Poor Mans University 75 Years Of Technical Education In Footscray:

Poor Man's University Carolyn Rasmussen, 1989 Sight, Sound and Text in the History of Education Jody Crutchley, Stephen Parker, Siân Roberts, 2020-06-29 This volume contributes to the study of new sonic and visual sources and their intertextual relationship with the documentary as well as traditional understandings of text in the history of education It both presents case studies of research and points to new avenues of further research This volume arose from a joint conference of the History of Education Society UK and the Australian and New Zealand History of Education Society held in 2016 on the theme sight sound and text in the history of education The conference drew together educational and media historians as well as archivists and museum professionals to examine methodological issues and a range of examples of sensory and textual histories The event from which this book arose showed that there is so much more to consider in this area This book was originally published as a special issue of History of Education A History of the Modern Australian University Hannah Forsyth, 2014-10-01 In 1857 all of the Arts students at the University of Sydney could fit into a single photograph Now there are more than one million university students in Australia After World War II Australian universities became less elite but more important growing from six small institutions educating less than 0.2 per cent of the population to a system enrolling over a quarter of high school graduates And yet universities today are plagued with ingrained problems More than 50 per cent of the cost of universities goes to just running them They now have an explicit commercial focus They compete bitterly for students and funding an issue sharply underlined by the latest federal budget Scholars rarely feel their vice chancellors represent them and within their own ranks academics squabble for scraps Knowing Australia is a perceptive clear eyed account of Australian universities recounting their history from the 1850s to the present Investigating the changing nature of higher education it asks whether this success is likely to continue in the 21st century as the university's hold over knowledge grows ever more tenuous Packaging The Past? John Rickard, Peter Spearrit, 2014-02-28 In this book a special edition of the journal Australian Historical Studies essays by leading academic and freelance historians look at the newest trends in teaching and appreciating the past Australian National Bibliography, 1978 Historical Records of Australian Science, 1992 Australian Education John P. Keeves, Kevin Marjoribanks, 1999 The articles in this volume provide a review of research and scholarly work in the field of education that has been undertaken in Australia during the past 30 years Not only do the articles assess the work but they also consider the contributions of scholarly work to thinking in various educational areas Boletín Internacional de Bibliografía Sobre Educación, 1992 Bookbuyers' Reference Book, 1993 Australian Book Review, 1989 Arts & Humanities Citation Index, 1991 National Union Catalog, 1978 Includes entries for maps and atlases Directory of Published Proceedings, 1981 The International Year Book and Statesmen's Who's who, 1994 Who's who in Asia and the Pacific Nations Benjamin Kay, Cara Bootman, 1999 First published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Journal of the
