Philosophies Of Integration Immigration And The Idea Of Citizenship In France And Britain:

Philosophies of Integration Adrian Favell, 2001 The Politics of Citizenship in Europe Marc Morjé Howard, 2009-09-07

In this book Howard addresses immigrant integration one of the most critical challenges facing European countries the resolution of which will in large part depend on how foreigners can become citizens Howard's research shows that despite remarkable convergence in their economic judicial and social policies the countries of the European Union still maintain very different definitions of citizenship Based on an innovative measure of national citizenship policies the book accounts for both historical variation and contemporary change Howard's historical explanation highlights the legacies of colonialism and early democratization which unintentionally created relatively inclusive citizenship regimes Howard's argument focuses on the politics of citizenship showing in particular how anti immigrant public opinion when activated politically usually by far right movements or public referenda can block the liberalizing tendencies of political elites Overall the book shows the far reaching implications of this growing and volatile issue Migration and the New Technological Borders of Europe H. Dijstelbloem, A. Meijer, 2011-02-01 European borders that aim to control migration and mobility increasingly rely on technology to distinguish between citizens and aliens This book explores new tensions in Europe between states and citizens and between politics technology and human rights Labour Migration in Europe G. Menz, A. Caviedes, 2010-10-27

Examining the new realities of economic immigration to Europe this book focuses on new trends and developments including the rediscovery of economic migration legalization measures irregular migration East West flows the role of business and employer associations new positions amongst trade unions and service sector liberalization Debating Turkey in Europe Caner Tekin, 2019-12-16 In contemporary history a much debated issue has been whether European nations have a common identity and what relevance the European Union has for a shared definition of Europeanness The present book examines the link between historical conceptions of Europe and the contestations over Turkey's compatibility with the European Union during the 2000s Integrating Immigrants in Europe Peter Scholten, Han Entzinger, Rinus Penninx, Stijn

Verbeek, 2015-06-02 This open access book explores how research and policymaking in the field of migrant integration have developed historically and how this interrelationship plays out in the strongly politicised climate of opinions on migration in Europe It features interdisciplinary theoretical contributions as well as original empirical studies on research policy dialogues at both the EU and country level The chapters study not only how the dialogue between research and policy is structured such as advisory bodies research agencies and ad hoc committees but also how these dialogues affect policymaking and the development of migrant integration research itself as well The analysis reveals profound changes in the dialogue structures associated with the research policy nexus in the domain of migrant integration On the one hand dialogue structures have become more ad hoc often established in response to distinct political events or to specific problems On the other politicisation has not thwarted all efforts to develop more institutionalised dialogue structures between producers and users of knowledge In addition research has contributed to policymaking in very different ways in various European countries This edited volume is unique in this effort to reflect on the impact of research policy dialogues both on the development of migrant integration policies as well as on migrant integration research It will be of importance to scholars in this field as well as to policymakers and other stakeholders involved in migrant integration policymaking

Muslim Europe or Euro-Islam Manuel Castells, Nezar AlSayyad, 2002-04-03 Five centuries after the expulsion of Muslims and Jews from Spain Europe is once again becoming a land of Islam At the beginning of a new millennium and in an era marked as one of globalization Europe continues to wrestle with the issue of national identity especially in the context of its Muslim citizens Muslim Europe or Euro Islam brings together distinguished scholars from Europe the United States and the Middle East in a dynamic discussion about the Muslim populations living in Europe and about Europe's role in framing Islam today The book raises several crucial questions Does Islam offer a special case for citizenship Is assimilation or multiculturalism the model to be followed in the case of Muslims in Europe How powerful a force is Islam in determining identity And why is Islam after centuries of being a presence in Europe not considered a European religion Working at the knotty intersection of cultural identity the politics of nations and nationalisms and religious persuasions this is an invaluable anthology of scholarship that reveals the multifaceted natures of both Europe and Islam

Beyond Fragmentation and Interconnectivity H.J.M. Fenger, V.J.J.M. Bekkers, Menno Fenger, 2012-01-27 The public sector may be considered as a highly fragmented and at the same time enormously interconnected system Resources are dispersed among a huge variety of actors and entities and these affect each other in many unexpected ways This book analyses the apparently paradoxical occurrence of simultaneous fragmentation and interconnectivity within the public domain and reflects on its consequences for public governance and management It discusses and assesses strategies to create connective capacities from different policy domains and countries and offers new insights in the complexity of public governance About the Editors Menno Fenger is associate professor in public administration at Erasmus University Rotterdam He has published widely on issues of public governance and implementation specifically in the area of social policies Victor Bekkers is professor of public administration at Erasmus University Rotterdam and academic director of the Center for Public Innovation He specializes in the impact of information and communication technology including social media on public governance He is the author of numerous books and articles on this topic

Potter, 2022-06-01 Connected Empires Connected Worlds Essays in Honour of John Darwin contains diverse essays on the expansion experience and decline of empires The volume is offered in honour of John Darwin s contribution to the study of empire and its endings Written by his former students and colleagues the book s chapters discuss topics from the nineteenth twentieth and twenty first centuries While each author has contributed according to their expertise they also reflect on how John s ideas and approaches continue to stimulate new work in disparate fields Touching on the experience of empire in Europe Africa Asia and Australasia the authors have engaged with concepts from across Darwin s writings including his earlier work on decolonisation decline and the dynamics of territorial expansion As such the work in this volume operates across a number of different scales of analysis from case studies of transnational communities state formation and military intervention to imperial politics inter imperial comparison and global historical frameworks The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of The Journal of Imperial and Commonwealth History The Politics of International Migration Management M. Geiger, A. Péroud, 2010-10-13 Throughout the world governments and intergovernmental organizations such as the International Organization for Migration are developing new approaches aimed at renewing migration policy making This book now in paperback critically analyzes the actors discourses and practices of migration management Critical Republicanism Cécile Laborde, 2008-10-09 Critical Republicanism proposes an entirely new approach to the management of religious and cultural pluralism based on the pursuit of the progressive ideal of non domination in existing non ideal societies BOOK JACKET

Muslim Communities in England 1962-90 Jed Fazakarley, 2017-07-10 This book analyses Muslim integration into English society from the 1960s to the 1990s The author argues that contrary to common narratives built around a sudden transformation during the Rushdie affair religious identity was of great importance to English Muslims throughout this period The study also considers what the experiences of Muslim communities tell us about British multiculturalism With chapters which consider English Muslim experiences in education employment and social services British multiculturalism is shown to be a capacious artifice variegated across and within localities and resistant to periodization It is understood as positing separate ethnic communities and serving these communities with special provisions aimed ultimately at integration It is argued moreover to have developed its own momentum limiting the efficacy of 21st century backlashes against it Muslim Communities in England 1962-90 will be of interest to students and scholars across a range of disciplines including sociology history and politics Dual Nationality, Social Rights and Federal Citizenship in the U.S. and Europe Randall Hansen, Patrick Weil, 2002 Dual nationality is a contentious issue in both the US and Europe Contending that theirs is the first volume since Bar Yaacov s 1961 book to focus primarily on this topic rather than simply on citizenship Hansen politics Oxford U and Weil Centre for Research on the History of Social Movements and Trade Unionism Paris I Sorbonne introduce the pro and con arguments in historical and normative contexts In 13 chapters scholars examine the problems and possibilities of dual citizenship in Germany the UK France and North America and the related issues of gender and social rights European Union citizenship and the overlooked question in nationality law of nationality within a federation Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Race and Nation Paul Spickard,2005-07-08 Race and Nation is the first book to compare the racial and ethnic systems that have developed around the world It is the creation of nineteen scholars who are experts on locations as far flung as China Jamaica Eritrea Brazil Germany Punjab and South Africa The contributing historians sociologists anthropologists political scientists and scholars of literary and cultural studies have engaged in an ongoing conversation honing a common set of questions that dig to the heart of racial and ethnic groups and systems Guided by those questions they have created the first book that explores the similarities differences and the relationships among the ways that race and ethnicity have worked in the modern world In so doing they have created a model for how to write world history that is detailed in its expertise yet also manages broad comparisons Understanding Global Migration James F. Hollifield,Neil Foley,2022-03-01 Understanding Global Migration offers scholars a groundbreaking account of emerging migration states around the globe especially in the Global South Leading scholars of migration have collaborated to provide a birds eye view of migration interdependence Understanding Global Migration proposes a new typology of migration states identifying multiple ideal types beyond the classical liberal type Much of the world s migration has been to countries in Asia Africa the Middle East and South America The authors assembled here account for diverse histories of colonialism development and identity in shaping migration policy This book provides a truly global look at the dilemmas of migration governance Will migration be destabilizing or will it lead to greater openness and human development The answer depends on the capacity of states to manage migration especially their willingness to respect the rights of the ever growing portion of the world s population that is on the move Racial Discrimination Masoud Kamali,2010-08-18 There is an institutionalized dilemma in Europe that counteracts social cohesion and stability It is a result of the collision and incompatibility between declarations of universal values such as human rights and democracy and institutionalized actions which exclude and discriminate against Europeans of immigrant background and against ethnic minorities This book analyzes the institutional patterns and politics of racial discrimination in modern day Europe Based on a research project that has been carried out under the leadership of the author in eight European countries Racial Discrimination seeks the answers to some of the key questions posed by the latest developments in European political and public spheres concerning immigration and the increase in xenophobic sentiments and parties The book will appeal to all social and political scientists interested in the latest political developments in Europe and in the problems of democratic citizenship and the efforts to move toward an integrated European community Handbook on Migration and Human Rights Ruth Rubio Marín,Dorothy Estrada-Tanck,Benedita Menezes Queiroz,Fulvia Staiano,2025-09-10 This Research Handbook examines the complex issues faced by migrants and refugees in securing their human rights By challenging and reformulating the crisis narrative often perpetuated by states and international organizations it provides a gendered cutting edge in depth investigation of key themes central to the human rights implications of migration The Crisis of Multiculturalism in Europe Rita Chin, 2019-06-11 From the influx of immigrants in the 1950s to contemporary worries about refugees and terrorism The Crisis of Multiculturalism in Europe examines the historical development of multiculturalism on the Continent Rita Chin argues that there were few efforts to institute state sponsored policies of multiculturalism and those that emerged were pronounced failures virtually from their inception She shows that today's crisis of support for cultural pluralism isn't new but actually has its roots in the 1980s Chin looks at the touchstones of European multiculturalism from the urgent need for laborers after World War II to the public furor over the publication of The Satanic Verses and the question of French girls wearing headscarves to school While many Muslim immigrants had lived in Europe for decades in the 1980s they came to be defined by their religion and the public's preoccupation with gender relations Acceptance of sexual equality became the critical gauge of Muslims' compatibility with Western values The convergence of left and right around the defense of such personal freedoms against a putatively illiberal Islam has threatened to undermine commitment to pluralism as a core ideal Chin contends that renouncing the principles of diversity brings social costs particularly for the left and she considers how Europe might construct an effective political engagement with its varied population Publisher web site

The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
