The 20th Century Go-N Frank N. Magill, 2014-03-05 Each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains 250 entries on the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history This is not a who s who Instead each entry provides an in depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual s life and achievements The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual s place in history All entries conclude with a fully annotated bibliography Politics and the Papacy in the Modern World Frank J. Coppa, 2008-06-30 The outbreak of the French Revolution and the Industrial Revolution at the turn of the nineteenth century transformed the world and ushered in the modern age whose currents challenged the traditional political order and the prevailing religious establishment The new secular framework presented a potential threat to the papal leadership of the Catholic community which was profoundly affected by the rush towards modernization In the nineteenth century the transnational church confronted a world order dominated by the national state until the emergence of globalization towards the close of the twentieth century Here Coppa focuses on Rome s response to the modern world exploring the papacy s political and diplomatic role during the past two centuries He examines the Vatican s impact upon major ideological developments over the years including capitalism nationalism socialism communism modernism racism and anti-Semitism At the same time he traces the continuity and change in the papacy s attitude towards church state relations and the relationship between religion and science Unlike many earlier studies of the papacy which examine this unique institution as a self contained unit and concentrate upon its role within the church this study examines this key religious institution within the broader framework of national and international political diplomatic social and economic events Among other things it explores such questions as the limits to be placed on national sovereignty the Vatican s critique of capitalism and communism the morality of warfare and the need for an equitable international order John XXIII , 2000-09-13 A new edition to mark the beatification of Pope John XXIII Angelo Roncalli was elected pope in 1958 and in four and a half years transformed the Roman Catholic Church He summoned the Second

Transnational Religion And Fading States Susanne H Rudolph, 2018-02-07 Focusing on the dilution of state sovereignty this book examines how the crossing of state boundaries by religious movements leads to the formation of transnational civil society Challenging the assertion that future conflict will be of the clash of civilization variety it looks to the micro origins of conflicts which are as likely to arise between states sharing a religion as between those divided by it and more likely to arise within rather than across state boundaries Thus the chapters reveal the dual potential of religious movements as sources of peace and security as well as of violent conflict Featuring an East West North South approach the volume avoids the conventional and often ethnocentric segregation of the experience of other regions from the European and American Contributors draw examples from a variety of civilizations and world religions They contrast self generated movements from below such as Protestant sectarianism in Latin America or Sufi Islam in Africa with centralized forms of organization and patterns of diffusion from above such as state certified religion in China Together the chapters illustrate how religion as bearer of the politics of meaning has filled the lacuna left by the decline of ideology creating a novel transnational space for world politics

Contemporary Italy Martin J. Bull,1996-02-28 A unique bibliographic and historiographic guide to the study of contemporary Italy this book points to over 650 texts that have shaped the academic and scholarly study of postwar Italy It is the first guide to include a genuine mix of English language and Italian language materials and to approach these materials in a historiographic as well as a bibliographic manner It is an ideal guide for English North American and Italian scholars who have just begun their study of Italy or want to know more about research in areas outside their area of expertise Following the introduction which outlines the context within which the evolution of Italian studies should be viewed the book is divided into two parts Part I includes five historiographic chapters providing a detailed survey and analysis of works published in history politics government the economy and society Part II is an annotated bibliographic guide to all of the texts pointed to in Part I On the Dignity of Society F Russell Hittinger, 2024-05 In this collection of essays Francis Russell Hittinger shows that Catholic social teaching is not only an articulate defense of the dignity of the human person but perhaps more fundamentally an elucidation of the dignity of society Indeed Hittinger enables us to see that one cannot properly defend the dignity of the person without also showing the dignity of societies in which human persons as naturally familial political and ecclesial animals seek their own perfection in communion with others Hittinger has been a renowned scholar of Catholic social doctrine for some time now and the essays presented here are the fruit of his mature thinking on the topic over the course of many years As each chapter shows Hittinger's historically important body of work on Catholic moral and social philosophy and theology is rooted in natural law theory and Thomistic philosophy but also animated by St Augustine's thought and thus consistently sensitive to historical contexts and arenas for moral and theological disputation These magisterial essays therefore integrate historical studies of the development of Catholic social teaching with systematic exposition of the theological coherence of that tradition while also articulating the essential role of philosophy and natural law within both The volume is divided into three parts The first part is comprised of six essays on Catholic social teaching the second part is made up of six essays on natural law and its role in social doctrine and the third part includes two essays discussing the first principles of the Church's teaching on social issues This collection will no doubt become a standard in the field of scholarship on Catholic social teaching The Papacy Since 1500 James Corkery, Thomas Worcester, 2010-08-12 Structured by detailed studies of significant Popes these essays explore the evolution of the papacy in the last 500 years

Making Saints Kenneth L. Woodward, 2016-04-26 From inside the Vatican the book that became a modern classic on sainthood in the Catholic Church Working from church documents Kenneth Woodward shows how saint makers decide who is worthy of the church's highest honor He describes the investigations into lives of candidates explains how claims for miracles are approved or rejected and reveals the role politics papal and secular plays in the ultimate decision From his examination of such controversial candidates as Archbishop Oscar Romero of El Salvador and Edith Stein a Jewish philosopher who became a nun and was gassed at Auschwitz to his insights into the changes Pope John Paul II has instituted Woodward opens the door on a 2 000 year old tradition The Concept of Justice Thomas Patrick Burke, 2011-02-24 In The Concept of Justice Patrick Burke explores and argues for a return to traditional ideas of ordinary justice in opposition to conceptions of social justice that came to dominate political thought in the 20th Century Arguing that our notions of justice have been made incoherent by the radical incompatibility between instinctive notions of ordinary justice and theoretical conceptions of social justice the book goes on to explore the historical roots of these ideas of social justice Finding the roots of these ideas in religious circles in Italy and England in the 19th century Burke explores the ongoing religious influence in the development of the concept in the works of Marx Mill and Hobhouse In opposition to this legacy of liberal thought the book presents a new theory of ordinary justice drawing on the thought of Immanuel Kant In this light Burke finds that all genuine ethical evaluation must presuppose free will and individual responsibility and that all true injustice is fundamentally coercive

The Devil and the Dolce Vita Roy Domenico, 2021-09-10 Italy's economic expansion after World War Two triggered significant social and cultural change Secularization accompanied this development and triggered alarm bells across the nation's immense Catholic community The Devil and the Dolce Vita is the story of that community the church of Popes Pius XII John XXIII and Paul VI the lay Catholic Action association and the Christian Democratic Party and their efforts in a series of culture wars to preserve a traditional way of life and to engage and tame the challenges of a rapidly modernizing society Roy Domenico begins this study during the heady days of the April 1948 Christian Democratic electoral triumph and ends when pro divorce forces dealt the Catholics a defeat in the referendum of May 1974 where their hopes crashed and probably ended Between those two dates Catholics engaged secularists in a number of battles many over film and television censorship encountering such figures as Roberto Rossellini Luchino Visconti Federico Fellini and Pier Paolo Pasolini The Venice Film Festival became a locus in the fight as did places like Pozzonovo near Padua where the Catholics directed their energies against a Communist youth organization and Prato in Tuscany where the bishop led a fight to preserve church weddings Concern with proper decorum led to more skirmishes on beaches and at resorts over modest attire and beauty pageants By the 1960s and 1970s other issues such as feminism a new frankness about sexual relations and the youth rebellion emerged to contribute to a perfect storm that led to the divorce referendum and widespread despair in the Catholic camp

Interrupting Capitalism Matthew A. Shadle, 2018-06-08 In the decade since the financial crisis of 2008 governments around the world have struggled to develop strategies to stabilize precarious markets encourage growth and combat mounting wealth inequality In the United States the recovery from that crisis has exacerbated the fears of the working and middle classes and pitted those classes against the wealthy Although we participate every day in economic life as workers consumers employers or activists we often experience the economy as a mysterious force that we cannot control or fully understand Matthew Shadle argues that Catholics ought to be able to draw on their faith to help navigate and make sense of economic life but too often the effort to get ahead or just stay afloat drowns out faith's appeal Interrupting Capitalism proposes a new strategy for Christian economic discipleship Rather than engage the two theological poles of continuity and rupture Christians should interrupt capitalism neither wholeheartedly endorsing global capitalism nor seeking to dismantle it This means breaking into the economy embracing those aspects that enhance human well being while transforming the market in a spirit of solidarity Shadle argues that all three of the dominant theological approaches dealing with economic life the progressive neoconservative and liberationist are theologies of continuity A fourth approach a communitarian one he believes can best embody the strategy of interrupting capitalism The Catholic tradition including its tradition of social teaching provides a cultural structure that along with their own social context conditions how Catholics think about and engage in economic activity Drawing on the resources of the tradition theologians reflect on this activity giving it a theoretical justification and offering correctives Both the experience of ordinary Catholics and the work of theologians feed into new articulations of Catholic social teaching Offering an overview of Catholic thought since the Second World War Shadle begins with the experience of Catholics in Western Europe at mid century moving to Latin America and the United States in the 1970s and 80s and then concluding with the phenomenon of globalization 50 Years On David Schultenover, 2015-05-15 Pope John XXIII prayed that the Second Vatican Council would prove to be a new Pentecost The articles gathered here appeared originally in a series solicited by and published in Theological Studies September 2012 to March 2014 The purpose of the series was and remains threefold To commemorate the 50th anniversary of the Second Vatican Council To help readers more fully appreciate its significance not only for the Catholic Church itself but also for the entire world whom the Church encounters in proclamation and reception of ongoing revelation In their present form to help readers worldwide engage both the conciliar documents themselves and scholarly reflections on them all with a view to appropriating the reform envisioned by Pope John XXIII Contributors Stephen B Bevans SVD Mary C Boys SNJM Maryanne Confoy RSC Massimo Faggioli Anne Hunt Natalia Imperatori Lee Edward Kessler Gerald O Collins SJ John W O Malley SJ Agbonkhianmeghe E Orobator SJ Ladislav Orsy SJ Peter C Phan Gilles Routhier Ormond Rush Stephen Schloesser SJ Francis A Sullivan SJ O Ernesto Valiente Jared Wicks SJ
