Politics of Ethnic Classification in Vietnam Masako Itō, 2013 Officially the Socialist Republic of Vietnam has a total of 54 ethnic groups including the majority Kinh and 53 ethnic minority groups This book examines the history of the ethnic group determination process highlighting some of the challenges the official policies pose to both the state and the affected peoples Vietnam has proudly embraced its multiethnic identity seeking the equality of all ethnic groups in the interests of national unity Yet among other things it appears that the total number of ethnic categories was rather arbitrarily determined initially and then fiercely defended by influential politicians and academics Furthermore the extensive field surveys reveal that ethnic policies are frequently manipulated at the regional and local levels in pursuit of economic interests and not infrequently to the detriment of those they were intended to benefit Series Kyoto Area Studies on Asia Vol 23 Professor Ito has succeeded admirably in juxtaposing her study of official documents interviews with officials and academics and the results of her own excellent first hand field work to demonstrate why ethnic classification in Vietnam has been far more a political than a scientific project Her book deserves to be read not only by those interested in Vietnam but also by others interested in the politics of ethnicity more generally Pacific Affairs Vol 87 No 4 December 2014
