The Palgrave Handbook of the Philosophy of Film and Motion Pictures Noël Carroll, Laura T. Di Summa, Shawn Loht, 2019-10-30 This handbook brings together essays in the philosophy of film and motion pictures from authorities across the spectrum. It boasts contributions from philosophers and film theorists alike, with many essays employing pluralist approaches to this interdisciplinary subject. Core areas treated include film ontology, film structure, psychology, authorship, narrative and viewer emotion Emerging areas of interest including virtual reality video games and nonfictional and autobiographical film also have dedicated chapters Other areas of focus include the film medium's intersection with contemporary social issues film's kinship to other art forms and the influence of historically seminal schools of thought in the philosophy of film Of emphasis in many of the essays is the relationship and overlap of analytic and continental perspectives in this subject

New Philosophies of Film Robert Sinnerbrink, 2011-10-13 This is a critical exploration of analytic and Continental philosophies of film which puts film philosophy into practice with detailed discussions of three filmmakers The book includes philosophical readings of three key contemporary filmmakers Malick Lynch and Von Trier It also features links to online resources guides to further reading and a filmography

Robert Pippin and Film Dominic Lash, 2022-02-10 Robert Pippin 1948 is a major figure in contemporary philosophy having published influential work on thinkers including Kant Hegel and Nietzsche He is also an original thinker about and critic of film who has written books and numerous articles on canonical subjects such as the Western Film Noir and Hitchcock's Vertigo In Robert Pippin and Film Dominic Lash demonstrates the ways that film has been crucial to Pippin's thought on important philosophical topics such as political psychology ethics and self knowledge He also explores the implications of Pippin's methodological commitments to clear language and to maintaining close contact with the details of the films in question In so doing Lash brings Pippin's work on film to a wider audience and contributes to current debates both within film studies and beyond This includes those concerning the relationships between film and philosophy criticism and aesthetics and individual subjectivity and political consciousness Lash focuses on Pippin's major works on film Hollywood Westerns and American Myth 2010 Fatalism in American Film Noir 2012 The Philosophical Hitchcock 2017 and Filmed Thought 2020 as well as his many shorter writings on film

Contemporary Moral and Social Issues, 2014-03-17 Contemporary Moral and Social Issues is a uniquely entertaining introduction that brings ethical thought to life It makes innovative use of engaging topically oriented original short fiction together with classic and influential readings and editorial discussion as a means of helping students think philosophically about ethical theory and practical ethical problems Introduces students to ethical theory and a range of practical moral issues through a combination of key primary texts clear editorial commentary and engaging original fiction Includes discussion of topics such as world poverty abortion animals the environment and genetic engineering containing Facts and Factual Issues for each topic to give students an up to date understanding of related factual issues Uses immersive original short works of fiction as a means to engage students to think philosophically about serious ethical issues Sample Course Framework available The Routledge Encyclopedia of Film Theory Edward Branigan, Warren Buckland, 2013-12-04 The Routledge Encyclopedia of Film Theory is an international reference work representing the essential ideas and concepts at the centre of film theory from the beginning of the twentieth century to the beginning of the twenty first When first encountering film theory students are often confronted with a dense interlocking set of texts full of arcane terminology inexact formulations sliding definitions and abstract generalities The Routledge Encyclopedia of Film Theory challenges these first impressions by aiming to make film theory accessible and open to new readers Edward Branigan and Warren Buckland have commissioned over 50 scholars from around the globe to address the difficult formulations and propositions in each theory by reducing these difficult formulations to straightforward propositions The result is a highly accessible volume that clearly defines and analyzes step by step many of the fundamental concepts in film theory ranging from familiar concepts such as Apparatus Gaze Genre and Identification to less well known and understood but equally important concepts such as Alain Badiou's Inaesthetics Gilles Deleuze's Time Image and Jean Luc Nancy's Evidence The Routledge Encyclopedia of Film Theory is an ideal reference book for undergraduates of film studies as well as graduate students new to the discipline The Anthem Handbook of Screen Theory Hunter Vaughan, Tom Conley, 2018-07-30 The Anthem Handbook of Screen Theory offers a unique and progressive survey of screen theory and how it can be applied to a range of moving image texts and sociocultural contexts Focusing on the handbook angle the book includes only original essays from established authors in the field and new scholars on the cutting edge of helping screen theory evolve for the twenty first century vistas of new media social shifts and geopolitical change This method guarantees a strong foundation and clarity for the canon of film theory while also situating it as part of a larger genealogy of art theories and critical thought and reveals the relevance and utility of film theories and concepts to a wide array of expressive practices and specified arguments The Anthem Handbook of Screen Theory is at once inclusive applicable and a chance for writers to innovate and really play with where they think the field is can and should be heading Film Theory: The Basics Kevin McDonald, 2022-05-11 Fully updated and expanded throughout this second edition of Film Theory The Basics provides an accessible introduction to the key theorists concepts and debates that have shaped the study of moving images The book examines film theory from its emergence in the early twentieth century to its study in the present day and explores why film has drawn special attention as a medium as a form of representation and as a focal point in the rise of modern visual culture It also emphasizes how film theory has developed as a historically contingent discourse one that has evolved and changed in conjunction with different social political and intellectual factors This second edition offers a detailed account of new theoretical directions at the forefront of film studies in the twenty first century and draws additional attention to how theory engages with today's most pressing questions about digital technologies the environment and racial justice Complete with questions for discussion and a glossary of both key terms and key theorists this book is an invaluable resource for those new to film theory and for anyone else interested in the history and significance of critical thinking in relation to the moving image Introducing Philosophy Through Film Richard Fumerton, Diane Jeske, 2009-04-20

Introducing Philosophy through Film Introducing Philosophy Through Film is a truly wonderful introduction to the core problems of philosophy Its combination of great films classic articles from both historical and contemporary philosophers wonderfully clear introductions to each section and provocative questions for discussion make for an introduction that is as compelling as it is rigorous Richard Foley New York University Fumerton and Jeske have compiled an excellent anthology filled with dozens of classic texts on the central problems of philosophy most often addressed in introductory philosophy courses And the films they suggest will help introduce students to philosophy in the most enjoyable way possible Michael Huemer University of Colorado From Monty Python and The Matrix to Casablanca and A Clockwork Orange popular films offer surprisingly perceptive insights into complex philosophical concepts Introducing Philosophy Through Film combines this novel pedagogical approach with all the virtues of a serious introductory anthology of classical and contemporary philosophical readings The result is an engaging and effective way to fire the imagination of those new to philosophy Drawing on a wide range of popular and easily accessible films along with the ideas of a diverse selection of historical and contemporary thinkers this book introduces many of the central areas of philosophical concern including perception philosophy of mind ethics religion free will determinism and more Chapter by chapter the editors offer a discussion of relevant film clips to help illuminate and demystify the philosophical arguments and positions raised in the anthology's readings By merging the cinematic and philosophical worlds Introducing Philosophy Through Film provides a uniquely effective way for beginning students to engage with philosophy and gain insights into the human mind Philosophy and Film Christina Rawls, Diana Neiva, Steven S. Gouveia, 2019-04-25 This volume collects twenty original essays on the philosophy of film It uniquely brings together scholars working across a range of philosophical traditions and academic disciplines to broaden and advance debates on film and philosophy The book includes contributions from a number of prominent philosophers of film including Noël Carroll Chris Falzon Deborah Knight Paisley Livingston Robert Sinnerbrink Malcolm Turvey and Thomas Wartenberg While the topics explored by the contributors are diverse there are a number of thematic threads that connect them Overall the book seeks to bridge analytic and continental approaches to philosophy of film in fruitful ways Moving to the individual essays the first two sections offer novel takes on the philosophical value and the nature of film The next section focuses on the film as philosophy debate Section IV covers cinematic experience while Section V includes interpretations of individual films that touch on questions of artificial intelligence race and film and cinema's biopolitical potential Finally the last section proposes new avenues for future research on the moving image beyond film This book will appeal to a broad range of scholars working in film studies theory and philosophy Existentialist Cinema W. Pamerleau, 2009-03-31 An exploration of the relationship between cinema and existentialism in terms of their mutual ability to describe the human condition this book combines analyses of topics in the philosophy of film with an exploration of specific existentialist themes expressed in the films of Fellini Bergman and Woody Allen among others European Film Theory Temenuga Trifonova, 2009-09-10 European Film Theory explores the Europeanness of European film theory its philosophical origins the culture wars between Continental and Analytical film theory and philosophy the major discursive and epistemological shifts in the history of Continental film theory the relationship between Continental philosophy of art and philosophy of history and European film theory Writing from a range of disciplines and perspectives the contributors to this new volume in the AFI FILM READERS series offer fresh interpretations of European film theorists and illuminate the political potential of European film theory Narrative, Film, and Identity William Pamerleau, 2024-10-21 Our identities are shaped by narratives and cinema contributes to that process While there is substantial scholarship on both narrative identity and film narrative there is very little investigation of the intersection between them This book provides that with particular attention to how the interaction between film narratives and life narratives affect the meaning of life Traditional issues like spectator activity and realism appear in a different light when viewed through this interaction It also reveals how film can both help and hinder the meaning of our lives by sustaining oppressive narratives or promoting new narrative possibilities Thinking Film Richard Kearney, Murray Littlejohn, 2023-06-29 Hailed as one of America's original art forms film has the distinctive character of crossing high and low art But film has done more than this According to American philosopher Stanley Cavell film was also a place where America in the 1930s and 1940s did its thinking a tradition that was taken up and enriched throughout world cinema Can film indeed think That is can film do the work of philosophy Following Cavell's lead to think along the tear of the analytic continental traditions this book draws from both sides of the philosophical divide to reflect on this question Spanning generations and disciplines pondering everything from art house classics to mainstream blockbusters Thinking Film Philosophy at the Movies aims to fling open the doors to this conversation on all sides Inquiring into both philosophy's word on film and film's word to philosophy the interdisciplinary dialogue of this book traverses the conceptual and the particular as it considers how film catalyzes our thinking and sets us talking After viewing the world through film we find our world and ourselves transformed by deeper understanding and new possibilities This book aims to provide a novel and engaging way in to thinking with and about this enduringly popular art form The Oxford Handbook of Aesthetics Jerrold Levinson, 2003-04-03 The Oxford Handbook of Aesthetics The most comprehensive and authoritative guide available What Film Is Good For Julian Hanich, Martin P. Rossouw, 2023-09-05 For well over a century going to the movies has been a favorite pastime for billions across the globe But is film actually good for anything This volume brings together thirty six scholars critics and filmmakers in search of an answer Their responses range from the most personal to the most theoretical and together recast current debates about film ethics Movie watching here emerges as a wellspring of value able to sustain countless visions of the good life Films these authors affirm make us reflect connect adapt they evoke wonder and beauty they challenge and transform In a word its varieties of value make film invaluable

Philosophical Reflections on Black Mirror Dan Shaw, Kingsley Marshall, James Rocha, 2021-12-16 Black Mirror is a cultural phenomenon It is a creative and sometimes shocking examination of modern society and the improbable consequences of technological progress The episodes typically set in an alternative present or the near future usually have a dark and satirical twist that provokes intense question both of the self and society at large These kind of philosophical provocations are at the very heart of the show Philosophical reflections on Black Mirror draws upon thinkers such as Friedrich Nietzsche Pierre Hadot and Michel Foucault to uncover how Black Mirror acts as philosophical television questioning human morality and humanity's vulnerability when faced with the inexorable advance of technology
