Popular Participation in Planning for Basic Needs Franklyn Lisk, 1985      Community Participation and Civic Engagement in the Digital Era Mudit Kumar Singh, 2022-09-08 Understanding the challenges in research and practice of participation in the digital era and the important role of local governance in achieving the sustainable development goals Singh explores the complex relationship of community participation social capital and social networks      Popular Participation in the Management of Natural Resources Kent Michael Elbow, 1992      Rural Development International Labour Office, 1991 Entries in English and various other languages      Behavior and Environment T. Garling, R.G. Golledge, 1993-01-28 Active researchers in the areas of geography and psychology have contributed to this book Both fields are capable of increasing our scientific knowledge of how human behavior is interfaced with the molar physical environment Such knowledge is essential for the solution of many of today s most urgent environmental problems Failure to constrain use of scarce resources pollution due to human activities creation of technological hazards and deteriorating urban quality due to vandalism and crime are all well known examples The influence of psychology in geographical research has long been appreciated but it is only recently that psychologists have recognized they have something to learn from geography In identifying the importance of two way interdisciplinary communication a psychologist and a geographer have been invited to each write a chapter in this book on a designated topic so that close comparisons can be drawn as to how the two disciplines approach the same difficulties Since the disciplines are to some extent complementary it is hoped that this close collaboration will have synergistic effects on the attempts of both to find solutions to environmental problems through an increased understanding of the many behavior environment interfaces      Poverty in Developing Countries World Employment Programme, 1992 Topics include agricultural development basic needs development strategy and planning economic development and policy employment food production housing needs income distribution and industrialization Indexes are divided by references authors corporate authors subject and geographical aspects      The National Mall Lisa Benton-Short, 2016-08-12 The National Mall in Washington D C is one of the most important and highly visible urban public spaces in the U S It is considered by many Americans to be the nation s front yard Yet few have written about the role of this public space in the twenty first century In The National Mall Lisa Benton Short explores the critical issues that are redefining and reshaping this extraordinary public space Her work focuses on three contemporary and interrelated debates about public space the management challenges faced by federal authorities increased demands for access and security post 9 11 and the role of the public in the Mall s long term planning and development plans By taking a holistic view of the National Mall and analyzing the unique twenty first century challenges it faces Lisa Benton Short provides a fluid cohesive and timely narrative that is as extraordinary as the Mall itself      The Peace Corps in Cameroon Julius A. Amin, 1992 The Peace Corps was established in 1961 by the Kennedy administration with the primary goal to help Third World countries while guarding against the expansion of communism This study analyzes the programme and the performance of its volunteers in Cameroon during the 1960s      Bibliography of Published Research of the World Employment Programme International Labour Office,1991      Materials on Asia, accession list and review ,1992      Labour Information International Labour

Office,1991 This reference book provides a core list of publications in the labour field covering both reference materials and selected ILO publications in English It covers employment training labour relations labour administration working conditions and environment social security promotion of equality and workers education      Representative Bureaucracy, Meritocracy, and Nation Building in Nigeria Bola Dauda,Toyin Falola,2015-12-18 This book is a comprehensive theoretical and empirical investigation of the practical application of representative bureaucracy in Nigeria Part I consists of four chapters beginning with a theoretical and an historical overview of representative bureaucracy and policy making in Nigeria This includes a discussion of the myths contradictions and the resultant dilemmas of administration It highlights the complexities and intricacies of public policy making and examines the concept of representative bureaucracy including its meaning forms criticisms prospects limitations and history It also examines the need for administrative reforms what reforms have taken place and the country s search for appropriate bureaucracy for nation building Part II details the objective and empirical facts regarding the representativeness of bureaucracy in Nigeria and its implications Unlike past approaches this book provides solid evidence of what difference representative bureaucracy actually makes on the ground Using a novel and rigorous methodological approach the actual impact of the civil service on policy making is assessed and insights are provided into how a more representative bureaucracy affects policy The approach is enhanced by the authors advantage as Nigerian scholars who had both worked in the Nigerian political system as civil servant and university professors This landmark study will be of value to scholars and students of Nigerian and African political economic and social development

Journal of Social Development in Africa ,1989      Insurance and Human Rights Margarida Lima Rego,Birgit Kuschke,2022-02-15 This volume examines the impact of and interplay between human rights and insurance National supranational and international legal instruments regulating the taking up and pursuit of the business of insurance and reinsurance re insurance distribution and the insurance contract often refer to or impact on human or fundamental rights Courts are often faced with the sometimes seemingly impossible task of reconciling insurance core principles practices and mind sets with the principles and values stemming from human rights protection In some cases such as that of discrimination in insurance this discussion has been going on for decades Some deal with hot topics which have more recently emerged in light of developments stemming from technologic innovations InsurTech The first part of the book focuses on insurance and the right to equal treatment Discrimination on the basis of factors such as gender or age is tackled from the perspectives of the European Union Canada and South Africa The second part of the book highlights the very relevant role played by insurance in the upholding of the right to health covering the United States of America Africa and Brazil The third part of the book explores InsurTech's manifold challenges upon the right to privacy focusing on European Union. The fourth part tackles the threat posed by insurance on the right to life in general but with a particular focus on the United Kingdom. Written by legal scholars and practitioners, the book offers international comparative and regional or national perspectives aiming to contribute to a more thorough and systematic understanding of the interactions between these two very different fields of law, providing the industry as well as the scientific community with insights from both sides of this seemingly difficult to transpose divide.
