movies and others aren't. Or wished you could sit down and pick the brains of the people whose stories have been adapted or the screenwriters, producers and directors who adapted them. Author John Robert Marlow has done it for you. He spoke to book authors, playwrights, comic book creators and publishers as well as Hollywood screenwriters, producers and directors responsible for adapting fictional and true stories into Emmy winning TV shows, Oscar winning films, billion dollar megahits and smaller independents. Then he talked to the entertainment attorneys who made the deals. He came away with a unique understanding of adaptations, an understanding he shares in this book which stories make good source material and why what Hollywood wants and doesn't, what you can and can't get in a movie deal, how to write and pitch your story to maximize the chances of a Hollywood adaptation and how much and when you can expect to be paid. This book contains the distilled experience of creators, storytellers and others whose works have earned over 50 billion worldwide. Whether you're looking to sell film rights, adapt your own story alone or with help, or option and adapt someone else's property, this book is for you.

Why We Make Movies George Alexander, 2007-12-18. A sparkling collection of interviews with African American directors and producers. Bringing together more than thirty candid conversations with filmmakers and producers such as Spike Lee, Gordon Parks, Julie Dash, Charles Burnett and Robert Townsend. Why We Make Movies delivers a cultural celebration with the tips of a film school master class. With journalist George Alexander, these revolutionary men and women discuss not only how they got their big breaks but more importantly they explore the creative process and what making movies means to them. Why We Make Movies also addresses the business of Hollywood and its turning tide in a nation where African Americans comprise a sizable portion of the film-going public and go to the movies more frequently than whites. In addition, Alexander's cast of directors and producers considers the lead roles they now play in everything from documentaries and films for television to broad-based blockbusters. In fact, the highest grossing film in Miramax history was Scary Movie, directed by Keenen Ivory Wayans. For film buffs and aspiring filmmakers alike, Why We Make Movies puts a long overdue spotlight on one of the most exciting and cutting-edge segments of today's silver screen.
