Philosophy Through Fiction And Film:

Philosophy Through Fiction and Film Burton F. Porter, 2004 For Introduction to Philosophy courses or for courses in Humanities and Philosophy in and of Literature Philosophy Through Fiction and Film offers a fresh approach to philosophy using literary and film narratives along with standard philosophic works to introduce students to the basic branches of the field The fiction and film enliven the philosophic issues tapping into today's cultural experience and the philosophic works ground the issues showing their deeper significance At the same time the fundamental issues of philosophy are covered to provide a complete introduction to the field

Philosophy through Film Amy Karofsky, Mary M. Litch, 2014-07-11 Many of the classic questions of philosophy have been raised illuminated and addressed in celluloid In this Third Edition of Philosophy through Film Mary M Litch teams up with a new co author Amy Karofsky to show readers how to watch films with a sharp eye for their philosophical content Together the authors help students become familiar with key topics in all of the major areas in Western philosophy and master the techniques of philosophical argumentation The perfect size and scope for a first course in philosophy the book assumes no prior knowledge of philosophy It is an excellent teaching resource and learning tool introducing students to key topics and figures in philosophy through thematic chapters each of which is linked to one or more focus films that illustrate a philosophical problem or topic Revised and expanded the Third Edition features A completely revised chapter on Relativism now re titled Truth with coverage of the correspondence theory the pragmatist theory and the coherence theory The addition of four new focus films Inception Moon Gone Baby Gone God on Trial Revisions to the General Introduction that include a discussion of critical reasoning Revisions to the primary readings to better meet the needs of instructors and students including the addition of three new primary readings excerpts from Bertrand Russell's The Problems of Philosophy from William James Pragmatism A New Way for Some Old Ways of Thinking and from J L Mackie's Evil and Omnipotence Updates and expansion to the companion website including a much expanded list of films relevant to the various subfields of philosophy Films examined in depth include Hilary and Jackie The Matrix Inception Memento Moon I Robot Minority Report Crimes and Misdemeanors Gone Baby Gone Antz Equilibrium The Seventh Seal God on Trial Leaving Las Vegas

Awakening through Literature and Film Jae-seong Lee, 2021-04-16 In order to deeply understand a work of literature or film one requires the emotional and spiritual experience of the sublime aesthetic power through which one may glimpse the ultimate reality as well as the thematic approach This book mainly from the perspective of literary criticism of postmodern ethics and kongan koan hwadu Ch'an Seon and Zen Buddhism guides the reader to not simply follow the conventional thematic approach but to catch nondual spiritual feelings while appreciating a given work Through a meditative state the reading or watching of such work would ultimately be a way of questing for spiritual enlightenment

Acting and Performance in Moving Image Culture Jörg Sternagel, Deborah Levitt, Dieter Mersch, 2014-03-15 This volume offers transdisciplinary perspectives on the study of acting and performance in moving image forms It assembles 26 international scholars from dance theatre film media and cultural studies art history and philosophy to investigate the art of acting and the presence of the human body in analog and digital film animation and video art The volume includes classical case studies and essays devoted to acting history and acting and genres but its particular emphasis is on introducing a wide range of groundbreaking theoretical approaches from continental and analytic philosophy to new media theory and cognitivist research all of which interrogate the fundamental conceptions of act and actor that underwrite both popular and academic notions of performance in moving image culture

Fictional Worlds and Philosophical Reflection Garry
Hagberg, 2022-01-31 This edited collection investigates the kinds of philosophical reflection we can undertake in the imaginative worlds of literature Opening with a look into the relations between philosophical thought and literary interpretation the volume proceeds through absorbing discussions of the ways we can see life through the lens of literature the relations between philosophical saying and literary showing and some ways we can see the literary past philosophically and assess its significance for the present Taken as a whole the volume shows how imagined contexts can be a source of knowledge a source of conceptual clarification and a source of insight and understanding And because philosophical thinking is undertaken after all in words a heightened sensitivity to the precise employments of our words particularly philosophically central words such as truth reality perception knowledge selfhood illusion understanding falsehood can bring a clarity and a refreshed sense of the life that our words take on in fully described contexts of usage And in these imagined contexts we can also see more acutely and deeply into the meaning of words about words metaphor and figurative tropes verbal coherence intelligibility implication sense and indeed the word meaning itself Moving from a philosophical issue into a literary world in which the central concepts of that issue are in play can thus enrich our comprehension of those concepts and in the strongest cases substantively change the way we see them With a combination of conceptual acuity and literary sensitivity this volume maps out some of the territory that philosophical reflection and literary engagement share

The Matrix in Theory
, 2016-08-01 The Matrix trilogy continues to split opinions widely polarising the downright dismissive and the wildly enthusiastic Nevertheless it has been fully embraced as a rich source of theoretical and cultural references The contributions in this volume probe the effects the Matrix trilogy continues to provoke and evaluate how or to what extent they coincide with certain developments within critical and cultural theory Is the enthusiastic philosophising and theorising spurred by the Matrix a sign of the desperate state theory is in in the sense of see how low theory or post theory has sunk Or could the Matrix be one of the master texts for something like a renewal for theory as now being mainly concerned with new and changing relations between science technology posthumanist culture art politics ethics and the media The present volume is unashamedly but not dogmatically theoretical even though there is not much agreement about what kind of theory is best suited to confront post theoretical times But it is probably fair to say that there is agreement about one thing namely that if theory appears to be like the Matrix today it does so because the culture around it and which made it itself seems to be captured in some kind of Matrix The only way out of this is through more and renewed refreshed theorising not less

Science Wars through the Stargate Steven Gil, 2015-10-08 The story of an elite team of scientists and soldiers who travel to other worlds through an alien built portal Stargate SG 1 gave its viewers a weekly dose of spectacle and high adventure Over its ten season run 1997 2007 the series explored the interactions of the scientific and military cultures represented by its characters as well as the place of science in society The initial airing of Stargate SG 1 coincided with the Science Wars a highly public clash among scholars and public intellectuals over the nature and value of scientific knowledge Critics of science argued that it was merely one form of knowledge among many subject to biases and blind spots imposed by the culture in which it was created Defenders of science mostly scientists themselves contended that it possessed a unique ability to uncover universal truths and thus was uniquely valuable to society In Science Wars through the Stargate Explorations of Science and Society in Stargate SG 1 Steven Gil offers the first in depth analysis of the series and places it in the context of contemporary debates about the nature of scientific thought Gil contends that representations of science within SG 1 can be more fully understood through the prism of the Science Wars Scientific ideas put forth in SG 1 demonstrate how such complex intellectual exchanges and debates have a place in popular culture and can be further understood through these fictional articulations Although SG 1 serves as the principal case study the analysis also casts light on the role and position of science in science fiction television more generally The long form narrative of Stargate SG 1 enabled it to engage in sophisticated ways with many of the questions at issue in the Science Wars As the author illustrates the show presented a complex sophisticated portrait of science and scientists at a time when the scientific enterprise was under intense public scrutiny Science Wars through the Stargate will be of interest to science fiction scholars and fans of the series but also to those interested in the public s evolving understanding of science and its role in society

Thinking on Screen Thomas E. Wartenberg, 2007-10-31 Thinking on Screen Film as Philosophy is an accessible and thought provoking examination of the way films raise and explore complex philosophical ideas Written in a clear and engaging style Thomas Wartenberg examines films ability to discuss and even criticize ideas that have intrigued and puzzled philosophers over the centuries such as the nature of personhood the basis of morality and epistemological skepticism Beginning with a demonstration of how specific forms of philosophical discourse are presented cinematically Wartenberg moves on to offer a systematic account of the ways in which specific films undertake the task of philosophy Focusing on the films The Man Who Shot Liberty Valance Modern Times The Matrix Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind The Third Man The Flicker and Empire Wartenberg shows how these films express meaningful and pertinent philosophical ideas This book is essential reading for students of philosophy with an interest in film aesthetics and film theory It will also be of interest to film enthusiasts intrigued by the philosophical implications of film

New Philosophies of Film Robert Sinnerbrink, 2011-10-13 A concise but comprehensive student guide to studying Emily Bronte s classic novel Wuthering Heights It covers adaptations

such as film and TV versions of the novel and student friendly features include discussion points and a comprehensive guide to further reading

The Philosophical Novel as a Literary Genre Michael H. Mitias, 2022-03-11 This book examines the conceptual existential and logical conditions under which the philosophical novel can be treated as a literary genre on a par with generally recognized literary genres such as mystery romantic adventure religious or historical novel Michael H Mitias argues that the philosophical novel meets these conditions He advances a detailed analysis of the concept of literary genre and discusses the reasons which justify the claim that philosophical novel is a distinct literary genre This is based on the assumption that philosophical ideas can be communicated metaphorically An analysis of this assumption necessarily leads to a detailed discussion of the concept of metaphor and the extent to which it can be the vehicle of communicating philosophical truth

Philosophical Perspective on Cinema Pedro Blas González, 2022-05-17 The main premise of Philosophical Perspective on Cinema is simple Can a visual medium such as cinema put in greater perspective diverse aspects of human experience Films are usually sorted by genres but by applying metaphysical existential categories to cinema the author enables readers to reflect on the nature and essence of existence by making life appear less transparent to itself Undoubtedly the connection between sensual reality and philosophical reflection is often glossed over when the emphasis is placed on theoretical abstractions and not life itself While this work is a reflection on the philosophy of existence the author embraces a practical approach to the metaphysical existential foundation of human existence

The Palgrave Handbook of the Philosophy of Film and Motion Pictures Noël Carroll, Laura T. Di Summa, Shawn Loht, 2019-10-30 This handbook brings together essays in the philosophy of film and motion pictures from authorities across the spectrum It boasts contributions from philosophers and film theorists alike with many essays employing pluralist approaches to this interdisciplinary subject Core areas treated include film ontology film structure psychology authorship narrative and viewer emotion Emerging areas of interest including virtual reality video games and nonfictional and autobiographical film also have dedicated chapters Other areas of focus include the film medium's intersection with contemporary social issues film's kinship to other art forms and the influence of historically seminal schools of thought in the philosophy of film Of emphasis in many of the essays is the relationship and overlap of analytic and continental perspectives in this subject

The Great Perhaps Burton F. Porter, 2015-04-16 God created man in his own image but did man perhaps return the compliment The question of God's existence has been a pivotal issue for every civilization Those with faith in God want assurance that their belief is justified and atheists want confirmation that God is nowhere to be found When we reflect on religion we want to know the reasons for belief in God or whether belief is only a comforting delusion In an age of science will religion persist or will it be edged out of our consciousness and become a historical curiosity Burton Porter approaches the notion of God in an open yet critical way examining the argumentation used by centuries of human society to support or reject the existence of God With minimum assumptions and maximum objectivity Porter debates whether the religious view does in fact diagram reality He examines the roles that God and religion have played in the ethics art and actions of many diverse cultures to conclude that at the very least the consideration of the existence of a higher power is fundamental to us all

Visions of Womanhood in Contemporary African Literature Blessing Diala-Ogamba, 2021-09-28 Through an analysis of historical and contemporary literature Visions of Womanhood in Contemporary African Literature argues that African women were not relegated to the background in African society until after colonization Blessing Diala Ogamba analyzes the history of women's roles in African society through oral stories and biographies to show how colonialization worked to oppress women in Africa and explores the ways contemporary African literature confronts and works to overcome its colonial past Using works by authors such as Akachi Adimora Ezeigbo Lilian Masitera Nawal El Sadaawi Lauretta Ncgobo Sembene Ousmane and many others Diala Ogamba reveals the consistent progression of women and their roles in African novels and society

The Good Life Burton F. Porter, 2017-01-05 Intended for use in the introduction to ethics course The Good Life Options in Ethics Fifth Edition is designed to engage today's practical minded student in more fundamental questions The book ranges from ideals in living the good to contemporary moral problems the right exploring and analyzing both areas in order to stimulate deeper reflection The first section of the book clears away the obstacles to pursuing ethical understanding relativism determinism and egoism Then traditional definitions of the good life are discussed theories such as hedonism self realization duty evolutionism religious ethics and virtue ethic The final section addresses today's social problems including abortion euthanasia animal welfare capital punishment and sexual morality New to the Fifth Edition Chapter 6 Following Nature has been eliminated and its contents have been integrated into appropriate chapters New section entitled Contemporary Moral Issues includes new chapters on Contraception and Abortion Punishment and the Death Penalty Sexual Ethics The Natural Environment Racism and Sexism An Instructor's Manual and Test Bank now accompany the text

The Message Behind the Movie—The Reboot Douglas Beaumont, 2022-04-11 When it comes to movies people of faith often focus on negative assessments of the film industry and certain style elements that they find objectionable such as violence nudity or harsh language While these criticisms are important they are not the whole story A film's message and its method are not always the same thing By discussing the cinematic techniques and the genre considerations filmmakers use to communicate their ideas this book helps Catholics and other Christians to become informed viewers Douglas Beaumont shows how to evaluate the stories that movies tell and how to discern what they say about reality God and what it means to be human At the same time he illustrates how movie watchers can engage in thoughtful lively discussions about not only film but also the big questions in life

The Message Behind the Movie Douglas M. Beaumont, 2009-05-01 Some Christians denounce nearly every move that Hollywood produces others celebrate even the most morally and artistically questionable While most Christians can agree on the cultural importance of films very few are able to interpret movies with insight and understanding Apologetics professor and film lover Doug Beaumont wants moviegoers to become more informed viewers by better grasping the cinematic techniques and genre considerations that filmmakers use to communicate their central themes He also wades into hot button issues of nudity violence and language in movies helping Christians to more carefully evaluate celluloid depictions of sin Packed with quote and excerpts from many of Hollywood s most successful films and from some of the indie favorites that have gained cult followings The Message Behind the Movie is a fun and enlightening look at the art from that defines our age

Nourishing Faith Through Fiction John R. May, 2001-08 An examination of how the films we see and the books we read affect our faith and our view of the world With the Apostles Creed as his foundation author May interprets popular works such as The Grapes of Wrath Cool Hand Luke Slaughterhouse Five and Saving Private Ryan through the lens of religious faith

Cultivating Creativity through World Films David Campos, Ericka Knudson, 2019-11-01 With the aim to help teachers design and deliver instruction around world films featuring child protagonists Cultivating Creativity through World Films guides readers to understand the importance of fostering creativity in the lives of youth It is expected that by teaching students about world films through the eyes of characters that resemble them they will gain insight into cultures that might be otherwise unknown to them and learn to analyze what they see Teachers can use these films to examine and reflect on differences and commonalities rooted in culture social class gender language religion etc through guided questions for class discussion The framework of this book is conceived to help teachers develop students ability to evaluate analyze synthesize and interpret The proposed activities seek to incite reflection and creativity in students and can be used as a model for teachers in designing future lessons on other films

European Cinema and Continental Philosophy Thomas Elsaesser, 2019-01-01 This groundbreaking volume for the Thinking Cinema series focuses on the extent to which contemporary cinema contributes to political and philosophical thinking about the future of Europe s core Enlightenment values In light of the challenges of globalization multi cultural communities and post nation state democracy the book interrogates the borders of ethics and politics and roots itself in debates about post secular post Enlightenment philosophy By defining a cinema that knows that it is no longer a competitor to Hollywood i e the classic self other construction Elsaesser also thinks past the kind of self exoticism or auto ethnography that is the perpetual temptation of such a co produced multi platform national cinema as world cinema Discussing key filmmakers and philosophers like Claire Denis and Jean Luc Nancy Aki Kaurismäki abjection and Julia Kristeva Michael Haneke the paradoxes of Christianity and Slavoj Žižek Fatih Akin Alain Badiou and Jacques Rancière Elsaesser is able to approach European cinema and assesses its key questions within a global context His combination of political and philosophical thinking will surely ground the debate in film philosophy for years to come
