Hebrews, James and Jude R. J. Rushdoony,2009-11-23 There is a resounding call in Hebrews which we cannot forget without going astray Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp bearing his reproach 13 13 This is a summons to serve Christ the Redeemer King fully and faithfully without compromise In our time it calls for a break not only with the prevailing culture of humanistic statism and its messianic claims and pretensions but also a wayward church that has made itself the handmaiden to Christ s enemies When James in his epistle says that faith without works is dead he tells us that faith is not a mere matter of words but it is of necessity a matter of life We are dead men if we no longer can breathe and we are spiritually dead if our faith is unaccompanied by works Too many churches are like graveyards because too many members have no living faith Pure religion and undefiled requires Christian charity and action Anything short of this is a self delusion James s letter is a corrective the church needs badly Jude similarly recalls us to Jesus Christ s apostolic commission Remember ye the words which have been spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ v 17 Jude s letter is usually classified as an apocalyptic tract but we cannot forget that all the Bible speaks of a division between fallen and redeemed humanity between the saved and the lost of the necessity for a new creation beginning with us and of the inescapable triumph of the Kingdom of God
