Fela Michael Veal, 2011-02-02 Musician political critic and hedonist international superstar Fela Anikulapo Kuti created a sensation throughout his career In his own country of Nigeria he was simultaneously adulated and loathed often by the same people at the same time His outspoken political views and advocacy of marijuana smoking and sexual promiscuity offended many even as his musical brilliance enthralled them In his creation of afrobeat he melded African traditions with African American and Afro Caribbean influences to revolutionize world music Although harassed beaten and jailed by Nigerian authorities he continued his outspoken and derisive criticism of political corruption at home and economic exploitation from abroad A volatile mixture of personal characteristics charisma musical talent maverick lifestyle populist ideology and persistence in the face of persecution made him a legend throughout Africa and the world Celebrated during the 1970s as a musical innovator and spokesman for the continent's oppressed masses he enjoyed worldwide celebrity during the 1980s and was recognized in the 1990s as a major pioneer and elder statesman of African music By the time of his death in 1997 from AIDS related complications Fela had become something of a Nigerian institution In Africa the idea of transnational alliance once thought to be outmoded has gained new currency In African America during a period of increasing social conservatism and ethnic polarization Africa has re-emerged as a symbol of cultural affirmation At such an historical moment Fela's music offers a perspective on race class and nation on both sides of the Atlantic As Professor Veal demonstrates over three decades Fela synthesized a unique musical language while also clearing if only temporarily a space for popular political dissent and a type of counter cultural expression rarely seen in West Africa In the midst of political turmoil in Africa as well as renewal of pro African cultural nationalism throughout the diaspora Fela s political music functions as a post colonial art form that uses cross cultural exchange to voice a unique and powerful African essentialism
