Burns,2018-07-20 Alphabetically arranged entries cover the history of astrology from ancient Mesopotamia to the 21st century In addition to surveying the Western tradition the book explores Islamic Indian East Asian and Mesoamerican astrology The field of astrology is growing rapidly as historians recognize its centrality to the intellectual life of the past and sociologists and anthropologists treat its importance in a number of modern cultures Despite the historical and cultural significance of the subject most reference works on astrology focus on instructional techniques and are written by astrologers with little or no interest in the history of the topic This book instead offers an objective treatment of astrology across world history from ancient Mesopotamia to the present The book provides alphabetically arranged entries by expert contributors writing on such topics as horoscopes court astrologers Renaissance astrology and comets While it considers the Western tradition it also treats Islamic Indian East Asian and Mesoamerican astrology In doing so it explores the role of astrology in shaping science literature religion art and other defining cultural traditions Sidebars offer excerpts from various historical texts while entries provide suggestions for further reading A Divinity for All Persuasions T. J. for studying print nationalism that transforms existing arguments about the political and cultural function of print in the early United States while also offering a provocative model for revising the concept of the nation itself Holt also breaks new ground by incorporating an analysis of literature into studies of federalism and connects the literary politics of the early republic with antebellum literary politics a bridge scholars often struggle to cross Memoirs of the Life and Writings of Benjamin Franklin... Benjamin Franklin,1809 The History of Printing in America Isaiah Thomas,2023-09-28 Reprint of the original first published in 1874 Handbook of Manuscripts in the Library of Congress Library of Congress.
