Chagall Jackie Wullschläger, 2008-10-21 When Matisse dies Pablo Picasso remarked in the 1950s Chagall will be the only painter left who understands what color really is As a pioneer of modernism and one of the greatest figurative artists of the twentieth century Marc Chagall achieved fame and fortune and over the course of a long career created some of the best known and most loved paintings of our time Yet behind this triumph lay struggle heartbreak bitterness frustration lost love exile and above all the miracle of survival Born into near poverty in Russia in 1887 the son of a Jewish herring merchant Chagall fled the repressive potato colored tsarist empire in 1911 for Paris There he worked alongside Modigliani and Léger in the tumbledown tenement called La Ruche where one either died or came out famous But turmoil lay ahead war and revolution a period as an improbable artistic commissar in the young Soviet Union a difficult existence in Weimar Germany occupied France and eventually the United States Throughout as Jackie Wullschläger makes plain in this groundbreaking biography he never ceased giving form on canvas to his dreams longings and memories His subject more often than not was the shtetl life of his childhood the wooden huts and synagogues the goatherds rabbis and violinists the whole lost world of Eastern European Jewry Wullschläger brilliantly describes this world and evokes the characters who peopled it Chagall's passionate energetic mother Feiga Ita his eccentric fellow painter and teacher Bakst his clever intense first wife Bella their glamorous daughter Ida his tough minded final companion and wife Vava and the colorful tragic array of artist actor and writer friends who perished under the Stalinist regime Wullschlager explores in detail Chagall's complex relationship with Russia and makes clear the Russian dimension he brought to Western modernism She shows how as Andr Breton put it under his sole impulse metaphor made its triumphal entry into modern painting and helped shape the new surrealist movement As art critic of the Financial Times she provides a breadth of knowledge on Chagall's work and at the same time as an experienced biographer she brings Chagall the man fully to life ambitious charming suspicious funny contradictory dependent but above all obsessively determined to produce art of singular beauty and emotional depth Drawing upon hitherto unseen archival material including numerous letters from the family collection in Paris and illustrated with nearly two hundred paintings drawings and photographs Chagall is a landmark biography to rank with Hilary Spurling's Matisse and John Richardson's Picasso

Expressionism and modern art A Nation of Refugees Assistant Professor of History and Jewish Studies Polly

Zavadivker, Polly Zavadivker, 2024-10-23 Though the Holocaust has been documented in depth, historians and the public know very little about the experience of Eastern European Jews during the preceding world war. A Nation of Refugees tells the story of how ordinary Jewish people in the Russian Empire survived World War I as refugees and civilians. It focuses on the resilience and organized campaigns of humanitarian war relief that countered violence and victimization. Above all, it captures the voices and experiences of refugees at a time of upheaval and war through first-hand accounts. Modernist Diaspora

Richard D. Sonn, 2022-02-10 In the years before, during, and after the First World War, hundreds of young Jews flocked to Paris, artistic capital of the world and center of modernist experimentation. Some arrived with prior training from art academies in Kraków, Vilna, and Vitebsk; others came armed only with hope and a few memorized phrases in French. They had little Jewish tradition in painting and sculpture to draw on, yet despite these obstacles, these young Jews produced the greatest efflorescence of art in the long history of the Jewish people. The paintings of Marc Chagall, Amedeo Modigliani, Chaim Soutine, Sonia Delaunay, and others, and the sculptures of Jacques Lipchitz, Ossip Zadkine, Chana Orloff, and works by many other artists now grace the world's museums. As the Salon de Paris was the most cosmopolitan artistic movement the world had seen, the left bank neighborhood of Montparnasse became a meeting place for diverse cultures. How did the tolerant bohemian atmosphere of Montparnasse encourage an international style of art in an era of bellicose nationalism, not to mention racism and antisemitism? How did immigrants not only absorb but profoundly influence a culture? This book examines how the clash of cultures produced genius. Joseph Opatoshu Sabine Koller, 2017-12-02

At the turn of the twentieth century, East European Jews underwent a radical cultural transformation which turned a traditional religious community into a modern nation struggling to find its place in the world. An important figure in this Jewish Renaissance was the American Yiddish writer and activist Joseph Opatoshu (1886-1954). Born into a Hassidic family, he spent his early childhood in a forest in Central Poland, was educated in Russia, and studied engineering in France and America. In New York, where he emigrated in 1907, he joined the revitalizing modernist group Di Yunge (The Young). His early novels painted a vivid picture of social turmoil and inner psychological conflict using modernist devices of multiple voices and mixed linguistic idioms. He acquired international fame by his historical novels about the Polish uprising of 1863 and the expulsion of Jews from Regensburg in 1519. Though he was translated into several languages, Yiddish writing always fostered his ideas and ideals of Jewish identity. Although he occupied a key position in the transnational Jewish culture during his lifetime, Opatoshu has until recently been neglected by scholars This volume brings together literary specialists and historians working in Jewish and Slavic Studies who analyse Opatoshu's quest for modern Jewish identity from different perspectives The contributors are Shlomo Berger Amsterdam Marc Caplan Baltimore MD Gennady Estraiikh New York Roland Gruschka Heidelberg Ellie Kellman Boston Sabine Koller Regensburg Mikhail Krutikov Ann Arbor MI Joshua Lambert Amherst MA Harriet Murav Urbana Champaign IL Avrom Novershtern Jerusalem Dan Opatoshu Los Angeles Eugenia Prokop Janiec Krakow Jan Schwarz Lund Astrid Starck Basel Mulhouse Karolina Szymaniak Krakow and Evita Wiecki Munich The Jewish Connection Phyllis Appel, 2013-01-21 Over the centuries the Jewish people have been persecuted and had their beliefs tested in a variety of ways The more than fifty individuals profiled in The Jewish Connection are but a few who overcame challenges to make contributions to society The reader will gain an appreciation of Jewish history and culture by reading the stories of scientists inventors athletes entertainers and others The more than fifty individuals profiled in The Jewish Connection are a small representation of those who overcame challenges to make important contributions The reader will learn the role these men and women played in the American Revolution World Wars I II the Civil War the Women's Rights Movement labor unions and a great deal more
