Making A Difference A Prayer Journal For Teachers:

Making a Difference Rebecca L. Smith, Rebecca L. Harper, 2005-11 Water Lane the last stop on Medieval pilgrimages to Canterbury is located in the ancestral village that John Passfield shares with the Elizabethan playwright Christopher Marlowe In this novel the water in the lane becomes a central image in an imaginary pilgrimage that the dying artist recalls as he lies bleeding from a stab wound on the floor of Eleanor Bull s house in Deptford in May of 1593 Amid the footsteps and murmurs of his murderers as they rehearse their version of the scuffle Marlowe s preconscious mind attempts a final structuring of the images of his life The overt mystery who has arranged the death of Christopher Marlowe frames the covert mystery what are the influences that shape an artist s work The Church School Journal ,1899 Songs of Summer Grace Constance L. Goonan, 2004-08-24 Songs of Summer Grace is a prayer devotional addressing issues encountered in a thirty three year career as a high school teacher in public education Education is in crisis and this book speaks to the difference it could make to invite God into public schools It speaks to living out and giving witness to one s spirituality in the workplace This teaching philosophy has had a positive effect on students This psalm journal has three sections The first Songs of Teaching glances back from the peace of summer to a school year replete with struggles as well as triumphs The second group of prayers Songs of a Teacher speaks about the challenges in life and where and how to find God who offers strength for the journey And finally the third group of songs Songs of God s Children is a compilation of notes written by students to their teacher who was transferring to another school Songs of Summer Grace is different from other books that deal with student teacher relationships in that spirituality is linked to the work of educating children in public schools The classroom scenarios described have been personally experienced internalized and processed through prayer By living gospel values and truths even though they are not allowed to actually be taught or preached public school teachers have an opportunity to make a difference Teaching with a prayerful heart draws students into life giving relationships with teachers and has a profound and lasting effect on them The Pennsylvania School Journal Pennsylvania. Dept. of Public Instruction, 1874
