Population Malthus His Life And Times:

Population Malthus, His Life and Times Patricia James, 1979 This is a fascinating insight into the work of one of our greatest thinkers Thomas Robert Malthus 1766 1834 is best remembered today for his theories on the menace of over population this first ever full length biography shows him also in his role as one of the founders of classical political economy still a controversial figure in the history of economic thought Based on exhaustive research among contemporary sources it gives an account of Malthus's two careers as an economist and as a professor at the East India Population Malthus Patricia James, 1979

The Politics of Reproduction Katherine Paugh, 2017-04-21 Many British politicians planters and doctors attempted to exploit the fertility of Afro Caribbean women's bodies in order to ensure the economic success of the British Empire during the age of abolition Abolitionist reformers hoped that a homegrown labor force would end the need for the Atlantic slave trade By establishing the ubiquity of visions of fertility and subsequent economic growth during this time The Politics of Reproduction sheds fresh light on the oft debated question of whether abolitionism was understood by contemporaries as economically beneficial to the plantation colonies At the same time Katherine Paugh makes novel assertions about the importance of Britain's Caribbean colonies in the emergence of population as a political problem The need to manipulate the labor market on Caribbean plantations led to the creation of new governmental strategies for managing sex and childbearing such as centralized nurseries discouragement of extended breastfeeding and financial incentives for childbearing that have become commonplace in our modern world While assessing the politics of reproduction in the British Empire and its Caribbean colonies in relationship to major political events such as the Haitian Revolution the study also focuses in on the island of Barbados The remarkable story of an enslaved midwife and her family illustrates how plantation management policies designed to promote fertility affected Afro Caribbean women during the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries The Politics of Reproduction draws on a wide variety of sources including debates in the British Parliament and the Barbados House of Assembly the records of Barbadian plantations tracts about plantation management published by doctors and plantation owners and missionary records related to the island of Barbados The Creation of the Modern World Roy Porter, 2000 This engagingly written new work highlights Britain's long underestimated and pivotal role in disseminating the ideas and culture of the Enlightenment Moving beyond the numerous histories centered on France and Germany the acclaimed social historian Roy Porter explains how monumental changes in thinking in Britain influenced worldwide developments Here is a splendidly imaginative work that propels the debate forward and makes a valuable point New York Times Book Review

Reader's Guide to British History David Loades, 2020-12-17 The Reader's Guide to British History is the essential source to secondary material on British history This resource contains over 1 000 A Z entries on the history of Britain from ancient and Roman Britain to the present day Each entry lists 6 12 of the best known books on the subject then discusses those works in an essay of 800 to 1 000 words prepared by an expert in the field The essays provide

Romanticism, Economics and the Question of 'culture' Philip Connell, 2005 Drawing upon a wide range of source material this study reassesses the idea that the Romantic defence of spiritual and humanistic culture developed as a reaction to the perceived individualistic philistine values of the science of political economy How Blind is the Watchmaker? Neil Broom, 2001-01-01 Neil Broom a biomechanics scientist boldly challenges the scientific establishment's commitment to what he labels as the flimsily crafted but persuasively packaged myth of scientific materialism Anarcho-primitivism, First Things Mary Jacobus, 2020-04-03 In First Things Mary Jacobus combines close readings with theoretical concerns in an examination of the many forms taken by the mythic or phantasmic mother in literary psychoanalytic and artistic representations She carefully explores the ways in which the maternal imaginary informs both unconscious processes and signifying practices at all levels Her fierce analysis of specific texts and paintings raises questions about the the symbolic and biological maternal body and how they relate to each other in literary and psychoanalytic terms The invocation of writings by Kleist Wollstonecraft Mary Shelley Malthus and de Sade along with analysis of French revolutionary iconography and Realist and Impressionist paintings by Eakins and Morisot make this wide ranging text a truly interdisciplinary study First Things sees literary theory and psychoanalysis as mutually illuminating practices The work of Freud Klein Kristeva and Bion shape an inquiry into such topics as population discourse surrogate motherhood AIDS mastectomy and psychoanalysis itself In addition Jacobus elaborates on Freud's oedipal preconceptions Klein's missing theory of signs memory melancholia narcissism and maternal reverie Geographers Patrick H. Armstrong, Geoffrey Martin, 2015-12-14 An annual collection of studies on major contributors to the development of geography and geographical thought Patrick H Armstrong is Adjunct Associate Professor Edith Cowan University Western Australia Geoffrey Martin is Distinguished Professor Emeritus Geography at Southern Connecticut State University in New Haven and Archivist of the Association of American Geographers Routledge Dictionary of Economics Donald Rutherford, 2013-06-26 The Routledge Dictionary of Economics now in its third edition provides the clearest most authoritative definition of economic and financial terms available The book is perfect for students and professionals interested in a broad range of disciplines including Business Economics Finance and Accountancy and all additional subjects where a knowledge of these fields of essential The dictionary has been updated to reflect the economic changes of the new Millennium including the emergence of experimental and behavioural economics new political economy the importance of institutions globalization environmental economics financial crises and the economic emergence of China and India It's an international dictionary that includes succinctly explained A to Z entries and definitive explanations of the key terms accompanied by a short bibliography and comprising supplementary online definitions In a world where the reader is met with a barrage of conflicting and competing information this book continues to provide a definitive guide to economics Disease in the Merchant Navy Gordon Cook, Anna Pavlov, 2019-08-08 In this unique highly detailed examination Gordon C Cook explores disease in the merchant navy through the history of the Seamen s Hospital Society From its foundation in 1812 until the present day the Seamen s Hospital Society has been responsible for the physical welfare of merchant seamen and has headed many remarkable advances in medical science This handsome volume is ideal for all those with an interest in the Seamen s Hospital Society medical and naval historians and general readers with an interest in maritime and naval history

Everything Must Go Dorian Lynskey,2025-01-28 A rich captivating and darkly humorous look into the evolution of apocalyptic thought exploring how film and literature interact with developments in science politics and culture and what factors drive our perennial obsession with the end of the world As Dorian Lynskey writes People have been contemplating the end of the world for millennia In this immersive and compelling cultural history Lynskey reveals how religious prophecies of the apocalypse were secularized in the early 19th century by Lord Byron and Mary Shelley in a time of dramatic social upheaval and temporary climate change inciting a long tradition of visions of the end without gods With a discerning eye and acerbic wit Lynskey examines how various doomsday tropes and predictions in literature art music and film have arisen from contemporary anxieties whether they be comets pandemics world wars the Cuban Missile Crisis Y2K or the climate emergency Far from being grim Lynskey guides readers through a rich array of fascinating stories and surprising facts allowing us to keep company with celebrated works of art and the people who made them from H G Wells Jack London W B Yeats and J G Ballard to The Twilight Zone Dr Strangelove Mad Max and The Terminator Prescient and original Everything Must Go is a brilliant sweeping work of history that provides many astute insights for our times and speaks to our urgent concerns for the future

The Norton History of the Human Sciences Roger Smith,1997 Beginning with the Renaissance s rediscovery of Greek psychology political philosophy and ethics author Roger Smith recounts how the human sciences gradually organized themselves around a scientific conception of psychology and how this trend has continued to the present day in a circle of interactions between science and ordinary life influencing and influenced by popular culture Photos drawings

A History of Utilitarian Ethics Samuel Hollander,2019-07-09 In this landmark volume Samuel Hollander presents a fresh and compelling history of moral philosophy from Locke to John Stuart Mill showing that a moral sense can actually be considered compatible with utilitarianism The book also explores the link between utilitarianism and distributive justice Hollander engages in close textual exegesis of the works relating to individual authors while never losing sight of the intellectual relationships between them Tying together the greatest of the British moral philosophers this volume reveals an unexpected unity of eighteenth and nineteenth century ethical doctrine at both the individual and social level Essential reading for advanced students and researchers of the history of economic thought political economy history of ethics history of political thought and intellectual history

Theorists of Economic Growth from David Hume to the Present W. W. Rostow,1992-09-24 This history of theories and theorists of economic growth elucidates the economic theory economic history and public policy observations of the renowned scholar W W Rostow

Looking at the economic growth theories of the classic economists up to 1870 Rostow compares Hume and Adam Smith Malthus and Ricardo and J S Mill and Karl Marx He then examines the period 1870 1939 and its economic theorists including Schumpeter Colin Clark Kuznets and Harrod and surveys the three forms of growth analysis in the postwar era formal models statistical morphology and development theories This authoritative overview also includes an agenda of unresolved problems in growth analysis and a description of the five major tasks statesmen will confront over the next several generations Classics and Moderns in Economics Volume I Peter Groenewegen, 2002-09-26 Building on the Groenewegen's respected collection of eighteenth century economics this new book focuses on the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries and includes several essays that have never been previously published The Agricultural Dilemma Glenn Davis Stone, 2022-06-30 The Agricultural Dilemma questions everything we think we know about the current state of agriculture and how to or perhaps more importantly how not to feed a world with a growing population This book is about the three fundamental forms of agriculture Malthusian expansion industrialization external input dependent and intensification labor based The best way to understand the three agricultures and how we tend to get it wrong is to consider what drives their growth The book provides a thoughtful critical analysis that upends entrenched misconceptions such as that we are running out of land for food production and that our only hope is the development of new agricultural technologies The book contains engaging and enlightening vignettes and short histories with case studies drawn from across the globe to bring to life this important debate and dilemma The book concludes by arguing there is a viable alternative to industrial agriculture which will allow us to meet the world's needs and it ponders why such alternatives have been downplayed obscured or hidden from view This important book is essential reading for all studying and researching food production and agriculture and more broadly for all interested in ensuring we are able to feed our growing population Fifty Major Economists Steven Pressman, 2013-08-22 An introduction to the life work and ideas of the people who have shaped the economic landscape from the sixteenth century to the present day Now in a third edition it considers how major economists might have viewed challenges such as the continuing economic slump high unemployment and the sovereign debt problems which face the world today it includes entries on Paul Krugman Hyman Minsky John Maynard Keynes Adam Smith Irving Fisher James Buchanan Fifty Major Economists contains brief biographical information on each featured economist and an explanation of their major contributions to economics along with simple illustrations of their ideas With reference to the recent work of living economists guides to the best of recent scholarship and a glossary of terms Fifty Major Economists is an ideal resource for students of economics Steven Pressman is Professor of Economics and Finance at Monmouth University He has published around 120 articles in refereed journals and as book chapters and has authored or edited 13 books including Women in the Age of Economic Transformation Economics and Its Discontents Alternative Theories of the State and Leading Contemporary Economists Romantic Period Writings 1798-1832: An Anthology Ian Haywood, Zachary Leader, 2005-11-01 Romantic Period Writings 1798 1832 provides a valuable insight into the condition of Britain in the early part of the nineteenth century.
