Making Peace Nurturing Life:

Making Peace with Herpes Christopher Scipio, 2006 Making Peace with Herpes is the most thought provoking and original book ever written on the subject of herpes Christopher Scipio started off as a victim of the virus and transformed himself into one of the most experienced holistic practitioners who treats herpes in North America He is an outspoken advocate of treatment without drug therapy While it is a subject that many people would rather avoid Scipio points out that 60% of the sexually active population in North America has either herpes simplex 1 or 2 70% of the people who have it either don't know they have it won't admit they have it or are not treating it Scipio explains For some people having herpes can make you feel like a leper There are no public fundraisers or celebrity spokespersons championing the cause of herpes In fact you would be hard pressed to get anyone to admit in public that they have the gift The good news and the ironic news is that herpes is one of the easiest diseases to manage naturally There is absolutely no need for drug therapy for herpes This book isn't just about how to have fewer outbreaks or how to stop having outbreaks just doing that isn't enough to be healthy This book is about holistically healing your herpes and living a healthy happy and balanced life Holistic health is about much more than making symptoms go away Making Peace with Herpes is a must read for everyone Whether you have herpes are in a relationship with someone with herpes or you just want to educate yourself on the world's fastest growing pandemic it's a self-empowerment guide of the first order

Women and Power in Post-Conflict Africa Aili Mari Tripp, 2015-10-20 The book explains an unexpected consequence of the decrease in conflict in Africa after the 1990s Analysis of cross national data and in depth comparisons of case studies of Uganda Liberia and Angola show that post conflict countries have significantly higher rates of women's political representation in legislatures and government compared with countries that have not undergone major conflict They have also passed more legislative reforms and made more constitutional changes relating to women's rights The study explains how and why these patterns emerged tying these outcomes to the conjuncture of the rise of women's movements changes in international women's rights norms and most importantly gender disruptions that occur during war This book will help scholars students women's rights activists international donors policy makers non governmental organizations NGOs and others better understand some of the circumstances that are most conducive to women's rights reform today and why

The Public Law of Gender Kim Rubenstein, Katharine G. Young, 2016-05-26 With the worldwide sweep of gender neutral gender equal or gender sensitive public laws in international treaties national constitutions and statutes it is timely to document the raft of legal reform and to critically analyse its effectiveness In demarcating the academic study of the public law of gender this book brings together leading lawyers political scientists historians and philosophers to examine law's structuring of politics governing and gender in a new global frame Of interest to constitutional and statutory designers advocates adjudicators and scholars the contributions explore how concepts such as equality accountability representation participation and rights depend on challenge or enlist gendered roles and or categories These enquiries suggest that the new public law of gender must confront the lapses in enforcement sincerity and coverage that are common in both national and international law and governance and critically and pluralistically recast the public private distinction in family community religion customary and market domains A New Vision, a New Heart, a Renewed Call David Claydon, 2005 The Sudan People's Liberation Movement/Army (Splm/A) Julia Aker Duany, Wal Duany, 2018-08-20

The Republic of South Sudan the world's youngest country gained independence from Sudan following decades of civil war in 2011 with fanfare high hopes and great expectations The Sudan People's Liberation Movement Army SPLM A the primary military force that fought for independence transformed into the political rulers of the new country and lost its vision of a free and prosperous nation Within two years of independence the country has quickly degenerated into internecine warfare with fifty thousand to one hundred thousand dead four million more refugees and internally displaced people IDPs and half the population of the country six to seven million facing starvation The blame for this state of affairs rests primarily on the SPLM A leadership who have failed to put the interests of their people ahead of their own corrupt interests In this firsthand analysis of the South Sudan the authors explain how the corruption leadership struggles infighting and undemocratic culture of the SPLM A have led to the current crises The majority of citizens felt that their novel cause has been stolen by their selfish leaders and the hope for a better life has just disappeared like the morning mist Life's Lessons Ann Miller, 2011-07-12 Creating a Hopeful Future Harnessing our creative energies Re framing our values Changing our focus The Global Community needs a pivotal idea to give it purpose direction and meaning What would you choose as your guiding principle for the world Transforming the world is everybody's business we all inhabit a little bit of it and we have a vested interest in keeping it going and in improving it Choosing an idea which we can all get behind regardless of nationality race sex class religious belief or political affiliation can help us work towards a more hopeful future in which we can all share Life's Lessons examines the three organizational principles of education business and government which involve all of us in one way or another and seeks to shed light on how we might refocus our values and create a more inclusive society Together we can design education systems which care more about people than performance businesses which care more about people than profit and governments which care more about people than politics You are invited to explore the history and evolution of our collective society through the writings of some of our most creative thinkers and to discover our shared human values The lessons have all been taught we just need to put them into effect Find your voice and join together to create a future worth living for our children and our children's children War and Genocide in South Sudan Clémence Pinaud, 2021-02-15 Using more than a decade's worth of fieldwork in South Sudan Clémence Pinaud here explores the relationship between predatory wealth accumulation state formation and a form of racism extreme ethnic group entitlement that has the potential to result in genocide War and Genocide in South Sudan traces the rise of a predatory state during civil war in southern Sudan and its transformation into a violent Dinka ethnocracy after the region's formal independence That new state Pinaud argues waged genocide against non Dinka civilians in 2013 2017 During a civil war that wrecked the region between 1983 and 2005 the predominantly Dinka Sudan People's Liberation Army SPLA practiced ethnically exclusive and predatory wealth accumulation Its actions fostered extreme group entitlement and profoundly shaped the rebel state Ethnic group entitlement eventually grew into an ideology of ethnic supremacy After that war ended the semi autonomous state turned into a violent and predatory ethnocracy a process accelerated by independence in 2011 The rise of exclusionary nationalism a new security landscape and inter ethnic political competition contributed to the start of a new round of civil war in 2013 in which the recently founded state unleashed violence against nearly all non Dinka ethnic groups Pinaud investigates three campaigns waged by the South Sudan government in 2013 2017 and concludes they were genocidal they sought to destroy non Dinka target groups She demonstrates how the perpetrators sense of group entitlement culminated in land grabs that amounted to a genocidal conquest echoing the imperialist origins of modern genocides Thanks to generous funding from TOME the ebook editions of this book are available as Open Access volumes from Cornell Open cornellpress.cornell.edu/cornell-open and other repositories

What Is the What Dave Eggers, 2009-02-24 What Is the What is the story of Valentino Achak Deng a refugee in war ravaged southern Sudan who flees from his village in the mid 1980s and becomes one of the so called Lost Boys Valentino's travels bring him in contact with enemy soldiers with liberation rebels with hyenas and lions with disease and starvation and with deadly murahaleen militias on horseback the same sort who currently terrorize Darfur Eventually Deng is resettled in the United States with almost 4000 other young Sudanese men and a very different struggle begins Based closely on true experiences What Is the What is heartbreaking and arresting filled with adventure suspense tragedy and finally triumph
