Making Of Modern Europe 1648 1780:

The Making of Modern Europe, 1648-1780 Geoffrey Treasure, 2015-12 This reissue of a classic textbook has been revised and updated with a new introduction by the author Geoffrey Treasure provides a thoroughly comprehensive account of the European experience at a time when so much of what is today identified as modern began to take shape Discussing key issues of the period The Making of Modern Europe 1647 1980 examines the evolution of the developing society detailed studies of the people their environment attitudes and beliefs economic aspects the growth of the states politics war and diplomacy religion intellectualism and science This work provides an excellent grounding for the study of seventeenth and eighteenth century European history The Making of Modern Europe, 1648-1780 Treasure, Geoffrey Russell Richards Treasure, 2003 The Making of Modern Europe 1648-1780. [Mit Ktskizz.] (1. Publ.) Geoffrey Russell Richards Treasure, 1985 The making of modern Europe 1648-1780 Geoffrey Treasure, 1984 The Making of Modern Europe, 1950 Society and Economy in Early Modern Europe, 1450-1789 Barry Taylor, 1989 Imagined, Embodied and Actual Turks in Early Modern Europe Bent Holm, Mikael Bøgh Rasmussen, 2021-07-23 The confrontation between European countries and the expanding Ottoman Empire in the early modern era has played a major role in numerous fields of history The aim of this book is to investigate the European Ottoman interrelations from three angles One deals with the circumstances How did the Europeans meet the Turks in pragmatic and diplomatic connections Another concerns imagery how were the Turks depicted in literature and art The third examines performativity how were the Turks inserted into plays operas and ceremonies This book confronts mental visual and embodied images with historical positions and conditions The focus therefore is on the dynamic interactive processes of experience embodiment and imagination in context Bringing together Turkish and European scholars it applies a number of research strategies used by historians to the history of art literature music and theatre Contributions by P l cs Robert Born Asli irakman Anne Duprat Kate Fleet Bent Holm Marcus Keller Maria Pia Pedani Mogens Pelt Mikael B gh Rasmussen G nsel Renda Pia Schwarz Lausten Charlotte Colding Smith Suna Suner Dirk Van Waelderren The Emergence of Modern Europe Heather M. Campbell Senior Editor, Geography and History, 2011-01-15 Examines the evolution of Europe discusses the development of the rudiments of a modern economy and describes the change in social cultural and political philosophies of the Age of Enlightenment European War and Diplomacy, 1337-1815 William Young, 2003-10 The history of international relations and warfare of early modern Europe has gained popularity in recent years This bibliography provides a valuable listing of books dissertations and journal articles in the English language for scholars and general readers interested in diplomatic relations and warfare from the Hundred Years War to the Napoleonic Wars The Power of Language in the Making of International Law Stephane Beaulac, 2004-04-01 The purpose of this book is to enter into the history of the mental social phenomena that are the word sovereignty and the myth of Westphalia Given the circularity of language the project proposes to examine the reality creating role of language as an organic instrument of social power within humanity In semiotic terms the complex structures of words and also myths form part of sign systems in which they can both represent and create reality These are the passive and active functions of language which explain that words and myths not only represent and describe reality but may also play a leading part in creating and transforming reality thus demonstrating and being used to carry fabulous power within humanity The Peace of Westphalia is analysed to show that in spite of what actually took place in 1648 Westphalia has had an incredible social effect in international law standing for the proposition that it signalled the beginning of a new era based on state sovereignty However it is argued that Westphalia constitutes a myth an aetiological myth which has provided a way for society to explain itself to itself that is a way for international society to explain its genesis to itself As regards sovereignty it is shown that Jean Bodin introduced the word in Six Livres for the purpose of having the French ruler enjoy supreme power in the hierarchical organisation structure of society This is the original creative and transforming social effect on the shared consciousness of humanity for which the linguistic sign must be credited which has continued unaltered to this day With respect to Droit des Gens it is demonstrated that Emer de Vattel utilised and actually changed the reality associated with sovereignty also for a specific reason namely to carry out its externalisation the ruling entity was now to enjoy exclusive power to govern which entailed being the sole representative of the people both internally and externally and also meant that it could not be submitted to any foreign state or to any higher law externally Vattel's use of the word has had an extraordinary effect on the shared consciousness of society including that of the emerging international society which is still very much present today These two archetype cases in which sovereignty developed show how this word has really had two paradigms over the years that is it has represented and created the two distinct realities of the internal and the international

Baron, 2014-01-21 This book explains the period of great power peace in the last fifty years and outlines the path to perpetuating it Drawing on the Realist tradition and challenging conventional wisdom about the causes of American primacy Baron explores contributions to peace made by the balance of power nuclear weapons democracy and globalization A Protestant Theology of Religious Pluralism Livingstone Thompson, 2009 In this book three main things have been accomplished First it locates the emergence of religious pluralism as a problem for Christian theology Secondly it shows the critical weaknesses in the approaches to pluralism that we find in the works of Gavin D Costa George Lindbeck and John Hick all major players in the field of religious pluralism Retrieving theological material from seventeenth century Comenius and eighteenth century Zinzendorf the book shows that the Protestant tradition has suitable theological material that can better serve the development of a theology of religious pluralism Thirdly the book enters into dialogue with Islam and highlights exciting new approaches to addressing the issues of salvation the Qur'an and Christology One critical outcome of the book is that it breaks new ground in showing the limitations of liberation theology and proposes a fascinating new pluralism sensitive hermeneutical approach to contextual theology Magic, Body and the Self in Eighteenth-Century Sweden Jacqueline Van Gent, 2009 Contrary to previous assumptions magic remained an integral part of everyday life in Enlightenment Europe This book demonstrates that the endurance of magical practices both benevolent and malevolent was grounded in early modern perceptions of an interconnected body self and spiritual cosmos Drawing on eighteenth century Swedish witchcraft trials which are exceptionally detailed these notions of embodiment and selfhood are explored in depth The nuanced analysis of healing magic the role of emotions the politics of evidence and proof and the very ambiguity of magical rituals reveals a surprising syncretism of Christian and pre Christian elements The book provides a unique insight to the history of magic and witchcraft the study of eighteenth century religion and culture and to our understanding of body and self in the past The Oxford Handbook of Modern Diplomacy Andrew Fenton Cooper, Jorge Heine, Ramesh Thakur, 2013-03-28 Including chapters from some of the leading experts in the field this Handbook provides a full overview of the nature and challenges of modern diplomacy and includes a tour d'horizon of the key ways in which the theory and practice of modern diplomacy are evolving in the 21st Century James Ussher and John Bramhall Jack Cunningham, 2017-11-30 This book examines the lives of two leading Irish ecclesiastics James Ussher 1581 1656 and John Bramhall 1594 1663 Both men were key players in the religious struggles that shook the British Isles during the first half of the seventeenth century and their lives and works provide important insights into the ecclesiastical history of early modern Europe As well as charting the careers of Ussher and Bramhall this study introduces an original and revealing method for examining post Reformation religion Arguing that the Reformation was stimulated by religious impulses that pre date Christianity it introduces a biblical concept of Justice and Numinous motifs to provide a unique perspective on ecclesiastical development Put simply these motifs represent on the one hand the fear of God s judgement and on the other the sacred conception of the fear of God These subtle understandings that co existed in the Catholic church were split apart at the Reformation and proved to be separate poles around which different interpretations of Protestantism gathered By applying these looser concepts to Ussher and Bramhall rather than rigid labels such as Arminian Laudian or Calvinist a more subtle understanding of their careers is possible and provides an altogether more satisfactory method of denominational categorisation than the ones presently employed not just for the British churches but for the history of the Reformation as a whole
