Malcolm X Own Image:

Malcolm X Joe Wood, 1994 Fifteen African American thinkers including Amiri Baraka Angela Davis Arnold Rampersad Cornel West and John Edgar Wideman answer questions about the legacy of Malcolm X and what it means to African Americans today The cream of the crop in current Malcolm scholarship San Francisco Chronicle Malcolm X: In Our Own Image, Creating Their Own Image Lisa E. Farrington, 2005 Creating Their Own Image marks the first comprehensive history of African American women artists from slavery to the present day Using an analysis of stereotypes of Africans and African Americans in western art and culture as a springboard Lisa E Farrington here richly details hundreds of important works many of which deliberately challenge these same identity myths of the carnal Jezebel the asexual Mammy the imperious Matriarch in crafting a portrait of artistic creativity unprecedented in its scope and ambition In these lavishly illustrated pages some of which feature images never before published we learn of the efforts of Elizabeth Keckley fashion designer to Mary Todd Lincoln the acclaimed sculptor Edmonia Lewis internationally renowned for her neoclassical works in marble and the artist Nancy Elizabeth Prophet and her innovative teaching techniques We meet Laura Wheeler Waring who portrayed women of color as members of a socially elite class in stark contrast to the prevalent images of compliant maids impoverished malcontents and exotics others that proliferated in the inter war period We read of the painter Barbara Jones Hugu s collaboration on the famed Wall of Respect even as we view a rare photograph of Hugu in the process of painting the mural Farrington expertly guides us through the fertile period of the Harlem Renaissance and the New Negro Movement which produced an entirely new crop of artists who consciously imbued their work with a social and political agenda and through the tumultuous explosive years of the civil rights movement Drawing on revealing interviews with numerous contemporary artists such as Betye Saar Faith Ringgold Nanette Carter Camille Billops Xenobia Bailey and many others the second half of Creating Their Own Image probes more recent stylistic developments such as abstraction conceptualism and post modernism never losing sight of the struggles and challenges that have consistently influenced this body of work Weaving together an expansive collection of artists styles and periods Farrington argues that for centuries African American women artists have created an alternative vision of how women of color can are and might be represented in American culture From utilitarian objects such as quilts and baskets to a wide array of fine arts Creating Their Own Image serves up compelling evidence of the fundamental human need to convey one s life one s emotions one s experiences on a canvas of one s own making Afro-blue Tony Bolden, 2004 In Afro Blue Tony Bolden traces the ways innovations in black music and poetry have driven the evolution of a variety of other American vernacular artistic forms The blues tradition Bolden demonstrates plays a key role in the relationship between poetry and vernacular expressive forms Through an analysis of the formal qualities of black poetry and music Afro Blue shows that they function as a form of resistance affirming the values and style of life that oppose bourgeois morality Even before the term blues had cultural currency the inscriptions of style and resistance embodied in the blues tradition were already a prominent feature of black poetics Bolden delineates this interrelation examining how poets extend and reshape a variety of other verbal folk forms in the same way as blues musicians play with other musical genres He identifies three distinct bodies of blues poetics some poets mimic and riff on oral forms another group fuse their dedication to vernacular culture with a concern for literary conventions while still others opt to embody the blues poetics by becoming blues musicians and some combine elements of all three
