Philosophical Papers Vol 3 Reason Truth And History:

Lexical Competence Diego Marconi, 1997 Proposes a dual picture of human lexical competence in which inferential and referential abilities are separate Topics discussed in the text include classical issues in the philosophy of language and philosophy of mind such as semantic holism dual factor theories publicness and verificationism The Practice of Language M. Gustafsson, L. Hertzberg, 2013-04-17 How is linguistic theory related to linguistic practice What do theoretical notions and models tell us about real life language use Are there any limits to what such notions and models can reasonably be taken to accomplish These questions are fundamental to any serious investigation into the phenomena of human communication The essays in this book show that philosophers and linguists of quite different brands have tended to give undue priority to their own favourite theoretical framework and have presupposed that the descriptive scheme invoked by that framework constitutes a pattern to which any linguistic practice somehow has to conform What unites the contributors to this volume is a critical attitude towards such essentialist aspirations By investigating several concrete examples of this tendency examples collected from such seemingly disparate areas as structuralism contemporary analytic philosophy and feminist epistemology the authors collectively manage to cast doubt on the very attempt to fit the whole of linguistic practice into a general theoretical mould Contemporary Debates in Metaphysics Theodore Sider, John Hawthorne, Dean W. Zimmerman, 2013-05-20 In a series of thought provoking and original essays eighteen leading philosophers engage in head to head debates of nine of the most cutting edge topics in contemporary metaphysics Explores the fundamental questions in contemporary metaphysics in a series of eighteen original essays 16 of which are newly commissioned for this volume Features an introductory essay by the editors on the nature of metaphysics to prepare the reader for ongoing discussions Offers readers the unique opportunity to observe leading philosophers engage in head to head debate on cutting edge metaphysical topics Provides valuable insights into the flourishing field of contemporary metaphysics Rorty, Religion, and Metaphysics John Owens, 2019-09-05 Believing that humanity would be better off if it simply dropped its traditional religious and metaphysical beliefs Richard Rorty proposes an alternative approach drawn from the American pragmatist tradition where things get their significance against a background of broad human interests and knowledge is regarded as part of the active pursuit of a better world Rorty Religion and Metaphysics argues that while Rorty's case is clearly and robustly made it is fundamentally challenged by the phenomenon of human recognition the relationship that arises between people when they talk to one another John Owens demonstrates that recognition so central to human life cannot be accommodated within Rorty's proposals given that it precisely attributes a reality to others that goes beyond anything a pragmatist framework can offer It follows that there is more to human interaction than can be explained by Rorty's pragmatism Cause, Mind, and Reality J. Heil, 2013-11-11 It is said that there is no progress in philosophy The illusion of standing I still however arises only when we lose sight of our history and so fail to notice the distance we have travelled

Philosophers nowadays find obvious ideas and themes that as it happens emerged slowly and painfully and largely in reaction to prevailing sensibilities The essays here honour a man to whom present day philosophy owes much Charles Burton Martin In reflecting on my own on going and somewhat chaotic philosophical education I find considerable evidence of Charlie Martin s influence After departing graduate school one of the first papers I succeeded in publishing consisted of an attack on Martin and Deutsch s Remembering After that Charlie more or less vanished from my conscious awareness until the winter of 1985 when we appeared together in a colloquium at the Eastern Division meetings of the American Philosophical Association Although Charlie was nominally a commentator on a paper I was delivering his comments contained more philosophy and went considerably beyond the tentative and highly circumscribed thesis I had elected to defend Whereas my focus had been on a tiny feature of Hilary Putnam s argument against realism Charlie went straight for the jugular addressing matters that immediately took us into deep water

Quine Lieven Decock, Leon Horsten, 2000 From the contents Naturalistic epistemology murder and suicide But what about the promises Ton Derksen Naturalism and rationality Christopher Hookway Quine s hypothetical theory of language learning a comparison of different conceptual schemes of their logic Mia Gosselin Quine and innate similarity spaces Jaap van Brakel Quine and Davidson on the structure of empirical knowledge Dirk Koppelberg Empathy and charity Eva Picardi Quine indeterminacy robust realism and truth Sandra Laugier Quine and Putnam on conceptual relativity and reference theft or honest toil Roger Vergauwen

Realism and Explanatory Priority J. Wright, 2013-06-29 One of the central areas of concern in late twentieth century philosophy is the debate between Realism and anti Realism But the precise nature of the issues that form the focus of the debate remains controversial In Realism and Explanatory Priority a new way of viewing the debate is developed The primary focus is not on the notions of existence truth or reference but rather on independence A notion of independence is developed using concepts derived from the theory of explanation It is argued that this approach enables us to clarify the exact nature of the empirical evidence that would be required to establish Realism in any area The author defends a restricted form of Realism which he calls Nomic Structuralism The book will be suitable for professional philosophers of language science and metaphysics and their graduate students

Rerepresentation S. Silvers, 2012-12-06 This collection of papers on issues in the theory of mental representation expresses a diversity of recent reflections on the idea that C D Broad so aptly characterized in the title of his book Mind and the World Order An important impetus in the project of organizing this work were the discussions I had with Keith Lehrer while I was a Visiting Scholar in the department of Philosophy at the University of Arizona His encouragement and friendship were of great value to me and I wish to express my thanks to him here A word of thanks too for Mike Harnish who casually suggested the title Rerepresentation I wish to express my thanks to Hans Schuurmans of the Computer Center at Tilburg University for his patient and cheerful assistance in preparing the manuscript Professor J Verster of the University of Groningen kindly provided the plates for the Ames Room figures Thieu Kuys helped not only with the texts but also relieved me of chores so that I could devote more time to meeting deadlines Barry Mildner had a major role in the text preparation using his skills and initiative in solving what seemed like endless technical problems My deepest thanks are reserved for Anti Sax whose contribution to the project amount to a co editorship of this volume She participated in every phase of its development with valuable suggestions prepared the indexes and worked tirelessly to its completion

Philosophy after Objectivity Paul K. Moser, 1999-10-07 Since the beginning of philosophy philosophers have sought objective knowledge knowledge of things whose existence does not depend on one's conceiving of them This book uses lessons from debates over objective knowledge to characterize the kinds of reasons pertinent to philosophical and other theoretical views It argues that we cannot meet skeptics typical demands for nonquestion begging support for claims to objective truth and that therefore we should not regard our supporting reasons as resistant to skeptical challenges One key lesson is that a constructive explanatory approach to philosophy must change the subject from skeptic resistant reasons to perspectival reasons arising from variable semantic commitments and instrumental purpose relative considerations The book lays foundations for such a reorientation of philosophy treating fundamental methodological issues in ontology epistemology the theory of meaning the philosophy of mind and the theory of practical rationality It explains how certain perennial debates in philosophy rest not on genuine disagreement but on conceptual diversity talk about different matters The book shows how acknowledgment of conceptual diversity can resolve a range of traditional disputes in philosophy It also explains why philosophers need not anchor their discipline in the physicalism of the natural sciences

Skepticism about the External World Panayot Butchvarov, 1998 Do we know or even have evidence that external material objects exist Drawing powerfully on techniques from both analytic and continental philosophy Butchvarov offers a strikingly original approach to this perennial issue He argues that only a direct realist view of perception the view that in perception we are directly aware of material objects has any hope of providing a compelling response to the skeptic The seemingly insuperable problem for direct realism has always been to explain hallucination dreaming and other situations where the object of awareness is not a really existing physical object This has led many philosophers to adopt views in which perceptual consciousness involves a subjective state that is the direct object of awareness Butchvarov argues persuasively that all such views are helpless in the face of the skeptic's arguments His radical innovation is to insist that the direct object of perceptual and even dreaming and hallucinatory experience is usually a material object but not necessarily one that actually exists This leads to a sophisticated metaphysics in which reality is ultimately constructed by human decisions out of objects that are ontologically more basic but which cannot be said in themselves to be either real or unreal Butchvarov's ingenious approach to a longstanding philosophical issue as well as the extensive range of his references to traditional and contemporary discussions of the topic makes Skepticism about the External World a thrilling and essential book for philosophers and philosophically minded readers

Art in the Social Order Preben Mortensen, 1997-03-20 Seeks to replace the dominant approaches to the question of the nature of art in contemporary English speaking analytic philosophy with a historicist approach that emphasizes localized cultural historical narratives

Philosophy of Language Susana Nuccetelli, Gary Seay, 2007-12-24 This collection of classic and contemporary essays in philosophy of language offers a concise introduction to the field for students in graduate and upper division undergraduate courses It contains some of the most important basic sources in philosophy of language including a number of classic essays by philosophers such as Frege Russell Wittgenstein Kripke Grice Davidson Strawson Austin and Putnam as well as more recent contributions by scholars including John McDowell Stephen Neale Ruth Millikan Stephen Schiffer Paul Horwich and Anthony Brueckner among others who are on the leading edge of innovation in this increasingly influential area of philosophy The result is a lively mix of readings together with the editors discussions of the material which provides a rigorous introduction to the subject

Jorge Luis Borges, Post-Analytic Philosophy, and Representation Silvia G. Dapía, 2015-08-20 Making an important contribution to studies in Literature and Philosophy this book reads Jorge Luis Borges philosophically particularly in reference to his use of representation and reality Rather than attempting to subordinate Borges to a set of philosophical constructs to reduce Borges texts to mere exemplifications or illustrations of philosophical theories the book uses Borges s short stories to demonstrate how philosophical questions related to representation develop out of literature and actually serve as precursors to the various strains of post analytic philosophy that later developed in the United States The volume discusses American post analytic philosophers Richard Rorty Hilary Putnam Donald Davidson Nelson Goodman and Arthur Danto as well as a wide ranging set of philosophical ideas including reflections on Keynes Hayek Schopenhauer and many others Chapters offer detailed readings of Borges texts extending from 1939 to 1983 locating where he thematizes issues of representation and pursuing the logic of Borges's text toward its philosophical implications without neglecting their literary value. The book argues that Borges's exploration of the relationship between representation and reality places him unmistakably in the position of a precursor to the post-analytic philosophers. Illuminating the role that language plays in the creation of reality and representation, this volume makes significant contributions not only to Borges scholarship but also to post-structuralism, post-analytic studies of language, semiotics, comparative literature, and Latin American literature.

Rationality, Relativism and the Human Sciences Joseph Margolis, A.S. Krausz, R. Burian, 2012-12-06

The Greater Philadelphia Philosophy Consortium was launched in the early eighties. It began during a particularly lean period in the American economy. But its success is linked as much to the need to be in touch with the rapidly changing currents of the philosophical climate as with the need to insure an adequately stocked professional community in the Philadelphia area faced perhaps permanently with the threat of increasing attrition. The member schools of the Consortium now include Bryn Mawr College, the University of Pennsylvania, Temple University, and Villanova University—that is, the schools of the area that offer advanced degrees in philosophy. The philosophy faculties of these schools form the core of the Consortium, which offers graduate students the instructional and library facilities of each member school. The Consortium is also supported by the associated faculties of other regional schools that do not offer advanced degrees, notably those at Drexel University, Haverford College, La Salle University, and Swarthmore College, both philosophers and members of other departments as well as interested and professionally qualified persons from the entire region. The affiliated and core professionals now number several hundreds, and the Consortium's various ventures have been received most enthusiastically by the academic community. At this moment the Consortium is planning its fifth year of what it calls the Conferences on the Philosophy of the Human Studies.
