comprehensive and authoritative overview of modern empires Spanning the era of modern imperial history from the early sixteenth century to the present it challenges both the rather insular focuses on specific experiences and gives due attention to imperial formations outside the West including the Russian Japanese Mughal Ottoman and Chinese The companion is divided into three broad sections Part I Times surveys the three main eras of modern imperialism The first was that dominated by the settlement impulse with migrants many voluntarily and many more by force making new lives in the colonies This impulse gave way most especially in the nineteenth century to a period of busy and rapid expansion which was less likely to promote new settlement and in which colonists more frequently saw their sojourn in colonial lands as temporary and related to the business mostly of governance and trade Lastly in the twentieth century in particular empires began to fail and to fall Part II Spaces studies the principal imperial formations of the modern world Each chapter charts the experience of a specific empire while at the same time placing it within the complex patterns of wider imperial constellations The individual chapters thus survey the broad dynamics of change within the empires themselves and their relationships with other imperial formations and reflect critically on the ways in which these topics have been approached in the literature In Part III Themes scholars think critically about some of the key features of imperial expansion and decline These chapters are brief and many are provocative They reflect the current state of the field and suggest new lines of inquiry which may follow from more comparative perspectives on empire The broad range of themes captures the vitality and diversity of contemporary scholarship on questions of empire and colonialism encompassing political economic and cultural processes central to the formation and maintenance of empires as well as institutions ideologies and social categories that shaped the lives both of those implementing and those experiencing the force of empire In these pages the reader will find the slave and the criminal the merchant and the maid the scientist and the artist alongside the structures which sustained their lives and their livelihoods Overall the companion emphasises the diversity of imperial experience and process Comprehensive in its scope it draws attention to the particularities of individual empires rather than over generalising as if all empires at all times and in all places behaved in a similar manner It is this contingent and historical specificity that enables us to explore in expansive ways precisely what constituted the modern empire

Religious Radicalization and Securitization in Canada and Beyond: Paul Bramadat, Lorne Dawson, 2014-01-01 Religious Radicalization and Securitization in Canada and Beyond examines the challenges created by both religious radicalism and the state's and society's response to it

Punjabi Immigrant Mobility In the United States Diditi Mitra, 2012-11-09 How did so many Punjabi immigrants come to find themselves behind the wheels of so many New York City taxi cabs and what do their stories have to teach us about how immigrants must navigate life in a new society Diditi Mitra analyzes how race and class influence settlement patterns in the United States based on her extensive interviews with 59 Punjabi taxi drivers organizers of the New York Taxi Workers Alliance lawyers who represent drivers in taxi courts owners of taxi fleets and an official of the New York Taxi and Limousine Commission What emerges is an unprecedented exploration into how society shapes the choices made by immigrants as they adapt to America The Oxford Handbook of Sikh Studies Pashaura Singh,Louis E. Fenech,2014-03 This handbook innovatively combines the ways in which scholars diverse fields including philosophy psychology literary studies history sociology anthropology political science and economics have integrated the study of Sikhism within critical and postcolonial perspectives on the nature of religion

From Policemen to Revolutionaries: A Sikh Diaspora in Global Shanghai, 1885-1945 Yin Cao,2017-10-10 From Policemen to Revolutionaries uncovers the less known story of Sikh emigrants in Shanghai in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Yin Cao argues that the cross border circulation of personnel and knowledge across the British colonial and the Sikh diasporic networks facilitated the formation of the Sikh community in Shanghai eventually making this Chinese city one of the overseas hubs of the Indian nationalist struggle By adopting a translocal approach this study elaborates on how the flow of Sikh emigrants largely regarded as subalterns initially strengthened but eventually unhinged British colonial rule in East and Southeast Asia The Solidarity Approach in Geography Kavita Arora,Rashmi Rani Anand,2025-07-08 This contributed volume explains the concept of solidarity and illustrates how perspectives informed by a solidarity approach can be utilized in geographic research Geography offers a set of concepts and tools including space place scale landscape and mobility that makes it a particularly useful lens through which to view issues of solidarity It is distinct from other sciences in its subject matter and methodology but at the same time offers a multidisciplinary approach and transcends its disciplinary boundary The concept of solidarity in geography is illustrated here through nearly thirty five case chapters all from the Indian subcontinent Topics covered here include but are not limited to geographical approaches to solidarity in economic issues indigenous knowledge international relations global geopolitics climate change crisis management human health and more Canadian Liberalism and the Politics of Border Control, 1867-1967 Christopher G. Anderson,2012-11-10

With restrictive immigration policies increased interdiction and the detention of asylum seekers it is clear that Canada s approach to border control has shifted in recent years Yet such practices are just the latest in a long and complex national history Canadian Liberalism and the Politics of Border Control sheds light on the first century of Canada s efforts to control its borders framing pivotal moments within a long standing but often overlooked debate over the rights of non citizens Anderson provides valuable insights into contemporary liberal democratic control by demonstrating that today s more restrictive approach reflects traditions deeply embedded within liberal democracies Sikh Diaspora in Japan Azuma

Masako,2018-10-26 The Sikh community is one of the largest groups of Indians abroad and many studies of these migrants have been conducted The Sikh temples which are called gurdwaras are seen at all the places where Sikh migrants have settled As other Indian migrants Sikhs too have struggled to maintain their social and cultural customs in the societies they have moved to In spite of facing difficulties Sikh migrants have created a synthesis of their own culture with the culture of their place of emigration This hybridity in migrants culture brings us an understanding of the migrants as Diaspora who are in a in between world among their place of origin and their present residence This book focuses on the social and cultural practices of Sikh Diaspora in Japan which is not large when compared to other places The gurdwaras located in different cities like Kobe and Tokyo are described in this volume as not only religious places but also socializing spaces where the Sikh culture thrives The two gurdwaras represent diverse social contexts of Sikh migrants in Japan showing myriad features The volume shows how the Sikh Diaspora in Japan have struggled in their new world and created their own thriving culture through global and local networks Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka

International Bibliography of Sikh Studies Rajwant Singh Chilana,2006-01-16 The International Bibliography of Sikh Studies brings together all books composite works journal articles conference proceedings theses dissertations project reports and electronic resources produced in the field of Sikh Studies until June 2004 making it the most complete and up to date reference work in the field today One of the youngest religions of the world Sikhism has progressively attracted attention on a global scale in recent decades An increasing number of scholars is exploring the culture history politics and religion of the Sikhs The growing interest in Sikh Studies has resulted in an avalanche of literature which is now for the first time brought together in the International Bibliography of Sikh Studies This monumental work lists over 10 000 English language publications under almost 30 subheadings each representing a subfield in Sikh Studies The Bibliography contains sections on a wide variety of subjects such as Sikh gurus Sikh philosophy Sikh politics and Sikh religion Furthermore the encyclopedia presents an annotated survey of all major scholarly work on Sikhism and a selective listing of electronic and web based resources in the field Author and subject indices are appended for the reader s convenience

Women in the Indian Diaspora Amba Pande,2017-12-05 This volume brings into focus a range of emergent issues related to women in the Indian diaspora The conditions propelling women s migration and their experiences during the process of migration and settlement have always been different and very specific to them Standing in between the two worlds of origin and adoption women tend to experience dialectic tensions between freedom and subjugation but they often use this space to assert independence and to redefine their roles and perceptions of self The central idea in this volume is to understand women s agency in addressing and redressing the complex issues faced by them in restructuring the cultural formats of patriarchy and gender relations managing the emerging conflicts over what is to be transmitted to the following generations renegotiating their domestic roles and embracing new professional and educational successes and adjusting to the institutional structures of the host state The essays included in the volume discuss women in the Indian diaspora from multidisciplinary perspectives involving social economic cultural and political aspects Such an effort privileges diasporic women s experiences and perspectives in the academia and among policy makers Migration, Mobility and Multiple Affiliations S. Irudaya Rajan,V. J. Varghese,Aswini Kumar Nanda,2016-03-14 This edited volume discusses how the Punjabi transnational experience has impacted Indian transnationalism and led to a diverse diaspora India

Migration Report 2019 S. Irudaya Rajan,2018-10-08 India Migration Report 2019 examines the issues of identity related to integration in European societies It examines the multifarious nature of social economic and political engagements of the Indian diaspora with their host societies in Europe This volume assesses the historical trends in migration to Europe mobility paths and transnational networks of skilled Indian migrants as well as recent tendencies in movements of migrants explores the roles of Indian migrants in transforming host societies with their skills and capabilities highlights their contribution towards the development of their homeland through knowledge transfer philanthropy capital flows remittances and investment takes stock of the impact of recent events especially Brexit and anti immigrant positioning of some political parties uses mixed research methods including ethnography key informant interviews and in depth case studies The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of development studies economics demography sociology and social anthropology and migration and diaspora studies Mapping Social Exclusion in India Paramjit S. Judge,2014-03-13 Identifies and examines various trajectories of exclusion at both macro and micro levels in India Relation and Resistance Sailaja Krishnamurti,Becky R. Lee,2021-09-30 In Canada women s bodies are often at the centre of debates about religious pluralism multiculturalism and secularism Women have long played a critical role in building and maintaining diasporic religious communities and networks and they have also been catalysts for change and transformation within religious groups and the wider community Relation and Resistance explores the stories and lives of racialized women connected with religious diaspora communities in Canada Contributors from across disciplines show how women are conceptualizing traditions in transformative ways challenging prevailing assumptions about diasporic religion as nostalgically entrenched in the past The collected essays include chapters on feminist and queer women thinking critically about Hindu and Muslim identities and beliefs and challenging anti Black racism and settler colonialism Afro Caribbean and M tis writers using literature to explore religion and belonging the impact of women s participation in Japanese Chinese and Pakistani transnational religious organizations and marriage migration and gender equality in the Punjabi Sikh and Malayali Christian communities The volume closes with a chapter exploring M tis diasporic experience and inviting readers to think critically about diasporic religion on Indigenous land An innovative and timely volume Relation and Resistance reveals that a deeper understanding of women s experiences of displacement migration race and gender is critical to the study of religion in Canada

Family, Citizenship and Islam Nilufar Ahmed, 2016-06-17 A longitudinal intersectional study of migrant women this book examines the lives of first generation Bangladeshi migrants to the UK considering the dynamic relationship between people and place Shedding new light on a migrant population about which little is known the author explores the experiences of women who left rural homes to live in London speaking no English with no experience of local customs and having to adjust to what would now be dramatically shrunken family sizes within which they would act as bearers of culture and tradition Based on research spanning a decade Family Citizenship and Islam draws on qualitative interviews with over 100 women and examines questions of identity belonging citizenship and Britishness religion ageing care and the family With attention to the fluidity of the experiences of the first generation of migration women the book offers an alternative to much ethnographic research which often offers only a snapshot of a particular minority or migrant group as fixed and preserved in time As such Family Citizenship and Islam will appeal to scholars of sociology geography and anthropology with interests in migration and diaspora citizenship gender religion family and the lifecourse and the ways in which these different aspects of a person s life come together to shape lived experience
