Making Love To The Minor Poets Of Chicago:

Making Love to the Minor Poets of Chicago James Conrad, 2025-09-23 Set against the vibrant backdrop of Chicago this is a story of science and poetry manipulation and intrigue and the lengths to which people will go for their passions The Yucca Mountain Project deep in the Nevada desert is the first planned long term nuclear storage facility The project is designed to contain nuclear waste for ten thousand years the amount of time it will take for the waste to no longer be radioactive It is an ambitious project especially in light of the fact that in this century alone we lacked the foresight to anticipate Y2K Given this daunting responsibility the project employs an artist a botanist and an architect to contribute visual warnings to the site in a manner decipherable to future generations Conrad imagines an influential poetry professor who insists that the project also include a poem a great poem an epic poem It is this poem that brings us to the center of an extended circle of minor poets who are continually upstaging back stabbing and falling in and out of love with one another Conrad's novel recalls another comic first work John Kennedy Toole's A Confederacy of Dunces Nashville Scene

American Secrets José Liste-Noya, Eduardo Barros-Grela, 2011-09-16 Predicated upon the principles of political freedom cultural openness religious tolerance individual self reliance and ethnic diversity the United States of America has been tempted recurrently by the lures of the secret American Secrets explores this political historical and cultural phenomenon from many often surprisingly overlapping angles in these analyses of the literary and cultural uses and abuses of secrecy within a democratic culture Through analyses of diverse literary works and cultural manifestations from Mark Twain's anti imperialist prophecies to 9 11 conspiracy theories from the traumas of the Vietnam war to the homophobia of the American military establishment from the unresolved dilemmas of nuclear politics to the secret ecologies shunted aside by the exploitation of the environment from the questionings of national identity on the ethnic and trans sexual margins to the confessional modes of poetry and the poetics of the unspeakable and unrepresentable these essays reveal the politics within the poetics and indissociably the poetics fueling the politics of secrecy in its ambivalent deployment Secrecy often seems to be a question without an answer or an answer that either seems to beg the question or to be a question itself These essays address this paradox with their own questioning explorations In answering such questions the volume as a whole provides an illuminating overview of the pervasiveness of the secret and its modalities in American culture while also dealing specifically with the poetics of the secret in its various historically recurrent literary manifestations

Literary Nevada Cheryll Glotfelty, 2016-06-01 Over 200 writings about Nevada with selections from Native American tales to contemporary writings on urban experience and environmental concerns The state of Nevada embodies paradox and contradiction home to one of the fastest growing cities in the nation and to isolated ranches scattered across a sparsely populated backcountry Nevada is a place where the lust for sudden wealth has prompted both wild mining booms and glittering casinos and where forbidding atomic test sites coexist with alluring tourist meccas The variety and distinctiveness of Nevada's landscape and peoples have inspired writers from the beginning of immigrant contact with the region This contact has produced abundant literary wealth that includes the rich oral traditions of Native American peoples and an amazing spectrum of contemporary voices Literary Nevada is the first comprehensive literary anthology of Nevada It contains over 200 selections ranging from traditional Native American tales explorers and emigrants accounts and writing from the Comstock Lode and other mining boomtowns as well as compelling fiction poetry and essays from throughout the state s history There is work by well known Nevada writers such as Sarah Winnemucca Mark Twain and Robert Laxalt by established and emerging writers from all parts of the state and by some nonresident authors whose work illuminates important facets of the Nevada experience The book includes cowboy poetry travel writing accounts of nuclear Nevada narratives about rural life and urban life in Las Vegas and Reno poetry and fiction from the state s best contemporary writers and accounts of the special beauty of wild Nevada s mountains and deserts Editor Cheryll Glotfelty provides insightful introductions to each section and author The book also includes a photo gallery of selected Nevada writers and a generous list of suggested further readings Nevada has inspired an exceptionally rich panorama of fine writing and a dazzling array of literary voices The selections in Literary Nevada will engage and delight readers while revealing the complex and exciting diversity of the state s history people and life The Advocate ,2000-06-06

The Advocate is a lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT monthly newsmagazine Established in 1967 it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States Postmodern/Postwar and After Jason Gladstone,Andrew Hoberek,Daniel Worden,2016-07 Within the past ten years the field of contemporary American literary studies has changed significantly Following the turn of the twenty first century and mounting doubts about the continued explanatory power of the category of postmodernism new organizations have emerged book series have been launched journals have been created and new methodologies periodizations and thematics have redefined the field Postmodern Postwar and After aims to be a field defining book a sourcebook for the new and emerging critical terrain that explores the postmodern postwar period and what comes after The first section of essays returns to the category of the post modern and argues for the usefulness of key concepts and themes from postmodernism to the study of contemporary literature or reevaluates postmodernism in light of recent developments in the field and historical and economic changes in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries These essays take the contemporary abandonments of postmodernism as an occasion to assess the current states of postmodernity After that the essays move to address the critical shift away from postmodernism as a description of the present and toward a new sense of postmodernism as just one category among many that scholars can use to describe the recent past The final section looks forward and explores the question of what comes after the postwar postmodern Taken together these essays from leading and emerging scholars on the state of twenty first century literary studies provide a number of frameworks for approaching contemporary literature as influenced by yet distinct from postmodernism The result is an indispensable guide that seeks to represent and understand the major overhauling of postwar American literary studies

The Chicago of Fiction James A. Kaser,2011-02-01 The importance of Chicago in American culture has made the city's place in the American imagination a crucial topic for literary scholars and cultural historians While databases of bibliographical information on Chicago centered fiction are available they are of little use to scholars researching works written before the 1980s In The Chicago of Fiction: A Resource Guide James A Kaser provides detailed synopses for more than 1 200 works of fiction significantly set in Chicago and published between 1852 and 1980 The synopses include plot summaries names of major characters and an indication of physical settings An appendix provides bibliographical information for works dating from 1981 well into the 21st century while a biographical section provides basic information about the authors some of whom are obscure and would be difficult to find in other sources Written to assist researchers in locating works of fiction for analysis the plot summaries highlight ways in which the works touch on major aspects of social history and cultural studies i e class ethnicity gender immigrant experience and race The book is also a useful reader advisory tool for librarians and readers who want to identify materials for leisure reading particularly since genre juvenile and young adult fiction as well as literary fiction are included

The Poet's House Jean Thompson,2022-07-12 In this warm and witty story a young woman gets swept up in the rivalries and love affairs of a dramatic group of writers Carla is stuck In her twenties and working for a landscaper she's been told she's on the wrong path by everyone from her mom who wants her to work at the hospital to her boyfriend who is dropping not so subtle hints that she should be doing something that matters Then she is hired for a job at the home of Viridian a lauded and lovely aging poet who introduces Carla to an eccentric circle of writers At first she is perplexed by their predilection for reciting lines in conversation the stories of their many liaisons their endless wine soaked nights Soon though she becomes enamored with this entire world with Viridian whose reputation has been defined by her infamous affair with a male poet Mathias with Viridian's circle and especially with the power of words the ache and hunger that can both be awakened and soothed by a poem a hunger that Carla feels sharply When a fight emerges over a vital cache of poems that Mathias wrote about Viridian Carla gets drawn in But how much will she sacrifice for a group that may or may not see her as one of their own A delightfully funny look at the art world sometimes petty sometimes transactional sometimes transformative The Poet's House is also a refreshingly candid story of finding one's way with words as our lantern in the dark
