Against the Spiritual Turn Sean Creaven, 2014-04-08 The argument presented in this book is that the recent spiritual trajectory of Roy Bhaskar's work upon which he first embarked with the publication of his From East to West undermines the fundamental achievements of his earlier work The problem with Bhaskar's new philosophical system Transcendental Dialectical Critical Realism or simply Meta Reality from the critical realist Marxist perspective endorsed here is that it marks both a departure from and a negation of the earlier concerns of Bhaskar to develop a realist philosophy of science and under labour for an emancipatory materialist socio historical science The end result is a meta philosophy which is irrealist speculative under theorized internally self contradictory and which cannot provide philosophical guidance to liberatory social practices In opposition to theist ontological logics more generally including the rather more rational theism presented by Margaret Archer Andrew Collier and Doug Porpora the argument of this book is that the earth bound materialist dialectics of the classical Marxist tradition and the naturalistic humanism these dialectics under labour on the terrain of socio historical being offer a much more promising way forward for critical realist theory and for liberatory politics and ethics
